EXUM SAYS:

Hallford Elected To Head

ID Council During 1956-7

SP Nominees For Student Body Officers

in above are the Student Party's candidates for officers of the student body to be elected Tuesday. They are (left to right) Sonny vice-presidential candidate; Miss Jacke Aldridge, candidate for secretary; Bob Young, presidential candidate, and Andy Burnam, for treasurer. (Truman Moore Photo)

nparison Records

I have challenged Tom to compare publicly his d journalistic experience iew of the fact that Lams, he said, "I hereby m tomorrow's issue of The

and his length of service

igh Running ependently Head Class

haugh, junior from Rosedidacy for the office of m of the senior class. selement issued yesterday Raugh said, "I have ged for some time by my that I am not running on licket will injure my of winning. I feel that I serve everyone as a biindependent," he said, than as a member of a thes scheduled for Graamorial today include: tions Board, 4-6 p. m., Room; Student Council, m., Grail Room; CUSC, m, Roland Parker 1; SP 4 6:30-7:30 p.m., Roland Young Republicans, 10 p.m., Roland Parker 1; ies, 5-6 p.m., Roland Par-NSA, 3:30-5 p.m., Roland 3: Chess Club, 7:30-11 Roland Parker 3; Senior Committee, 4-5:30 p.m., Suse Conference Room; tisional Interfraternity 7.9 p.m., Woodhouse tence Room; UNC Check Antative, 3:30-5:30 p.m., Room; Bridge Lessons, Room; Ceramics, 7-10 APO Room.

GM'S SLATE

Student Party Has Hodges Says 13 Point Platform

Sears, campaign man- In a two-part platform, the Stu-1 study rooms. Fred Powledge, Daily Tar dent Party yesterday announced 9. The lending of full support conditions under which you live." to the do mitories. said Chairman Norwood Bryan, 11. The establishment of a coed Greensboro Saturday night. in the past," stated "by uniting the efforts of student visiting agreement in social rooms "A great deal of planning has government, the student body and of men's dormitories. the administration and faculty."

> much in the past. To cite a fev ming pool open before exams. the dorms, social room improve- Bob Young in past issues of The mediately following," Hodges said. ments, pool tables in Grah me Daily Tar Heel. However, the re- A reception will be held in the morial and various governmental bate system requires some expla- women's dormitories from 7-8:30 minued, "Will be the fol- ed, "which student government president of the student body) and 8:30 to midnight. All male students can do when the Student Party is will be some sort of a system are invited to attend, he said. s in which he has worked try even more," he said.

Party objectives for the coming year, Bryan cited the following

4. A rebate system at the Book-having all cars abolished by the for improved dormitory social to run for senior class for fraternities and sororities en-hot feel," he said, "that abling discounts. 8. The establishment of all night

UNC Senior Poems Will Be Out Soon

Senior Robert Morris, of Atlantic, is the author of a slim volume of poems entitled "Hurricane" released for publication on April 1 dance at this meeting because of Raleigh; and treasurer, Tom Ray by Old Well Publishers of Chapel the importance of these topics.

Quarterly and the Yale Literary rary Poets Series, which was be-the Marian Year" by H. A. Seiber sometime in April. shops.

Bryan said, "The Student Party voluntary for veterans.

Concerning some of the Student books," he said.

1. The possibility of free student

2. A revitalization of the cut 3. A reading day before exams.

5. An equitable solution to the student auto problem rather than

Trustees. 6. Financial and other assistance morial, according to Jerry Martin, have appeared in the Carolina "are cordially invited and urged ther nominations preceeding the Magazine. "Hurricane" is the third issue of the Old Well Contempogun last year.

Previous volumes are "In This and "Rebellion" by Ron Levin, both former students. Another volume, "Something the West Will Remember," by Seiber, will appear cording of the Monday night Sym-

Morris' "Hurricane" will appear Rendezvous Room; in a paperback trade edition and cording of the speech has been fice on the second floor of Graham lessons, 6:30-8 p.m., Ren- a ha dback himited edition and asked to mail the recording to the part of the symposis to the symposis of the spring vaca- was a good job. We had 30 boys cards will be stamped in the mearness of the spring vaca- was a good job. We had 30 boys a ha dback minited control was a good job. We had 30 boys will be on sale at all local book. YMCA Building or call the symbology at UNC and state pre- tion, according to Pat Hunter, over here, and we were very pleasmanner.

court.

take up the work left off several p.m. This will be followed by an "These are things," Brun stat- years ago by Bob Gorham (former informal dance in Elliot Hall from the wheel. This year we will wherein students can get back part if the price they pay for their

NSA Will Hold Meeting Today For Discussion

The National Student Assn. will meet today at 3:30 p. m. in Roland Parker Lounge 3 of Graham Me-NSA coordinator.

Martin said there are four very 7. A central purchasing system important topics on the agenda. They are as follows:

(1) Discussion of spring regional conference to be held at State College in Raleigh.

(2) Discussion of National Congress to be in Chicago this year. Ten students from Carolina will be selected to go.

(3) Discussion of the new Foreign Affairs Coordinating Com-

(4) Announcement of the profor Academic Freedom

Week. "It is very important," Martin stated, "that we have good atten- of Asheville and Eric Elliot of All persons who are interested in Anderson, S. C. Poems included in the volume any of the above matters," he said, The floor will be open for furto attend this meeting."

Muntzing Wants Record Of Symposium Speech

Manning Muntzing, chairman of the Carolina Symposium on Public Affairs, would like a tape reposium speech.

Anyone having made a tape re- lot in the student government of- the 1,500 mark. posium office at 85761.

Don't Forget CU Night

hours can help you better the 10. The return of ballot boxes. Carolina students not to forget CU Night at Woman's College in gone into the preparation of this 12. Making physical education third "CU Night," and I certainly and student government has done 13. Having the outdoor swim dents take advantage of this hospitality of the Woman's College of the more significant things - "Several of the points have been and attend both the open houses TV sets and washing machines in commented on," said Bryan, "by at the dorms and the dance im- lina Christian Conference, an- tion and provide suggestions for

GREENSBORO, (A) - The member of the faculty of the consolidated university of North Carolina who has made the greatest contribution to the "welfare of the human race" during the current school year is to be honored here

New Officers Sunday

Election of officers of the Westminister Fellowship here will be held in the Presbyterian Church Hut Sunday at 5 p. m. The following nominations were Culture in India," following the board. supper at 6 p. m.

Absentee Ballots To Be

hope that all of the Carolina stu-

O. Max Gardner Award To Be Presented Tonight

Members of the faculties of the three branches of the university will attend a 6:30 p.m. dinner to be held in Spencer Dining Hall at Woman's College. The 1956 Oliver Max Gardner Award will be made at that time.

Westminister To Elect presented at last week's meeting: President, Donn Wells of Alberston; vice-president, Holland McSwain of Franklin; study secretary, Dan Sutherland, Arlington, Va.; secreta: y, Miss Susan Merrick, of Charlotte and Bill Acker of on this campus." He said he him before making any commit- per. thought the students could make ments. I hope to secure some stu- "The editor of The Daily Tar current campus issues. The state-Luther Hodges Jr., president of it work. He said a realistic "re- dents capable and vitally interest- Heel should constantly inject new ments of opinion would be displayarial candidate, yesterday its specific and general objectives to the proposed new fraternity the Consolidated University Stu- evaluation should be made as to ed in seeing student government ideas into his editorial, news and ed fairly and fully, with the aim dent Council, yesterday urged how the honor system could be succeed next year."

Church Conference Will Be

Integration Here

Should Be Slow

week," he said.

Exum said apathy in regard to fraternity and sorority. Through student government was due to a these cabinets, I intend to keep loss of faith in the ability of stu- in constant touch with student de-ing to reach all the students dential appointments will be made dent government to be effective. sires and needs," he said.

sentative from every dormitory,

Concerning presidential appointments, he promised, "My presion the basis of personal interview with everyone who is interested

Held April 6 And 7 At Bricks nounced Don Webster, conference religious activities on the home a complete summary of the week's the same time.

"I believe we must move slowly in integrating this campus. I try to restore this faith by try-will work here," he said.

HONOR SYSTEM

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Representatives from ten denomminational and "Y" groups will be $4, of which $2 has been throughout the state have planned designated as the registration fee tian Conference, which will be Grey McIlwean, Women's College, said, "and we would choose a pic- Sound and Fury is a student muheld April 7-8 at Franklinton Cen- Greensboro.

ter, at Bricks. the conference speaker for this collegiate gathering, which is a follow-up to an earlier conference

"Our Unity in Carist: Our Dis- throughout the state will lead the North Carolina Student Chris- payable before April 3 to Miss Ila be run on the page," Powledge writing the spring production.

Due to limited facilities at Fran-Dr. Waldo Beach of the Duke klinton Center, the number of recan be obtained from Don Web-Student leaders from campuses Durham.

Student Legislators To Debate Appropriations Bill Tonight

Only three measures are on the the scholarship. student Legislature's agenda to-

The representatives meet at 7:30 in the Philanthropic Assembly ment ... deserves to be reward-the appropriation of funds, and the by McElroy calls for naming one other deals with the naming of of the new dormitories for James the proposed new dormitories. The big proposal deals with the versity, Leonidas Polk, and Wilestablishment of a scholarship for liam T. Polk, Journalist. the freshman self-help student The final bill calls for appro with the highest academic average priation of $60 to the Elections calls for a $200 appropriation for McElroy's proposal reads, "Outstanding scholastic achieve-

The resolution, introduced by proposed revisions in the student Larry McElroy, Student Party, Constitution."

Two of the measures deal with A second proposal introduced Knox Polk, an alumnus of the Uni-

Board "to cover costs of printing

North Carolina Patriots, Inc. Reach 1,500 Total Membership Kappa Phi's. Opportunities to toss sponge balls at the head of a Theta the Patriots of North Carolina Inc. general; and S. H. McCall, a Mont- many more game booths will be Rev. K. J. Phillip, of the Mar now has a membership of over gomery County lawyer who is a Thoma Syrian Church of South In- 1,500, according to Carlton Mize, member of the Patriots' executive dia, will speak on "Christ and a member of the county executive committee.

The Patriots of North Carolina Inc. is a statewide pro-segregation group. At an organizational rally held in the new courthouse at Cast Here This Afternoon Hillsboro on Friday night, the Students who will not be here county unit signed up 219 mem-Tuesday may vote by special bal- bers to push its membership over . UNC DANCE COMMITTEE sident of the Patriots; Beverly chairman.

The Orange County chapter of Lake, former assistant attorney- Zeta Psi's "penny arcade," and Lake, the main speaker of the evening, said a system similar to the federal "GI Bill" could legally be instituted to provide the tuition grants for children attending private schools.

The University Dance Commit-Speakers at the rally were W. C. tee will not meet Monday due to tory Village, commented that "it

Bass Named Vice-President Over Monteith By One Vote

terdormitory Council president for without opposition. 1956-57 at a Council meeting last. Charlie Dunn was picked for

Rocky Mount, N. C., got the nod from Ahoskie, N. C. vesterday he thought "we must a weekly article in The Daily Tar Spring Hope, N. C. Bass was then was acclaimed clerk of the court. move slowly in integrating this | Heel telling the students exactly elected vice-president over Jim HALLFORD dent to know how he felt about to write about it at least once a and Monteith an equal number of would like to see manifested in votes, and outgoing President the organization next year. He Lewis Brumfield was forced to listed these as: "I plan to have a cabinet which break the tie by casting a ballot. (1) "Improvements in the dorms don't think it has yet been fully will have representatives from ev-Tom Walters, sophomore from physically,"

Sonny Hallford was named In- leigh, N. C., was chosen treasurer

Hallford, a rising senior from tory Council Court. Dunn hails the student body presidency, said | Exum said he intended to put over Neil Bass, sophomore from Bill Houser of Cherryville, N. C.

what he was doing as chief exec- Monteith by a one-vote majority. Hallford told Council members He said he wanted every stu- utive. "I hope to be doing enough | The Council accorded both Bass there were "certain ideas" he proven that complete integration ery area of the campus, and a sub- Tarboro, N. C., was acclaimed (2) "A well-rounded social procabinet which will have a repre- Council secretary for next year. | gram."

Bob Carter, sophomore from Ra-(See IDC, page 6.) Powledge Gives Ideas

Fred Powledge, UP endorsee for 'Pro and Con' would stimulate peobecome editor. I would like to start them as soon as possible," he statweek, Running on Sunday mornnificance. A page-wide cartoon would like to try - are welcome," summary of the week would also according to Jack Spooner, who is ture of the week. "Another idea - one I could UNC students. start the day I become editor - "If you want to have loads of University Divinity School, will be gistrations accepted will be lim- is a short, concise summary of the fun, don't be afraid to try out beited to 120. Additional information world's major events, taken from cause we're all amateurs," said the wire service minutes before Spooner. "Even if you don't want ster, Box 6637, Callege Station, press time. This feature would run to appear in front of the curtain, on Page One," he said.

REVIEW

EDITORIAL FEATURE

For The Daily Tar Heel

The honor system should be in a position. The positions which editor of The Daily Tar Heel, yes- ple tremendously," he stated. "It 'abolished" according to Exum, if are open will be duly publicized. terday outlined three ideas con- would consist of opinion - from the "students cannot make it work I like to see a man and talk with cerning new features for the pa- students, townspeople, faculty and sports pages," he said. "Three such of providing opinion-stimulating ideas have been in the back of my material for the readers," he conmind for quite some time. If I cluded Sound & Fury Tryouts

Will Be Held Sunday Sound and Fury tryouts will beunity as Christians," will be the small discussion groups designed ings, the review would replace the gin this Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in theme of the coming North Caro- to stimulate individual participa- present ditorial page one day a Memorial Hall and will also be week," he said, "It would contain held on Monday and Tuesday at events on the campus, along with "Anyone who can sing, dance or The cost for each participant interpretation of those events' sig- act - or even if you can't and there are plenty of jobs backstage. So remember Sunday at 7:30," he

"An editorial page feature called said. IFC's Greek Week To Feature in the Phi Gamma Delta "Fiji things done in the community," slave market" booth tonight at the Dr. Samuel Habel, minister of the ternities on campus will conduct windows, cleaned the kitchen and many different "games of chance" ranked the lawn very carefully," at the carnival beginning at 8 he said. o'clock tonight. Paul Fulton and Al Resnick are co-chairmen of the Paul Fulton and Al Resnick said,

IFC Greek Week this year. be busy at the Sigma Alpha Ep- done and a great deal was accomsilon booth while a contest to see plished. The pledges as a whole which girl can catch the "greasy worked very hard and deserve pig" will be wagered by the much credit. We think the IFC's pledges of Delta Kappa Epsilon. work project was a great success, Students will have the choice of they concluded. either throwing cream pies with the Tau Epsilon Phi's or the Pi Kappa Phi's. Opportunities to toss Chi pledge, pitch pennies in the available at the carnival. Approval of the Greek Week Work Day Tuesday was praised by many of the Chapel Hill townsmen, including Wade F. Hook, pastor of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church. He stated in a letter to Paul Fulton that "the boys who came here demonstrated an excellent spirit and performed a numbr of worthwhile tasks for us." P. L. Bunch, rental agent of Viced with what they did," he added.

Pledge Carnival Tonight At 8 Four coeds will be auctioned off "I think it's one of the finest Greek Week carnival at Navy Baptist Church, stated, "We were appreciative of what the boys have Pledges from each of the fra- done in our church-washed the

After a survey of Work Day 'From all outward appearances it A penny "roulette wheel" will seemed that much work was being

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the Infirmary yesterday included:

Miss Gloria A. Rothman, Miss Meredith Stringfield, Miss Doris E. McDowell, Miss Elizabeth G. Whitfield, Miss Flora N. Roebuck, Miss Florence Patrick, Miss Ann S. Eversman, Miss Sarah E. Buie, Miss Teresinha R. Crisostomo, Herbert A. Thuemmler, James H. Matthis, Guilford E. Furr, Eric R. Roper, James R. Dillingham, Charles B. Bolton, James C. Fogleman, Charles W. Sumner, Melvin L. Bordeaux, Thomas D. Bolick, Joseph E. Herring, Wallace H. Vale and William B. Akin Jr.