

Tar Heel Netters Pulverize Woeful Fighting Irish, 9-0

Carolina's unbeaten netters roared to their fifth win of the season, and their third in as many days here yesterday as they polished off Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, 9-0.

In the number one singles match, Carolina's Don Thompson demonstrated a powerful forehand game in edging Irish ace Harry Smith, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5.

In the other extended match, the top doubles affair, Tar Heels Tom Bradford and John Foster squeaked by Smith and Chuck Vanoncini, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Bradford, Foster, Pete Green, Bob Bortner, and Pete Dell all marched to victory with ease in the remaining singles encounter, and the other doubles teams performed in similar fashion.

The summary:
Singles: Thompson (C), defeated Smith, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5; Bradford (C), defeated Vanoncini, 6-1, 6-1; Foster (C), defeated Richards, 6-2, 6-2; Green (C), defeated Rich, 6-1, 6-1; Bortner (C), defeated Metz, 6-1, 6-2; Dell (C), defeated Guilfoile, 6-0, 6-2.

Doubles: Bradford and Foster (C), defeated Smith and Vanoncini, 3-6, 6-2, 7-5; Dell and Bortner (C), defeated Rich and Metz, 6-3, 6-1; Hudgins and Bank (C), defeated Richards and Van Dyke, 6-3, 6-3.

Tar Heels Stop Duke In 9-5 Win

Ivlee Hill's three-run homer in the sixth inning and a fine pitching performance by righthander Billy Jo Johnson gave Carolina a 9-5 victory over Duke at Coombs Park in Durham yesterday. The game was called at the end of eight innings because of darkness.

The score was tied, 5-5, when Hill unloaded his four-bagger in the sixth to put Carolina ahead, 8-5. The Tar Heels tallied again in the seventh on a sacrifice fly by Don Lewis, scoring Carson Oldham from third.

Johnson was great in the clutch as he fanned fifteen men to set a new classic strike-out record. The stocky righthander was tagged for eight hits and walked five as he went the distance in chalking up the Tar Heels' first win of the season.

Carolina took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when catcher Jerry Bryson drove in Don Lewis from second with a single to deep center. The Tar Heels added another run in the second when Oldham singled, went to second on an error, and advanced to third on a wild pitch. Johnson then singled to put Carolina out front, 2-0.

The Blue Devils knotted the count with two runs in the third but the Tar Heels came up with two more tallies in the fourth and one in the fifth to lead 5-2. Johnson weakened slightly in the fifth as Duke picked up three runs.

The stage was set for Hill's tremendous blast and the game was never again in doubt as Johnson bore down and struck out five in the last three innings.

The victory sends Carolina into the consolation championship against Loyola this afternoon at 3:30 in Coombs Park.

Was To Start In Blue-White Tilt Saturday

Junior Halfback Larry McMullen, who had been designated as a starter for tomorrow's annual Blue-White intra-squad football game, broke an ankle in Wednesday's practice session and will miss the colorful tilt.

McMullen was still confined to the infirmary last night, but may get out in time to see Buddy Sasser or Danny Droze fill his starting position. All are on the Blue team roster.

The battle, slated for 2 p.m. tomorrow in Kenan Stadium, ends the spring practice season for the Tar Heels and gives UNC fans their first close look at the 1956 Tar Heels in action.

Except for McMullen and six boys, five of whom are still hobbled by injuries sustained last fall, the Tar Heel squad will be intact for Saturday's battle. The squad has been divided into two 22-man squads with eleven additional players alternating teams. The scrap is sponsored by the North Carolina Monogram Club.

A large crowd is expected for the game, as fans are anxious to have a look at Tatum's first North Carolina product after his success at Maryland.

The Blue Squad is headed by fast backs in quarterback Dave Reed, halfback Ed Sutton and fullback Don Lear.

The White's probable backfield starters will be sophomore Curtis Hathaway at quarter, Emil DeCantis and Dick Darling at halves and Giles Gaca at full.

Up front the Blue has Larry Muschamp and Paul Pulley at ends, Phil Blazer and Dick Smith at tackles, Jim Jones and Jack Lineberger at guards and Stewart Pell at center.

The starting White forward wall will probably consist of Vince Olen and Bill Ellington at ends, John Bilich and Leo Russavage at tackles, Hap Setzer and Howard Williams at guard and George Stavitski at center.

Buddy Payne, sophomore starter at right end last fall, will miss the game due to the aggravation of a knee injury received last fall. Also sitting out the contest will be end Charlie Robinson.

BUDDY SASSER may start at half tackle Dick White, guard Leonard Rhyne, halfback Steve Kupchick and fullback Wally Vale. All except Vale are still having injury troubles from the fall. Vale was injured earlier in spring practice.

Golfers Play Michigan

Coach Chuck Erickson's unbeaten golfers will be looking for win number three of the current campaign here this afternoon when they entertain the Wolverines from the University of Michigan in a match beginning at 1:30 on Finley Course.

The probable lineup will be Jimmy Sykes, Joe Correll, Gene Lookabill and Aubrey Rothrock in the first four spots.
