

Blue Devils Knock Tar Heels From Race With 9-5 Win

Tar Heel Miscue Blow Game Away

By BILL KING

Carolina's usually steady infield found the going rough here yesterday as the Tar Heels bobbled away a 9-5 decision to Duke. The loss knocked the Tar Heels out of contention for the Atlantic Coast Conference baseball title and moved the Blue Devils into first place, one-half game ahead of N. C. State. The Wolfpack will now have to play Virginia in a make-up game to decide the title.

In yesterday's contest, both teams collected ten hits but the Tar Heels were guilty of eight miscues and that was all the margin the "Blue Devils" needed.

The game started off as a slugfest but in the late innings it turned into a pitching battle between Duke lefty Dick Smallwood and Carolina's Billy Joe Johnson. Johnson came on in the sixth inning with the Tar Heels trailing 9-4 and allowed only one hit the rest of the way. But the damage had already been done as the Blue Devils had already scored four runs in that inning but the Tar Heels came back in the bottom of the ninth to make it 3-2. The Blue Devils edged once in each of the next three innings to lead 5-2. In the bottom third, Carolina blasted starter Harleigh Fatzinger for six hits and two runs to move one run of the visitors.

Duke took a 3-0 lead in the ninth but the Tar Heels came back in the bottom of the ninth to make it 3-2. The Blue Devils edged once in each of the next three innings to lead 5-2. In the bottom third, Carolina blasted starter Harleigh Fatzinger for six hits and two runs to move one run of the visitors.

Righthander Jim Rausch had relieved Saine in the first and fourth and fifth and that for a while as if home. Tar Heels might make it for Duke. But then came the sixth and that was all for the Heels as they were never again close after that. Carolina scored its final run in the ninth on two walks and an error by shortstop.

Basinger Leads UNC Golf Victory

WINSTON-SALEM — Buzzy Basinger fired a par 71 to go with his opening round 68 to lead his Carolina teammates to a whopping victory in the Atlantic Coast Conference golf meet here Saturday. Basinger, a Charlotte sophomore, won the individual championship by two strokes over team-mate Walt Summerville. Carolina's Aubrey Rothrock was fourth and Tuffy Henderson was seventh as the Tar Heels dominated the front ranks.

Bradford-Foster Win Doubles; UNC Third In Track

Basinger had to hole long putts on the first three holes Saturday to stay with par, but then settled down to grind out the championship. Wake Forest's Joe Turner threatened Basinger and Summerville with a hot 32 on the front nine, but he cooled off to a 38 on the back nine with the pressure mounting to insure the Tar Heel victories.

Freshman State Track Title Here Today

Track on the local scene will bow out for the year this afternoon on Fetzer Field as athletes from three Big Four schools, Carolina, State, and Duke, participate in the first annual Freshman Invitational Track Meet.

Action in the field events will begin at 3:30 p.m., and the running events will get under way at 4.

Wake Forest is the only Big Four school not represented. The Demon Deacons are confined to the classroom by exams and couldn't take part in the meet.

Carolina's Tar Babies should rate the favorites role. During the past season, the Tar Babies met State twice and Duke twice, and each time, they disposed of their rivals in rather convincing fashion.

In the first meet of the season, Carolina walloped State by a 93-38 score, and only a month later they did the job again by a 90-41 count.

Golf Pictures Made
The top four varsity golfers and the top four freshmen golfers, according to their places in conference and Big Four tournaments, are asked to report at Fetzer Field tomorrow at 4 p.m. for pictures.

Terps, Duke Green Sweeps Top Tar Heels

DURHAM—Too much Maryland and too much Dave Sime proved to be the downfall of the Tar Heels here Saturday as Coach Dale Ranson's track squad was dethroned as ACC outdoor track champions.

The same Maryland team which dumped the Tar Heels in indoor track and in a dual meet, came out the winner again, taking 71 points against 36 1/2 for Duke and 32 9/10 for Carolina. Sime took three first places to insure the Blue Devils a lead over Carolina. Sime took three first places to insure the Blue Devils a lead over Carolina.

A crowd of 7,000, largest ever to see a track meet in this section, saw only two Tar Heels claim first places. Charlie Yarborough came through in the broad jump to win with a leap of 23 feet, 3 1/2 inches. Ken Rosemond of Carolina rose to the occasion with a third in the event.

Jim Beatty, a two-miler by reputation, turned in one of the nation's top collegial miles with a 4:09.4 clocking to run away from arch rival Burr Grim in the mile. Blistering feet kept Beatty from continuing in the two-mile after two laps. Beatty's time smashed the ACC record by seven seconds. Sophomore Everett Whitley came through with his best college performance to run a 4:18.5 mile and take third place, right behind the nationally renowned Grim.

Co-captain Boyd Newnam ran his best 880 of the year but was edged out of the championship by Maryland's Carl Party. Howard Kahn and Ben Williams came through with fourth and fifth places in the 880.

Dick Waters took a fourth in the high hurdles and tied with Billy Duke for fifth in the pole vault. Yarborough, who is co-captain with Newnam, tied for second in the pole vault at 13 feet, four inches. Bob Wilson tossed 194 feet in the javelin to rank third.

Sime, the Duke flash, took first in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and won the 220 low hurdles. Although the Olympic-bound flyer did not break any world records, his performance rewarded him the Fetzer Outstanding Individual Trophy.

Raleigh — Third seeded Tar Heel Don Thompson ran into an old rival here Saturday in the finals of the ACC tennis tournament, and lost.

Bobby Green, Duke senior who drew down top billing in the tourney, conquered Thompson for the second time this year, 6-2, 6-2, 6-0.

Green gained ample revenge for a defeat suffered at the hands of Thompson in last year's tourney. On that occasion, the blond belter from Carolina ousted his favored Duke rival in straight sets early in the meet.

It was a different story this time, however. Thompson, a power blaster from way back, could do little with Green's accurate placements and heads-up play. The diminutive Blue Devil was in command all the way, and, despite Thompson's more powerful service, stayed on top of every point to run away with the match.

The match for the doubles title gave Tar Heel supporters a little more to cheer about. In that one, the second seeded duo of Tom Bradford and John Foster of Carolina turned back another Tar Heel team, Thompson and Pete Green, in a hard fought four setter, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2, 7-5.

Thompson and Green disposed of Green and John Kopf of Duke, the top seeded pair, in the semifinals, and Bradford and Foster whipped Tar Heels Ed Hudgins and Bruce Gustafson, 6-2, 6-2.
