Smdent Party has won the with defeated Gardner Folwas in turn acclaimed irman after the withdraw-

Ester Ballentine was named

Long got the nod for party without opposition.

s Legislature representative Dorm Men's II.

by Carter was picked as the s Legislature whip for the roque Music ogram To Presented

Collegium Musicum, under frection of Gene Strassler, to attend the meeting. resent a concert of Baroque program will feature Carisour solo voices and six-part well, telephone 9-1581. i Jim Pruett, tenor from Mt. will sing the part of Jeph-

Martha Fouse, soprano of el Hill, will sing Filia, Jephdaughter. Miss Roberta Dixfrom Raleigh, will be the Mor, and James Chamblee, of agton, is the bass soloist. The lons scored for the solo duet be sung by Miss Jan Saxon of otte and Mrs. Jean Harper oque instrumental music to flormed will include Benedetfrom the "Luenburg Organ dure," and Loeillet's "Suite" tello and harpsicord. These h selections are from the fi- Union. selling, Miserere mei Deus, are scored for alto, tenor, bass, holas and continuo. Mrs. Dor-Alden and Miss Joanna he viola accompaniments. usier, graduate assistant in lasic Dept., of Apollo, Pa., has tonducting rehearsals of the

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1956

Offices In Graham Memorial

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Garner

Tabs Are

On Sale

Tickets are now on sale for the Erroll Garner Trio concert on Thursday at 8 p. m. in Memorial

Tickets are only $1 and are on sale in Y-Court. They may also be obtained at the Graham Memorial information office, the Chapel Hill

Campus, and the Carolina Sport

Representatives of the Stray Greeks and the Interfraternity Proceeds from the concert, spon-

Garner, a native of Pittsburgh, has been on the roster of legendary jazz greats for almost two decades.

When only three years old, he amazed his family by playing a selection on the parlor room piano just as he heard it played on an

He has continued to amaze listeners ever since then with his completely self-taught, distinctive and Garner has been playing professionally ever since he was seven, beginning his "play for pay" career on a Pittsburgh radio station with a group called the "Candy

The career of "Mr. Piano," as

During his first recording session

He is now being scheduled for by an arranger. One of his com-

Although Garner, now 33, has already made a tremendous dent in with Mercury, he cut over two hours of music without rehearsing he is sometimes referred to, has old-fashioned player piano.

imaginative pianistics.

sored by the Panhellenic Council and the IFC, will go to the Chapel Hill Recreation Center.

Council will sell tickets in the

ambeth Elected SP hairman; Foley Wins ice-Chairman Spot

By NEIL BASS

confidence. Now we shall keep their respect." So am Lambeth upon his elec-SP chairman for 1956-57 at secretary over Miss Anne

Warren was awarded the McLean, Orientation chairman. atarm's post over Mike den! body President Bob addressed remarks to party standing ovation by party Old counselor manuals will be Holmes was elected without tion to supplant Benny Huff-the Israelite leader.

on of Dry Fork, Va.

arpsicordist of Chapel Hill, by both of Chapel Hill, will up from the vice presidency. Since versity library.

Young congratulated all party problem as the number one exam-members "who were a part of the ple. winning team."

In closing his remarks, Young He also told members that he said, "Now we'll go to work." realized the many "problems" Young will announce plans for which were confronting student the coming year and appointments government. He cited the parking at next week's meeting.

Almost 200 Apply For Counselors

Approximately 200 applications Sept. 13-17. Counselors will not for Orientation counselors have have to be on campus until Sept. been received, according to Bill 13.

outgoing Party Chairman "was expecting 200" by the dead- counselor benefits in three ways: ad Bryan and recently elect- line, which was last night.

Interviews for the positions will start today, according to McLean, and will last all week. Any appliwho stressed the need for cants who are unable to be presstudent participation" to ent for the interviews, he said, strong student govern- should contact Mebane Pritchett, was presented an ingraved chairman of the selection commitwoutgoing party vice-chair- tee, at the Phi Delta Theta House Pat McBane. He also re- for a new interview time.

available in the student governwho called for a "joining ment offices for study, McLean of hands by both stu- said. Student constitutions may be and administration, also re- picked up at the Y Building, Grastanding ovation by mem- ham Memorial and Lenoir Hall. Applicants for the counselor to the party advisory jobs, said McLean, are expected mee were Brandon Kincaid, to have a thorough knowledge of Brooks, Andy Milnor and the Honor Code, campus life and governmental systems.

Orientation for next fall will be

British Scholarships Will Be Discussed Today

Miss H. B. Lawrence, of the British Embassy in Washington, will be here today to talk with undergraduate and graduate students about British universities and scholarship opportunities for American students to study in the British Isles. She will hold a seminar-type discussion on the subject in 108 Caldwell Hall at 3 p.m. All inter- town often enough to mail their ested students have been invited letters.

Individual or group interviews tonight at 8 o'clock at Hill with Miss Lawrence for other parts of the day may be arranged through the secretary of the watorio "Jephthah," written Political Science Dept., 101 Caldfor the cheering squad have been the dormitories. He added that the asked to meet in Roland Parker new box has been planned for 1 of Graham Memorial Thursday about a year, but that the Post Ofsary to try out. The meeting wall another one to be placed on cambe a short introductory meeting. pus.

Cheerleaders

Sonny Hallford, new president There were only 190 at 6 p.m. of the Interdormitory Council, yesterday but McLean said he recently said the Orientation (1) He renders valuable service to the campus, (2) He gains experience through working with new people and (3) He gains personal enjoyment and satisfaction.

UNC Professors To Retire In July Six faculty members, who will retire July 1, are pictured together at the Old Well. They are (left to right) Dr. W. Carson Ryan, Kenan professor in the School of Education; Dr. Dudley D.

Kee, professor of Education in Extension Teaching; Dr. Allen W.

Hobbs of the Mathematics Dept. and former dean of the School of Arts and Sciences; Phillips Russell of the Journalism School, and Dr. Harry W. Crane of the Dept. of Psychology. (UNC Photo by Carroll, former dean of the Business School; Dr. William J. Mc-Monroe Campbell)

Miss Marcy Krafchick To Be Quarterly Editor

Miss Marcelline Krafchick, of Miss Krafchick completed her Philadelphia, Pa., has been named undergraduate work at Beaver editor of The Carolina Quarterly College in Pennsylvania where, for the year 1956-1957 by the Edi- during her junior and senior years, torial Selection Committee.

She succeeds Bill Scarborough, erary magazine, The Beaver Regraduate student at UNC, is work- college year book. ing on her master's degree in the Dept. of Dramatic Art and is serving as a graduate assistant in that department. She is also the publicity director for the Carolina Play-

New Mailbox Placed At Lenoir Hall

The campus has a new mailbox for students who don't get down-

The new mailbox, sparkling with red, white and blue paint, is located at the north end of Lenoir Hall. Pick-up times for mail deposited in the new box is 11:30 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. on weekdays and Saturdays and 5:30 p. m. on Sundays and holidays. According to J. Paul Cheek, Chapel Hill postmaster, there have been a great number of requests Students interested in trying out from students for a mailbox nearer fice has just recently acquired a No previous experience is neces- surplus of boxes which permitted she was editor-in-chief of the litof Mt. Gilead. Miss Krafchick, a view, and literary editor of the tinuing through May 21st. She also was President of the college chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, > al play at the college. During her senior year a prize of $200 was awarded Miss Krafchick for receiving the highest grades in her department. Her ability in creative writing brought her the annual Orchid Award, and in 1954-1945 she received Beaver

Begins New

National Honor Fraternity in Journalism, and found time to College's first Fulbright Scholar-As newly selected editor of The Carolina Quarterly Miss Krafchick made the following statement: "I hope to strengthen the Quarterly campus can see their highest quali- tated will be shown over WUNC- and board fees. The travelng exshould also be occasional works by attained considerable success. tified from year to year. If we American Medical Association. can afford it. I'd like reproduced in each issue a painting by someone in the UNC Art Dept. I hope a lot of people will take an interest in the magazine and help me with it," she said.

Local canines drowsing in the warm afternoon sun in front of the Library. Acquiring a tan for the beach this summer?

Foreign Service

State department will be on campus tomorrow to discuss with students the need for Foreign

A group meeting will be held in 210 Gardner Hall at 2:30 p.m. Persons with backgrounds in

Planetarium Show Tonight

"Things That Fall From the Sky" is the title of the new demonstration opening tonight at the Morehead Planetarium and con-

The demonstration is about comets, meteors and cosmic radiations that appear in the heavens periodically and create widespread interest. To know in adwrite and direct the annual origin- vance the characteristics of these phenomena enables one to accept their frequent appearances with positive identification and intelligent understanding.

With the opening of the new show, the Planetarium will revert to its usual schedule of performances, which are nightly at 8:30 o'clock with matinees Saturdays at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. and Sundays at 3 and 4 p.m.

Cancer Program

as an instrument chiefly through view with six persons who have Goettingen. The scholarship inwhich creative writers on this been cured of cancer and rehabili- cludes tuition, matriculaton, room ty material published. There Television tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

or about writers who have already Orange County chapter of the fund. N. C. Cancer Society are sponsor-

Hilda Gueden, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, the Vienna State

Opera, and La Scala, Milan, will appear in the final concert of the Chapel Hill Concert Series on April

The Vienese singer's performance at Memorial Hall will be one of 25 in addition to her operatic engagements, she will make on European star, Miss Gueden made her Metropolitan debut during the 1951-1953 season as Gilda in "Rigo-

She followed with successes in

"La Boheme," "Carmen," "The

Marriage of Figaro," "Rosenkavalier," "The Rake's Progress," "Arabella," "Don Giovanni," "Orpheo," recordings on the London FFRR.

and "Fledermaus."

Already established as a ranking her fourth American tour.

27 at 8 p. m.

Noted Opera Soprano

To Appear Here Soon

GM Director Candidate To Come For Interview

By MONROE CAMPBELL

Board approved yesterday a recommendation that the "strongest candidate" for the position of Student Union Director be brought here for further interviews with the

Howard Henry, assistant to the director of the student union at Wisconsin University, was named the "outstanding choice" for the position held by Jimmy Wallace since his resignation last Spring by the office of the Dean of Student unions in the country.

Exchange Scholarship

larship for two semesters at the es of Henry and his wife for their University of Goettingen in Ger- trip here for the interview. "The Living Proof," an inter- many from the student body of penses to and from Germany will The N. C. Medical and the be paid by the Carolina Exchange

Students who are interested in "I hope to institute a traditional ing the film, in which H. V. Kal- the scholarship have been asked to cover design and format with tenborn interviews the former pa- contact the exchange committee in which the Quarterly can be iden- tients. It was prepared by the Dean Fred Weaver's office at 2:30 a committee appointed by GMAB to recording and concert artist. He select and screen candidates. The committee has just returned | bels and has sold extensively on all from the Assn. of College Unions of them. National Convention at Purdue University where they interviewed 10 candidates for the job here. Dr. William H. Poteat, Jimmy and improvised it all on the spot

The Graham Memorial Activities

Wallace, Sam Magill and Bob Young comprised the committee world-wide. Since his debut at making the recommendation that Town Hall, New York, in Decem Henry be brought here for further ber, 1950, Garner has appeared in interviews. All expressed great de- major concert halls throughout the United States and Canada. sire to obtain him for the job. "We would be extremely fortuconcerts in South America, Ausnate to obtain one who has so much ability and experience in the tralia, Europe and Japan. field of student activities," Dr. Po-The selection of the exchange teat said. Henry has been in stu- posing, which is amazing, as he student for the Carolina-Goettin- dent union work 20 years and at cannot read music and plays by gen exchange scholarship will be Wisconsin University is connected ear. He composes by tapping down made today from 2:30 - 4 p. m. in with one of the largest student a number that is then written down GMAB approved the granting of positions, "Play, Piano, Play," has The winner will receive a scho- $250 to be used to pay the expens won prizes throughout the world.

Public Health Exams For Jobs Will Be May 26

Public health examinations for professional positions with the State Board of Health and the local health units will be given on May 26, 1956, as announced by the North Carolina Merit Sys tem Council. Applications are now being processed for the examina-

Written examinations will be given for the following series of positions: nursing, bacteriologist, chemist, health education, laboratory, industrial hygiene engineering, nutritionist, photofluorographic, physical therapist, medical social worker, sanitarian, veterinarian, public health statistics, X-ray, psychiatric social worker and psychologist.

Applications are also being accepted for the health officer, dentist and psychiatrist series and for the positions of pediatric consul- be "a fiery speech" that might not tant, maternal , nd child health be appreciated by Yankees. and chief, accident prevention tions. These positions do not re- as endorsing the proposals and quire a written examination. Oral conclusions contained in the Adexaminations will be scheduled visory Committee on Education's and announced later.

applications is April 23, 1956. Of- library, before attending the deficial Application forms may be bate. obtained from the Merit System Office, Mansion Park Building, that the Advisory Committee on Raleigh, or from any local health, Education has found that the prowelfare, or employment service posals embodied in their report office. Bulletins containing more seem to be the only ones that will Each season Miss Gueden returns Tickets for this final concert of complete information regarding prevent the destruction of educaexamination data, salaries, and tion in North Carolina, and that Office.

the music field, many of his followers feel that he has only scratched the surface of his own poten-Phi To Debate N. C. Education Report Tonight

The Philanthropic Assembly will debate tonight the topic of the proposals and conclusions of the North Carolina Advisory Committee on Debate on this recent and highly controversial topic is expected to be heavy, according to Ethan Tolman, spokesman for the Phi. He has invited all interested persons to attend the meeting, to be held at 8 o'clack, fourth floor New East building and to participate in the discussion.

An added feature of the meeting will be the historian's report by Dick lobst, Phi Alumnus and Law studnt here on "The attack on Fort Fisher." Iobst said it would

The resolution of the evening and communicable disease sec- calls for the Phi to go on record report. Members were urged to The final date for submitting read this report, available at the

> The resolution states, in part, children in the State.

UNC Coed Is Named President from the "Lucaburg Organ Of State Future Teacher's Dept.

Miss Barbara O. Bennett, junior education major, has been elbe performed by Miss Mary ected president of the Future Clarke, 'cellist from Wash- Teachers of America Dept. of the D. C.; Miss Lillian Piber- North Carolina Education Assn.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shannon, organist of H. A. Bennett Sr. of Chapel Hill, Route 1, she is studying elemener works to be heard on the tary education and has been active Evening Series program in various campus groups, includchoruses from Marcello's ing Town Girls Associaton (vicepoetico-armonico" (choral president 1955-56), Independent on the first fifty Psalms Women's Council, and the greater council of the Baptist Student

> She was recently named president of the Frank P. Graham chapter of the FTA here at UNC for the 1956-57 school year, moving enrolling, Miss Bennett has worked as a student assistant at the Uni-

This will be their first High School, she was awarded the recognition of "scholarshp and ca-Rotary Club Scholarship given by pability of success in the future."

MISS BARBARA O. BENNETT ... named to FTA post

A 1953 graduate of Chapel Hill the Chapel Hill Rotary Club, in Signs: Huge sign on Battle Dorm proclaiming the dorm to be the home of the "oreat"

A representative of the U. S. Service Officers at the entrance

HILDA GUEDEN ... metropolitan opera soprano the famed Salzburg Festival. Virgil Thomson, reporting on last warmth!"

The soprano has appeared in the year's Salzburg performances in the U. S. on such radio and television New York Herald Tribune, said: programs as "The Voice of Fire- "Miss Gueden was a delight both stone" and "Toast of the Town" to watch and to hear! She filled and is widely known for her many the house with loveliness and

Arts and Science, Business Ad- to Vienna to sing at the Vienna the current Chapel Hill Series are ministration, and Law may qual- State Opera, and since the war, she on sale at Graham Memorial, duties of each position may be the public school system is the ify for positions in the Foreign has been one of the few artists to Kemp's, Ledbetter-Pickard's for $2, obtained from the Merit System only practical way for educating be invited to perform annually at $2.50, and $3.