sity's new admission tests policy

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1956

Offices In Graham Memorial

TO 932:

R AND KRAAR RETAIN EDITORSHIP

COEDS VOTE IN YESTERDAY'S RECALL ELECTION . . editorial election brought out votes

Reid supported Don Fowler for the SP nomination for student

Reid as his attorney general.

call President Fowler.

sign" to him.

conclusions," he said.

a right to run for editor."

Physics Club.

UNC Scientist To Speak

On Solar Eclipse Trip

Reid said he helped E. L. (Jun-

Reid said he helped Nance draw

"If the charges (that he influenced the starting of the recall petitions) have embarrassed the party, I'm sorry," he said. He told party members the charges didn't indicate that something was be-

"The charges are based on false

Reid then discussed the charges

Henley Photo

GRECALL MOVEMENT:

eid Explains Any Embarrassment

the Dave Reid gave an from Dorm Men's II. Roy Long for any embarrass- was named by acclamation to remay have caused the place G. C. Pridgen from Dorm buty in the recall issue Men's III. of SP members Mona old SP member and body president last spring. The siegislator for the party. SP, however, gave the nomination wished to "make his to Manning Muntzing. Reid then thar as to his "alledged supported Fowler on an indepenin The Daily Tar dent ticket. Fowler was elected in in recall election yes- a run-off election and appointed ther Ballentine, memmirman, addressed the jor) Nance draw up the recall petithe importance of per- tions, but he denied influencing in securing member- Nance to start them. He also said diress was part of the he did sign the recall petitions.

te reports were also up the petitions because he felt the resignation of Miss "it was his duty as attorney genhere as secretary was eral." He said he would do the A new secretary will same thing if someone asked him the next meeting, ac- to help draw up a petition to reb Chairman Norwood ther was elected to re-Laughinghouse in the egislature from Dorm M Roy Taylor was elect-

Republicans Open Iship Drive Today

ag Republican Club will imbership drive starting nunced Publicity Chair-thip cards can be puray and Thursday from 9 the recall election. "I have never D.m., he said. boths will be located at one to get their name on a ballot In Lenoir Hall.

for any office," he said. membership cards may at half price for a said Singleton. nominating Brumfield. He said he scheduled for Graarial today include: Phi Alpha Reception, ange; Panhellenic, 5-6 Il Room; UP Member-D p.m., Roland Parker Jehovah's Witnesses, Roland Parker Lounge Itial Committee, 4:30-6 sodhouse Conference ays and Means Com-$15.7:15 p.m., Wooderence Room: S.K.E., Woodhouse Confer-WRC, 2-4 p.m., n; Ceramics Class, and 7:30.9:30 p.m.,

GM'S SLATE

Morse To Talk On Thursday 1 ed to replace Bob Harrington

Wayne Morse, Democratic Senator from Oregon, will speak tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Hall Hall. He will be introduced by Bob Young, president of GMAB. His appearance is sponsored by The Carolina Forum. Morse, who left the Republican Party and joined the Democratic Party in 1954, was dean of the law school at the University of Oregon in the 1930's. From 1942 to 1944 he served on the War Labor Board with former UNC President Frank Graham. When he resigned he was praised by President Franklin Roosevelt for his valuable serv-

(See MORSE, page 4.)

UNC's First Recall Vote Fails; Write-In Ballots For Ratcliff Only 122

Editors Louis Kraar and Ed Yoder of The Daily Tar Heel were reelected in yesterday's recall election.

The two editors were victorious over their opponent, Lewis Brumfield, by over 800 votes. The final tabulation was 1,777 for Kraar and Yoder, 932 for Brumfield. Bob Ratcliff received 122 write-in votes.

Kraar and Yoder received a 684-504 margin from the men's dormitories with Ratcliff getting 69. They received an . overwhelming majority from the women's dormitories, 342-50, with 10 for Ratcliff.

Victory Village returns showed Brumfield, and 13 for Ratcliff.

Big fraternity court gave their field a margin of 30-10, with Rat- recall election move.

Ratcliff polling 5.

Gerrard Hall voters favored day. Kraar and Yoder, 199-42, with Ratcliff receiving 2. Lenoir Hall turned in a vote of 200-76 for the two editors, with Ratcliff getting 9.

The Scuttlebutt vote favored the editors, 166-127, with 3 for

Concerning the election, both editors isued statements. Kraar said:

"The students have reaffirmed the Carolina tradition for freedom from conformity of thought. Those demagogues who would use this paper for a political tool have been crushed. And I am proud the students themselves did it. We will go on writing to the best of our convictions and continue inviting the campus to disagree with us."

Yoder said: "I guess it has been proved that you can't fool all the students all the time. Two factions have been repudiated by the students: the political tail-twisters and the alarmists who thought the students wanted a colorless

Daily Tar Heel.' Brumfield could not be reached for comment.

Police Asked To Victory Village returns showed 63 for Kraar and Yoder, 43 for Brumfield, and 13 for Ratcliff. Search For Papers vote to Brumfield, 42-29, with 3 appproximately 2,500 missing a sudents to "Write In Ratfor Ratcliff. Little fraternity newspapers last night as the cliff"-vote for Bob Ratcliff as court did likewise, giving Brum- smoke cleared from a last-minute the newspaper's editor. Ratcliff

Voters in Alpha Tau Omega ing editions of The Daily Tar Editors Louis Kraar and Ed Yoder turned in a smashing 74-15 vote Heel, were reported missing or and candidate Lewis Brumfield in in favor of Kraar and Yoder with stolen after delivery men ended the running. their early-morning routes yester> put out 2,500 copies in a noon-hour Brumfield "an obvious last-minute extra edition vesterday. Here's how the missing papers fit into the election picture: Monday evening-the eve of the recall election—an unsigned, mim-

Women's Positions Now Open

The positions of chairman of women's orientation and the chairman of leadership training have not been filled yet, according to Miss Susan Fink, chairman of the women's residence council. Any coed interested in either job may look at the files in the Council Room of Graham Memorial today and tomorrow from 2 to 4 p.m. Application blanks may be filled out there.

The chairman of women's orientation must be a junior. She will plan the orientation of all new women students in the fall. This is a position where imagination and ability to organize and get work done is needed, according to Miss Fink.

The chairman of leadership training must be a senior coed.

(See JOBS, page 4.)

Town police were searching for eographed statement appeared had previously dropped out of The newspapers, Tuesday morn- the editorial race, leaving present

The statement charged the present editors "have attacked every-The Daily Tar Heel, however, thing on campus," and called desperation candidate who is considered to be unqualified by many of the students."

Joseph Crews, senior from Wilmington, ordered the mimeographing job done, according to the University Duplication Dept.

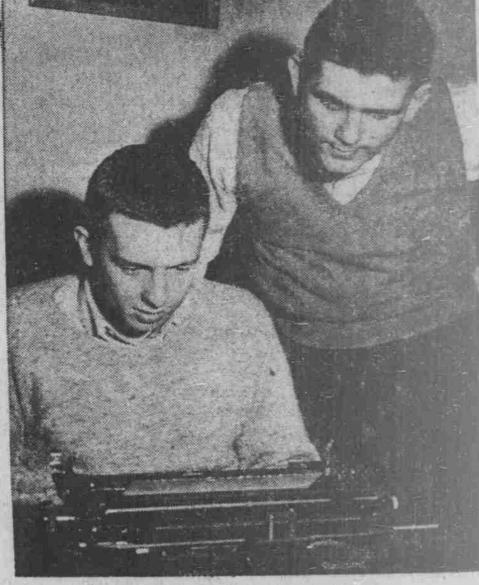

Late Monday night, after the mimeographed statement had been circulated. Bob Ratcliff issued a statement that he was in no way connected with the movement. His remarks were published in The Daily Tar Heel for Tuesday morning's paper.

Students reported Tuesday morning that their papers did not arrive. A check showed they had been delivered, and they were evidently removed from their distribution points.

The extra edition, which reached students eating lunch yesterday, told the story of the missing papers and explained Ratcliff's statement that was not a write-in tuted,' the Governor said.

Ratcliff's statement was also ously missing.

The Daily Tar Heel has asked the Chapel Hill Police Dept. for an investigation of the missing committee, wanted "a clear denewspapers, and has announced it lineation" of the relationship be- noons. These players will receive will prosecute the offender if he tween the University president personalized cue sticks. The three

EDITORS YODER AND KRAAR . . . students expressed their opinions yesterday

SUCCESSOR TO GRAY:

Presidential Group Sets Meeting Soon

statement issued by the Univer- committee would meet in the next Executive Committee yesterday few days to begin its job of narsity of North Carolina Trustees' rowing down a long list of canwas "intended to lay at rest talk" didates for University president. of deconsolidating the Univer-

Gov. Hodges said this today when asked for comment on the Executive Committee's statement. The statement "meant to say" that the State Board of Higher Education "will correlate activities" of the state's higher education institutions "as now consti-

Meanwhile, it was learned the Trustees' Executive Committee remimeographed late Monday night quested the Governor to name a and early Tuesday morning, and special committee which would distributed around the campus, Its confer both with the Board of lege Unions Inter-Collegiate Bildistributors reported many copies Higher Education and a commit- liards Tournament will be held University president.

The Governor said Victor Bryant, chairman of the nominating final round after preliminary play and the Board of Higher Educa-

In its statement yesterday, the Trustees' Executive Committee said the University has problems which the Board of Higher Education "is not familiar with nor is it able to handle such problems."

The Executive Committee also urged Bryant's nominating committee to make its recommendations on a new University president "as expeditiously as seems wise.'

Gov. Hodges said Bryant felt the nominating committee needed to be able to tell candidates for University president clearly just what the relation between the president and the Board of Higher Education would be.

Delta Upsilon Wins Scholarship Award

North Carolina's chapter of Delta Upsilon social fraternity has been awarded the Philadelphia Delta Upsilon Scholarship Cup for the third successive time.

The cup is awarded on the basis of the chapter's scholastic rating, as compared with other chapters in the province. There are 12 chapters in the fraternity's third province.

Carolina Alumni Tony Houghton and Ed Vogel received the cup at a banquet in Philadelphia Feb. 9. The chapter here now has permanent possession of the cup. McCartney III.

RALEIGH, Feb. 14 (A) - A | Bryant, meanwhile, said his He said suggestions had been received from University trustees and other sources.

Billiards Finals Set

The finals of the Assn. of Col of the statement were also mysteri- tee named to recommend a new today at 4 p.m. in the Graham Memorial Billiards Room.

Three finalists remain for the offs Friday and Monday after Miller and Jay Collie.

Out of a possible score of 100, Cashion scored 76, Miller scored 66 and Collie scored 66. Close behind the three finalists was Ralph Foster with a score of 65.

The tournament is being held under the direction of Dan Turner, director of the GM Billiards Room. The official judge is Bob Teague, graduate student majoring in physical education. The scores of the three finalists will be sent to National Headquarters to compete with 300 other college teams. The individual high scorer is eligible for one of five final positions throughout the country, and, if selected, will be awarded an expense paid trip to East Lansing, Mich., to compete in the face-to-face play-off for a national collegiate billiards cham-

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the Infirmary yes terday included:

Miss Mary G. Clarke, Miss Frankie M. Junker, Miss Shirley B. Collins, Christopher M. Douty, William B. Akin Jr., James C. McMahan, Benson R. Mangum, Thomas B. Jackson Jr., Jerry H. Morriss, Ben G. Williams, Dewey E. Johnson Jr., Lloyd M. Walter, James W. Rose Jr., Richard W. Jennings, William T. Rzece, Andrew J. Pollard and James R.

Reston, Bunche, Mays Added To March List

Six speakers of an "all-star" cast of eleven prominent figures in bother him. He said the charges human relationships were announced here yesterday as aring done, and that was a "good rangements for the Carolina Symposium on Public Affairs, March 11-16, were revealed.

The six are: James B. (Scotty) Reston of the New York Times: Carlos P. Romulo, Ambassador to against kim of signing the petition the U.S. from the Philippines; Dr. nominating Lewis Brumfeld for Ralph Bunche of the United Nations; Maj. L. P. McLendon, a refused to sign a petition for anymember of the N. C. Board of Higher Education; Dr. Frank P. Graham of the United Nations, and Reid was then asked who ap- Benjamin Mays, president of Moreproached him to sign the petition house College in Atlanta, Ga.

The other five members of the wasn't sure who handed him the symposium will be announced petition, but he signed it and re- within a few days, it was announcquested other students to sign it, ed by Manning Muntzing, chair-"because he felt Brumfield had man.

Romulo, who will deliver the Weil Lectures (which are combined with the Symposium) has as his central topic, "American Citi-

Reston, who heads the Washington Bureau of the New York Dr. Morris Davis, UNC profes- Times and is an authority on international diplomacy, will speak sor, will speak tonight upon his trip to Thailand this past Decem- on the general area of world probber for observing the solar eclipse. lems. Dr. Ralph Bunche, UN mediator, Dr. Davis' talk will be held at will discuss "Colonialism." 8 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge of Dr. Mays will devote his speech the Morehead Planetarium. It will

"Old Problems in the New be sponsored jointly by the Chapel to Hill Astronomy Club and the UNC South." (See SYMPOSIUM, page 4.)

A Real, Live Valentine

This is Miss Mary Hobbs Valentine, pretty Carolina namesake for the day when sweethearts exchanged tokens of affection. (Henley Photo)