The second in the series of lectures on "The Crisis in Our Public Schools" will be given here Monday by Albert L. Turner, dean of the Law School of North Carolina College in Durham.

The address is scheduled for 8 p.m. in Carroll Hall auditorium. The subject of Dean Turner's address will be "The Legal Perspective," and he will discuss the various decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court through the years on the matter of segregation.

Professor M. T. Van Hecke of the UNC Law School will preside at the meeting, introduce Dean Turner and handle the question and answer period following the talk.

Dean Turner is a native of New Orleans, La., and received his Bachelor of Laws degree at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, where he was among the top 10 per cent of his class. He received his Ph. D. in political science at the University of Michigan and then became registrar at Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, where he also taught political science. He came to North Carolina College as a member of the law faculty in the early 1940's.

Entries Close Tuesday For Queen Contest

By MARIAN HOBECK

Plans are shaping up for the Watermelon Festival, which will take place July 4 in McCorkle Place near Davie Poplar.

The Watermelon Festival committee of the Summer Activities Council met Monday to discuss what had been done so far and to make further plans.

QUEEN CONTEST

Bob Morrow, chairman of the committee, announced that all entries for the queen contest should be turned in by Tuesday.

Fraternities, sororities and dormitories have been invited to sponsor girls for the contest. Pictures of the girls will be posted in Y court, where students may vote for their choice by placing money in the boxes under each girl's picture. Each penny counts as one vote.

FESTIVAL PLANS

Plans for the Festival include cold watermelon for everyone and a variety show with talented entertainers. To feature this show there will be a watermelon-eating contest between a faculty team and a student team, working in relays.

Following this contest the king and queen will be crowned, the king being some faculty member.

VARIETY SHOW

After the variety show, the festival will move from the Davie Poplar area to the parking lot beside Y Court for a dance. There will be a combo to provide music for the dance.

Bob Morrow, head of the committee, has commended the work of his sub-committee chairmen who are: Publicity, Miss Nancy Rothschild; Arrangements, Frank Phillips; Variety Show, Miss Libby King; Contests, Miss Lib Carnegie; and Dance, Miss Beatrice De Hart.

WPTF Jockey To Air Program Here

"Our Best to You" and a Tar Heel Hoedown are coming to Chapel Hill in the immediate future according to Ed Hennessee, Chairman of the Summer Activities Council.

Jimmy Capps, popular disc jockey for WPTF, Raleigh, will air his program from Chapel Hill during second summer session as a part of a blanket party to be held in front of Graham Memorial. That particular night, his program will be composed of records requested by the student audience. Refreshments will be served.

The Hoedown plans are set for the first session, to be held on either July 6 or July 7. Tentative plans are for George Hamilton and his trio to play hillbilly music. Group singing will be conducted, and it will be followed by a square dance.

Dancing 9-12 With Bill Langley Music

By EDNA FAYE PUGH

Japanese lanterns under the glow of the full moon will provide the setting for the "Moonglow Ball" to be held tomorrow night on the asphalt tennis courts.

The Student Activities Council is sponsoring this dance as its biggest function for the first summer school session.

Music will be furnished by Bill Langley and his Stardreamers. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. and continue until midnight. In case of rain the dance will be held in the Pine Room.

Miss Betty Waddell and Earl Dawkins, co-chairmen of the dance committee, say the plans indicate that the dance should, without a doubt, be the best held on the campus during the summer session. The committee has invited all Summer School students to attend.

"This dance is for everyone, not just a few who may be dating," Miss Waddell said. "A special invitation has been extended to every girl with the hope that each will come, with or without a date. Everybody will be sure to enjoy this gala event so we hope that all will attend," she said.

Special favors will be given to each girl attending the "Moonglow Ball."

Helping to plan the ball, in addition to the co-chairmen, are Miss Ann Plumb, publicity chairman; Miss Edna Faye Pugh and Gordon Peacock, co-chairmen of the decorations; Misses Marcia Warford and Joan Baggs, co-chairmen of refreshments; Aaron Carroll; and Ken Morris.

Dean Carmichael Returns After Nine Months Leave

Miss Katherine Carmichael, Dean of Women at UNC since 1946, returned June 15 to resume her position after a nine-months' leave of absence.

Miss Carmichael accepted the M. Margaret Stroh Scholarship awarded by the Delta Kappa Gamma Educational Society. She has engaged in research into the history of the position of the dean of women during the past 15 years. In her study she placed special emphasis on social and economic changes which are affecting the education of women.
