APO To Sell Magazines At Y

Alpha Phi Omega, campus service fraternity, will sell subscriptions to Life, Time and Sports Illustrated magazines in Y Court Tuesday and Wednesday.

Students may obtain subscriptions at special student rates. According to APO, graduating seniors may subscribe at the special rates and have their issues sent to them wherever they are after graduation. They also will be able to renew their subscriptions at the special rates after graduation.

TOWN & CAMPUS Carries A Complete Line of AFTER - SIX PRODUCTS

Boy, did she SPEAK UP, when we did the MAMBO!

It may be a treat to beat your feet on the Mississippi mud, but it's murder when you mambo in a beat-up tux.

I still remember the exact moment when I decided to buy an After Six. It was right after the third grunt in a rather lively mambo. She looked up at me with those baby-blue eyes and softly murmured, "Some date! All day long, I slave over a hot biology text. Finally get to go formal and I wind up with a guy dressed like a 1920 mortician."

That was the night I burned my old tux. Now, I've got a cool, comfortable After Six.

Mambo or Mihuot, I'm ready! Try on a lightweight After Six and see for yourself.

Benefit Check Given to REC

Miss Sarah Umstead, left, director of the Chapel Hill Recreation Center, is shown receiving a check for $692 from Miss Henri Van Order, president of the Panhellenic Council. Looking on are Bob Staton, left, and Bill Redding, representative of the Interfraternity Council. The check is the profits from a concert by the Erroll Garner Trio, sponsored recently by the Pan Hel and the IFC. The money will be used for operation of the Recreation Center.

To avoid the drudgery of tugging your winter clothes home, let us clean and store them for the summer.
