Concert Series To Offer 'Faust'

The Chapel Hill Concert Series will present another of its non-scheduled special programs on Friday, March 9, at Memorial Hall, when The Grass Roots Opera Company will present Gounod's opera, "Faust."

The group will sing the opera in concert form with narration. After their Raleigh performance, the

Raleigh Times commented: "... the performance was so outstanding that stage settings were not needed to add to the total effect."

All seats will be unreserved, and tickets will be $1.00. They are available at Graham Memorial, Kemp's, and Ledbetter-Pickard's.

Teen Age Problems To Be Discussed Here

What are some of the emotional and physical problems of Tar Heel teen-agers in 1955? How can one establish rapport with the teen-ager? What are the physiological causes of certain adolescent behavior patterns? These are some of the questions to be discussed next week at the UNC Medical School when doctors from all parts of the state assemble here for the Fourth Annual Program in General Medicine.

TOMORROW AT CARROLL HALL:

Movie On Methodist Leader Wesley Set

The motion picture "John Wesley" will be shown at Carroll Hall tomorrow at 3, 7 and 9 p.m. according to Rev. Kimsey King of the Aldersgate Methodist Church, sponsor of the film.

John Wesley's rescue from a burning house at the age of 5, at the beginning of the film, forecasts the eventual life which unfolds in the story a man of great influence upon his contemporaries and upon history.

The English clergyman thought his venture in America as a missionary to the Indians in the Georgia colony was a failure, but it was the kind of failure which opened the door to the discovery of a religious certainty he had been seeking.

His "enthusiasm" was frowned upon by the leaders of the Church of England of that day, but it was the newfound enthusiasm which enabled him to influence so many phases of the life of English-speaking peoples.

Latin American Envoys Touring Campus Today

Representatives from six U. S. Embassies located in Latin American countries arrived on campus this week to observe campus activities and operations, particularly those of the School of Journalism.

Sponsored by the U. S. Information Agency of the State Department, the tour includes stops at various universities and points of interest throughout the nation and is designed to help the group, all of whom are Nationalists employed in the press divisions of the Embassies represented, to a better understanding of the United States and its people.

Prof. Sturgis Leavitt of the University's Spanish Department is in charge of local arrangements for the group which includes: Tomas Blacott, Bolivia; Aristides Maleon, Venezuela; Oswaldo Coronel, Ecuador; Sarah Appleyard, Paraguay; Rosa Zimmerman, Argentina; and Rafael Treuino, Mexico.

USHERS

Ushers are needed for "Seventeen" tonight and tomorrow night. Interested students are to get in touch with Paul McCauley, 5 Vance.
