

56 Honor Council Report Released

The Honor System has been revised this year, in the opinion of members of the Honor Council.

Charles J. Katzenstein, outgoing president of the Council, yesterday issued a summary report for the year from the Council.

Katzenstein pointed out several changes in the report including the revision of the Honor System Week, which was "overwhelmingly approved in spring elections, is expected to do a great deal to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the judiciary even over the high level achieved this year."

"The revision provides for changes in the appeal system and in the spheres of jurisdiction for the different student courts. As it stands now all appeals granted a further hearing by the Chancellor will be heard by a Faculty-Student Council composed of three faculty members and the chairman of the Men's, Women's and Student Councils, with one of the Faculty members serving as Chairman."

"Previously, appeals went to the Student Council first, and could then go on to the Faculty Executive Committee, an all faculty group. This was a long process, and the unwillingness on the part of many to accept the Student Council's decision as final was hurting the student court system as a whole."

"As a result of the revision, the judiciary will be even more closely knit and coordinated. It is fitting that the chairman of the Faculty-student appellate Court be a member of the faculty since the fundamental responsibility for the maintenance of student discipline at any university resides with the faculty. This group will also serve to promote cooperation and understanding between faculty and students on judicial matters."

"The Student Council will handle all Campus Code cases, while the Men's Council will try all cases involving violations of the Honor Code. This will be a practical change in view of the steadily increasing enrollment expected at Carolina. As a general statement of policy, the students should know that a firm stand will continue to be taken on campus code violations (See HONOR REPORT, Page 6)

The Council's statements of policy throughout the year made it clear that signing class rolls for students, as well as checking

books out of the library under false names are definite violations of the honor code. The revision of the student court system which was overwhelmingly approved in spring elections, is expected to do a great deal to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the judiciary even over the high level achieved this year.

The revision provides for changes in the appeal system and in the spheres of jurisdiction for the different student courts. As it stands now all appeals granted a further hearing by the Chancellor will be heard by a Faculty-Student Council composed of three faculty members and the chairman of the Men's, Women's and Student Councils, with one of the Faculty members serving as Chairman.

Previously, appeals went to the Student Council first, and could then go on to the Faculty Executive Committee, an all faculty group. This was a long process, and the unwillingness on the part of many to accept the Student Council's decision as final was hurting the student court system as a whole.

As a result of the revision, the judiciary will be even more closely knit and coordinated. It is fitting that the chairman of the Faculty-student appellate Court be a member of the faculty since the fundamental responsibility for the maintenance of student discipline at any university resides with the faculty. This group will also serve to promote cooperation and understanding between faculty and students on judicial matters.

The Student Council will handle all Campus Code cases, while the Men's Council will try all cases involving violations of the Honor Code. This will be a practical change in view of the steadily increasing enrollment expected at Carolina. As a general statement of policy, the students should know that a firm stand will continue to be taken on campus code violations (See HONOR REPORT, Page 6)

The Council's statements of policy throughout the year made it clear that signing class rolls for students, as well as checking

Republicans Ask For Equal WUNC-TV Time

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., May 18 (AP)—The Republican Party demanded equal television time today from North Carolina's educational TV station WUNC, which telecast the State Democratic Convention.

Republican State Chairman Ray Jennings of Taylorsville said the station didn't offer to cover the Republican State Convention in March, so he was demanding the time be allotted a GOP rally in eastern North Carolina.

NEED FRIDAY'S OK

Station WUNC indicated such a request would have to be passed upon by Acting President W. C. Friday of the University of North Carolina.

But a station official said a good part of the telecast was devoted to candidates in the Democratic primary. Station WUNC also has carried some announcements for Republican candidates in some of the few areas where Republicans are holding a primary, he indicated.

The program was made available to commercial television stations in North Carolina, and a number of the bigger TV stations used portions of it.

REQUEST

Jennings said he is sending a request to WUNC saying:

"We respectfully request equal time be allotted to the Republican party in North Carolina for the time you allotted to the Democratic Convention in Raleigh."

"We held our Republican State Convention in Durham on March 10 and received no offer of coverage by you. Therefore, in fairness, we request that you allot to the Republican Party equal time for a meeting to be held in the eastern part of the State."

Fink Gets Grant For Study Abroad: Going To Denmark

Miss Susan B. Fink, senior from Chapel Hill, has received an American-Scandinavian grant for study abroad.

The grant, according to Miss Fink, is for a Scandinavian seminar for cultural study. It is good for approximately nine months, lasting from August 12 to May 5.

While in Denmark, she will study at several schools including the International People's College at Elsinore and a folk school which is a non-degree-granting liberal arts college. She will live with several Danish families while studying.

FINK

Miss Fink, a History major, has long been associated with campus extracurriculars. Some of her more important activities include the following:

Dialectic Senate member for three years; member of the Order of the Old Well; Consolidated University Student Council member in her senior year; member of the student Legislature for two years; Student Party member for three years; member of the Valkyries, the highest women's honorary (initiated in junior year and president in her senior year), and Chairman of the Woman's Residence Council in her senior year.

House will accept the portrait on behalf of the University.

Weaver, secretary of the sponsoring committee, will preside, and Sanders, treasurer, will give a brief report for the committee.

The portrait was painted by Leopold Seyffert of New York, regarded as one of the foremost portrait painters in the world.

The first steps toward obtaining a distinguished portrait were taken by the students of the University in 1949 when Dr. Graham resigned as President to accept appointment to the U.S. Senate.

Many students contributed small amounts, but they did not raise enough to obtain the type portrait desired. Accordingly, at the request of some of the students, a committee was organized in 1955 to receive contributions from friends of Dr. Graham.

Following today's ceremonies, the University will be host at a luncheon honoring Dr. Graham.

Commencement Starts Here June 2; 1,000 Degrees To Be Conferred At Graduation

Keeney To Give Address June 4 At Graduation

Graduation exercises in Kenan Stadium at twilight on Monday, June 4, at which 1,000 degrees will be conferred, will highlight the three-day commencement program here.

President Barnaby C. Keeney of Brown University will be the speaker at the graduation exercises.

The Baccalaureate Sermon will be delivered Sunday at 11 a.m. in Memorial Hall by Dr. Joseph Sittler, of the Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary.

REUNIONS

As part of the ceremonies of the three-day event, 10 classes will return for reunions during the period of June 2 to 4. The Old Students Club, which includes some 500 alumni of classes which graduated more than 50 years ago, is also scheduled to meet.

PROGRAM

The Commencement Program will begin Saturday, June 2, with a Library Science Alumni Luncheon, various class reunions, and, in the evening, an open-air reception and concert at Kessing Pool. At the reception the University Woman's Club members will be the hostesses, and the concert will be by the Commencement Orchestra. Following Sunday's Baccalaureate Sermon, a Dutch Luncheon for degree candidates and guests will follow in Lenoir Hall. Chancellor Robert B. House will speak and Fred H. Weaver, dean of student affairs, will preside.

SUNDIAL PRESENTATION

In the afternoon John Motley Morehead, class of '91, will present his Sun Dial to the University. A band concert and class reunion supper will follow. At 8:30 p.m. the Commencement Concert will be given by the Chapel Hill Choral Club and the University Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Joel Carter.

Monday, June 4, the Class of 1956 will hold its "last class meeting" in Gerrard Hall at 10 a.m. At 12:30 there will be an alumni luncheon in Lenoir Hall. In the afternoon the Carolina Playmakers will present new plays in the Playmakers' Theater. There will also be special exercises for the graduating classes in medicine and nursing, and the awarding of Air Force and Navy commissions.

CONCERT

At 6:30 p.m. there will be a band concert in Kenan Stadium, preceding graduation. At 7 p.m., the graduation exercises will begin with Chancellor Robert B. House presiding.

Eight juniors have been named marshals for the Commencement Program, Dr. J. C. Lyons, chief faculty marshal, has announced.

MARSHALS

The marshals are George Patrick Hunter, chief marshal, Charlotte; Miss Dorothy Mae Wood, Vonnors, N. Y.; Miss Nancy Shuford, Hickory; Miss Susan Walker, Wilmington; Miss Barbara Love, Lincoln; Robert Terry Young, Asheville; Luther Hodges Jr., Raleigh and Leaksville, and Bailey Patrick Jr., Hickory.

The reunion classes, in addition to the Old Students, are '06, '11, '16, '21, '26, '31, '41, '46, and '51.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Those in the Infirmary yesterday included:

Miss Jean Craig, Miss Gail Hodgson, Miss Ann Melfon, Herbert Thuenmiller, Robert Hanes, Prentice Barker, Herman Hunter, Walter Merritt, Gordon Thelin, John Fox, Jack Turner, Charles Rouse and Christopher Doufy.

70 Thousand Dollars In Budgets Approved For GM, GMAB, SEC

Budgets totaling almost $70,000 were approved yesterday by the Graham Memorial Board of Directors.

Budgets approved were those of Graham Memorial — $52,110, Student Entertainment Committee — $8,450, and Graham Memorial Activities Board — $7,300.

Also discussed at the meeting was the hiring of Howard Henry as the director of Graham Memorial.

at an $8,000 salary. The present director, Jimmy Wallace, turned in his resignation in February, 1955, which is to become effective when a permanent director can be hired.

According to Bob Young, chairman of the Graham Memorial Board of Directors, all necessary administrative personnel have approved the hiring of Henry, and the only obstacle remaining is the problem of transferring the student funds through the state system so that Henry would receive social security benefits.

Faculty Council

Dr. J. L. Godfrey of the History Dept. was recently named chairman of the Faculty Council by the Council's advisory commission.

Godfrey succeeds Dean D. D. Carroll of the Business Administration Dept. He will serve until January, 1958.

Godfrey's duties as chairman consist of presiding over the Council meetings and other assignments that Chancellor Robert B. House gives to him. He also serves as the representative of the faculty.

Council Elects McQueen Head

Miss Pat McQueen, junior from Lumberton, has been elected to the position of chairman of the Women's Honor Council for next year, by the council members.

Miss McQueen, a member of Chi Omega, is secretary of the Graham Memorial Activities Board for next year.

Miss Sharon Warrington, a nursing student from Bethesda, Md., was chosen clerk of the council, and Miss Margot Hammond, junior from Greensboro, was named house co-ordinator for the council.

21-Member Honor Council Set Up By Young To Orient Students

A twenty-one member Honor System Commission to orient incoming freshmen and transfer students to the Carolina honor system has been set up by student body President Bob Young.

The Commission has been charged with introducing the new students to the Honor Code, Campus Code, and to all phases of the honor system.

During a two-day session next fall the members of the commission will hold 30-minute speeches with orientation groups, after which there will be a question and answer session.

Emphasis will be placed on plagiarism, lady-like and gentleman-like conduct, social rules for girls, signing the class roll for other students, signing library books out under false names, and turning in other students for cheating.

Student Body Secretary Jackie Aldridge, explaining the function of the commission expressed belief that the new experiment will show positive results during the fall semester. She said many students came from schools where no honor system exists and have no experience with the mechanics of it. It is hoped the new commission can provide a remedy for that situation.

The members of the Commission are: Miss Ginger Floyd, Miss Jackie Aldridge, Miss Sara Walters, Miss Anne Byerly, Miss Mary Lou Wells, Miss Harriett Lewis, Miss Caroline Hume, Miss Elizabeth Porter, and Miss Esther Ballentine.

Tucker Yates, Charlie Tompkins, Ed Lippman, Charlie Daniel, Frank Schrimsher, Fritz Van Winkle, Bill White, Sonny Evans, Jerry Oppenheimer, Jim Preston, Tom Ray, and Bob Harrington.

The first meeting of the commission was held last night, and "interest and enthusiasm was high," according to President Young. The first meeting in the fall will be held September 12.

Campus Chest Sets Goal Of $1500 For Next Year

A goal of $1500 has been set by the Campus Chest for next year, according to Co-Chairmen Miss Jackie Aldridge and Jess Stribling.

The appointment of the co-chairmen was recently approved by the YMCA and YWCA and Student Body President Bob Young.

Other members are Paul Cann, Tom Dixon, Chester Davis, Roy Taylor, and Misses Ginger Floyd, Miss Nola Hatten and Judith Davis.

The money raised by the Campus Chest next year will be used, according to the co-chairmen, for the World University Service, which this year is having a three week conference in India to discuss WUS problems; the Goettingen University Exchange Program, which each year co-sponsors a student exchange program with Carolina; and probably for some "badly needed University project," which has not yet been decided.

"The drive is planned for next fall, so save your dimes, pennies, nickels, and so forth, so Campus Chest can have a successful campaign and reach its goal of $1500," Miss Aldridge said.

Tryouts For 1-Act Plays Are Monday

Tryouts will be held on Monday at 4 p.m. in The Playmakers Theatre for the one-act play, "To a Wild Rose", by Al Gordon, of Greensboro.

The comedy will appear in a double bill of student-written, student-directed, and student-acted one-act plays on the afternoon of Commencement Day, June 4, in two performances.

The other play will be "To Play the Bear", by Allen Lacy, of Dallas, Texas, a student at Duke University. Lacy's play was one of the three one-acts presented in the Theatre Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Directed by John Hamilton, graduate student in the Dramatic Art Dept., the comedy by Gordon will require three men and three women for the roles. Students, faculty members and their families, and townspeople have been invited to try out.

Irene Lee Cup To Be Awarded

The Irene F. Lee Cup will be awarded tomorrow by Chancellor R. B. House to the outstanding woman student of 1956.

The recipient of the award, whose identity will not be announced until the presentation, was chosen by the award committee on the basis of exemplified character, leadership and scholarship.

Ceremonies will take place in the parlors of Spencer Hall at 5 p.m. in the presence of Mrs. Lee's family, friends of the recipient, students from dormitories and sororities, and representatives of various campus organizations.

The cup is awarded annually by Mrs. Lee, who was the hostess of the Cornelia Phillips Spencer Hall from 1925 to 1948.

Miss Goodman Honored For Her DTH Work

A coed who has worked on The Daily Tar Heel for the past two years was honored by the newspaper's staff last night.

Miss Jackie Goodman, who first came to work in the fall of 1954, was presented a book for her "many, many hours of unselfish work so that the paper might get out, and get out properly." She will be graduated from the University week after next.

Printer Neil Clark, who makes up the newspaper each night, was honored for his "thousands of hours of putting up with the staff." A Saturday-morning fisherman, he was given a tackle box by the staff.

Miss Goodman, a member of the Valkyries and Phi Beta Kappa, worked as a news reporter before becoming news editor of The Daily Tar Heel in her junior year.

For the past few weeks she has worked on the editorial page. She was honored at the newspaper's traditional wake, held at the print shop as the staff publishes the last issue of the year.

Armed Forces Day To Be Held All Over The World Today

Armed Forces Day is today. Shown above are students and University personnel who are members of the Durham Naval Reserve Surface Unit. They are (first row, left to right): Lt. (j.g.) Robert Minson, law student; Lt. (j.g.) William D. Smith, law student; Lt. (j.g.) Colvin T. Leonard, law student; Battalion Commander George Harper, English professor and associate dean of Arts & Sciences; Commander Marvin Allen, commanding officer of the surface division, professor of Physical Education and UNC soccer coach; Lt. (j.g.)

Golden, law student; Ensign James Corry, law student; (second row, left to right) Chief Petty Officer Fred Parker; and UNC students Airman Louis Johnson, Seaman Edward Todd, Seaman Walter Roy, Seaman George Weaver, Seaman Dick Morrow, Seaman Leroy Whitfield, Seaman Robert Pendergraph, Seaman Bobby Hoover and Seaman William McGee. The Naval ROTC here will hold an open house in conjunction with the commemoration. It will be held today from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.