

Activities Discuss Planning

Activities on campus will see new innovations next year's rushing from Melton, who is the representative to the Panhellenic council.

Miss Pat Dixon, who will arrive on campus for a three-day stay. She will rush chairmen of the Panhellenic and the president of the Greeks tomorrow night to discuss the rush system as it is.

The Panhellenic Council is talking for some time about changing their rushing system to Miss Dixon, vice-president and rush chairman for all. They have arranged for Melton, of Norfolk Virginia and study their present and make suggestions which can be improved.

Monday morning, Mrs. Melton will meet with Miss Martha who is advisor to the local, and go over last year's rushing, said Miss Dixon. In her address she will address the members of the Panhellenic and tell the group of her findings.

Melton will tour the campus Monday morning and will return Tuesday afternoon. While she will be the guest of the Mu girls in the Stray Chi Omega house, the Delta house and the Tri-Kappa, Miss Dixon said. The council will meet later and discuss changes that Mrs. Melton

ist Will ear With Band

Melvin Bernstein will be with the UNC Concert when they play in Hill Tuesday at 8 p.m.

He will appear on the radio with the 60-piece student band, which is under the direction of Herbert Fred, graduate in the UNC department of Music.

The program will feature George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" and include works by Rosalind Keckley, Haydn, Beethoven, Gould, Manuel de Falla and Gordon Jacob.

He is a native of Memphis, Tennessee, and a graduate of Southwestern College in Memphis. He has received his graduate degrees from the University of Michigan and the University of California.

He has appeared as guest soloist and with various ensembles with the UNC Symphony Orchestra on campus including the University String Quartet.

He is the conductor of the UNC Band and Concert Band for several years, was director at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Ind., before coming to Carolina. Composer, arranger, the Minnesota State also been guest conductor at music clinics and festivals in the Middle West.

Phi Epsilon 7 Men

Members recently initiated into the Phi Epsilon social fraternity

Members include: Harold Wake Forest; Ronald Biloxi, Miss.; Jess E. Evanston, Ill.; Ned Hamilton-Salem; Jack Reed, Ohio; Jerry White, Salem; and Gordon Lindbeck, N.Y.

GM'S SLATE

Activities scheduled for Graham Memorial today include: Musicale Practice, 8 p.m. Lounge; Band, 4-6 p.m. Room.

Carolina Folk Festival Entertainers

The South Turkey Creek song and dance man, Bascom Lamar Lunsford, director of the 9th annual Carolina Folk Festival that began yesterday and will continue through today, is shown playing his old 5-string banjo. Listening is Lamar Stringfield, who is a featured entertainer for the festival and is a prize-winning composer for his "Cripple Creek Suite." Stringfield bought the banjo from Lunsford and will play it in the program. Some 400 fiddlers, banjoists, ballad singers, and square and clog dancers will take part in the event.

Positions On GMAB Are Now Open

Applications are now being taken for the four officers positions, committee chairmen and committee members of the Graham Memorial Activities Board, according to Bob Young, GMAB president.

Young said the offices of president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer will be filled. Blanks for the applications may be obtained at the GMAB office or at the information desk of GM, he said.

The committees as outlined by Young are as follows:

POLLS
Polls Committee: The purpose of the polls committee is to provide a means of expression of student opinion on pertinent campus issues. The committee is open for the purpose of taking polls for any student organization.

PUBLIC RELATIONS
Public Relations Committee: The basic purpose of this group is to provide the best possible publicity for all the phases of the Board's program. The success of the overall program depends upon the work of this committee which is poster work, newspaper releases and radio coverage of the program.

SOUND AND FURY
Sound and Fury: The amateur musical-dramatic group which gives two shows each year—one in the fall and one in the spring. The entire production, from script and lyric-writing to stage and scenery designing to acting out the lines are operated by students. It is not a professional or dramatic arts major's group, but it provides acting opportunities for both the experienced and inexperienced who are interested.

MUSIC COMMITTEE
Music Committee: This committee concentrates mostly on the informal "Les Petites Musicales" concerts which are given on Sunday nights. The programs feature those who are beginning in musical careers and also those who are trained in various types of musical activities. The programs are of the more cultured variety and provide entertainment for townspeople and students alike.

FESTIVAL OF JAZZ
Festival of Jazz: The latest addition to the board's program. The first Big Four Festival of Jazz is being given on April 13. This group hopes to make this an annual affair. Also, next year to spend much time developing the jazz entertainment on campus and sponsor various jazz concerts during the year.

RECEPTIONS
Receptions: These people provide personnel for all types of receptions in the GM lounges. It is composed mostly of coeds who are on call to serve for receptions any time they are needed. They serve in a somewhat insignificant but very important way.

DANCE COMMITTEE
Dance Committee: The basic purpose of the GMAB Dance Committee is to provide student entertainment in the form of informal dances and concerts in the Rendezvous Room. Dances are also held in other places on campus under the sponsorship of the Committee. One of the highlights of the year was the "Toast of the Campus" show, a talent show that should be-faith should be sought.

"These students, believing that Christianity not only raises these questions, but that it also gives the most adequate answers to these questions, broke up into several discussion groups trying to find the solution to problems in their personal life and in Campus Relations within the perspective of the Christian Faith.

"As they broke up into six student led discussion groups it became evident to them that the heart of the conference was contained within these discussion groups. A few of the major questions brought up in the discussion groups were as follows:

"The Essentials Of Our Christian Faith: Does group opinion mean too much to me? If my fellow student takes the path of evil or 'goes astray', should I desert him? Must I accept myself before I can accept my neighbor?

"Student Christian Leadership: Does your student Christian commitment permeate your activities outside of a Christian organization? How can students come to the realization that honor is

(See STUDENTS, Page 3)

Blue-White Queen Will Be Crowned At Game Today

By Howard Jones

The queen of the annual Blue-White game will be crowned during the half-time ceremonies at today's game, Jerry Vayda, Monogram Club president said yesterday.

Vayda said the queen will be chosen from a total of 12 candidates whose pictures are displayed in the YMCA lobby. Votes costing one cent each have been sold for the past two days in the YMCA.

"In order that more students may vote for the candidate of their choice, voting will continue in the YMCA through this morning," Vayda said.

The 12 coeds who have been sponsored as candidates by either women's dormitories or sororities are:

Miss Donna Anderson, junior from Winchester, Va. sponsored by Smith Dormitory; Miss Sandra Clarke, junior from West Palm Beach, Fla., sponsored by Spencer Dormitory; Miss Sandy Hirt, senior from Larchmont, N. Y., sponsored by Carr Dormitory;

Miss Jo Anne Knott, junior from Oxford, sponsored by Alpha Delta Pi sorority; Miss Barbara Love, junior from Lincolnton, sponsored by Chi Omega sorority; Miss Jane Little, a junior from Charlotte, sponsored by Pi Beta Phi sorority;

Miss Pat Oliver, senior from Mt. Airy, sponsored by Tri Delta sorority; Miss Anne Page, student nurse from Buchanan, W. Va., sponsored by the Nurse Dormitory; Miss Sally Price, sophomore from Buchanan, W. Va., sponsored by Kappa Delta sorority;

Miss Sarah Roberson, junior from Williamston, sponsored by Alderman Dormitory; Miss Anne Smith, junior from Fairmont, sponsored by Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, and Miss Susan Walker, junior from Wilmington, sponsored by McIver Dormitory.

B'nai B'rith Hillel Sponsors Lectures Here Next Week

The B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation is sponsoring an unusual series of lectures and cultural programs in honor of the eighth anniversary of Israel according to Rabbi E. Rosenzweig, director of Hillel.

According to the Rabbi scholars and personalities to be brought to Chapel Hill and other campuses include Dr. Immanuel Ben Dor, Deputy Director of the Department of Aniquities of the State of Israel and Dr. Raphael Patai, internationally renowned anthropologist and ethnologist, formerly associated with the Hebrew University in Israel.

Dr. Ben Dor is presently teaching at Dropsie College in Philadelphia, and Columbia University, the Rabbi said.

Mrs. Cilli Abraham, Vice-Counsel for Israel in New York City, and the Oranim Troupe of Folk dancers, singers, and musicians will also be here for the event.

Dr. Ben Dor, in addition to leading a seminar on the subject, before the Ministerial Association and special guests, will present an address on "The Dead Sea Scrolls" in Carroll Hall, next Tuesday, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Abraham, whose experience has ranged from service with the British Army to Diplomatic status, will address two student groups on the campus, and will be the featured speaker at a Luncheon to be held at the Carolina Inn, Tuesday, April 10th, according to Rabbi Rosenzweig. Her subject will be "The Status of Women in the Modern Middle East."

Reservations for the luncheon can be made by telephoning the Hillel Foundation, 8-7731, according to Rabbi Rosenzweig.

Dr. Patai's lecture will take place under the auspices of the Institute for Research in Social Studies in cooperation with the Hillel Foundation next Thursday, at 8 p. m. in the Library Assembly room. His subject will be "Spiritual and Cultural Problems of the Modern Middle East."

The two ensigns received their commissions March 30, upon graduation from Officer Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island. They are on temporary duty with the Office of Naval Officer Procurement in Raleigh.

Both men said they would like to move around the campus and see different people.

Chi Omega Sorority Gives Service Award

Miss Lucy Morgan, founder and director of the Penland School of Handicrafts in the western part of the State, is the recipient of this year's distinguished service award for women presented annually by the Epsilon Beta chapter of the Chi Omega Sorority.

The award was presented to Miss Morgan recently in behalf of the sorority by Chancellor Robert B. House at the sorority's Eleusinian Banquet. The banquet was held in honor of Chi Omega founders' day.

The citation described Miss Morgan as a "teacher philosopher, humanitarian, creative artist, who is founder and director of the Penland School of handicrafts, which attracts students from all parts of the world."

Report In Error; Village Re-Election Is Clarified

In yesterday's paper, it was reported that certain charges against Pete Gerns, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Victory Village Day Care Center, was dismissed by the Elections Board. This report was erroneous.

Gerns was specifically reprimanded for "Irregularities in closing the polls." Dalias Ammons, village resident, testified that Gerns authorized voting after six p. m. and that Gerns also authorized voting without identification cards. Gerns was not cleared of either of these charges, as previously reported.

Moreover, the Board's decision to hold a re-election for the one-year Legislature seat from the Village was based on four specific charges, including the two mentioned above.

The other two charges were (1) that, when Gerns did close the polls, he did not put the unmarked ballots into the ballot box, nor did he return the box to Graham Memorial immediately, and (2) that during the counting of the ballots, ten were invalidated by Elections Board Chairman Harry Braxton, giving rise to a suspicion of stuffing.

Student Party Will Meet Monday Night

The Student Party will hold its first post-election meeting Monday night at 8 p. m. in Roland Parker Lounges of Graham Memorial.

Chairman Norwood Bryan said the meeting would be in the nature of a "victory celebration" and urged all old members and other interested students to be present.

Receives Scholarship

Robert Lee Green Connelly of Raleigh, a graduate student in Romance Languages here, has received a Fulbright Fellowship. The fellowship, valued at $1500 for the school year, is for a year's study at the University of Paris. He will study aspects of the Modern French Theatre. He is now working on his master's degree.

Cosmopolitan Club Reports 2 Activities

The Cosmopolitan Club has listed two activities for tomorrow and Monday.

The group will hold its meeting tomorrow from 4 to 6 p. m. in the Library Assembly Room. The program will be a social hour followed by a showing of slides of Europe by Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Bose.

The group will hold its second supper forum on Monday from 6 to 7:30 p. m. in the second floor dining room of Lenoir Hall. The topic for the forum will be Colonialism. Those attending have been asked to go through the dining hall line and then bring their trays upstairs.

All interested students have been urged to attend both events.

N. C. State

North Carolina State College's new air-conditioned, non-denominational chapel will be dedicated during formal rites at the college tomorrow afternoon.

The $42,000 structure forms a part of the college's YMCA Building.

Civil Service Announces Receipt Of Applications

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced that applications are now being accepted for positions in the personnel, administrative, supply, and aircraft trades fields for duty at Overseas Air Force stations.

Appropriate experience is required. In some cases, education may be substituted for experience. No written test will be given.

Further information regarding the requirements and where to send applications may be obtained from the local Post Office.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary yesterday included:

Miss Anne B. Orton, Miss Emma J. Broker, Miss Sally A. English, Miss Julia T. Hall, Miss Nancy Jo Nussear, Miss Betty C. Hoffer, Miss Janet D. Jarvis, Mrs. Lawrence Egerton, Edward A. Lipski, Christopher M. Douty, Larry D. McMullan, Morris R. Hall, Charles H. Forbes, James B. Malcolm, Milton J. Moye, Virgil E. Hyde, Orren E. Dowd, Jr., Larry E. Norman, Dixon L. Qualls, Baxter C. Culler, Jerry S. Ikerd, Ivey G. Rogers, Charles C. Hunter, Jr.