Student Advisory Board Will Meet Aldermen Monday

Parking Restrictions Are To Be Discussed

By GRAHAM SNYDER

A student government Advisory Commission will meet with the Board of Aldermen Monday night to present the case of the student government against the parking restrictions imposed on Rosemary and Columbia Streets.

The commission, announced Friday by Student body President Bob Young, was set up for the purpose of studying the overall traffic problem and of formulating a solution for it.

The members of the committee who will attend the Aldermen meeting are Clark Hinkley, Darwin Bell, Bill Pruitt, Ed Hudgins, and Wilburn Davis, chairman. Young will also attend the meeting, as a representative of the student government.

A member of the Board of Aldermen, William Alexander, said that "we would be happy to have the Commission meet with us. If they come up with any new ideas or proposals, we'll be glad to listen to them."

The Traffic Commission is a result of a bill passed by the Student Legislature at its last meeting Sept. 27 and vetoed by Young. The bill, presented to the Legislature by Mike Weinman, if established, would have set up a student government commission to act on the Columbia St. parking situation.

Young said he vetoed the bill because it was an isolated case. At that time he appointed the Commission and proposed that they meet with the Aldermen.

The two streets, Rosemary and Columbia, have been the point of much discussion since the parking bans were placed on them by the Board of Aldermen.

The no-parking-anytime ban in effect on Rosemary St. was acted upon this summer, while the two-hour parking limit on Columbia St. was just recently enacted.

Fraternity men were the first to raise protests against the parking regulations. Students of the Tau Epsilon Phi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternities — the two more directly affected by the regulations — raised the argument that the bans were leaving the students "in a hole" and "crowding fraternity men."

Alderman Alexander expressed the point that the bans were not imposed on students by the Board for any reasons of discrimination, but were actions taken as a result of a one year study by a specialist in traffic management. This expert, W. F. Babcock, submitted a lengthy report to the Board June 19, after a year's study of the Town's traffic problems. The plan was adopted by the Board and its suggestions acted upon.

In addition to Alexander, other members of the Board attending the meeting Monday night, will be Obie Davis, Dr. Paul Wager, Gene Stroud, Kenneth Putnam and Hubert Robertson.

Di Will Debate Bill Condemning Democrats For Campaign Ways

A resolution condemning the Democrats for their "scurrilous conduct in the campaign" will be debated by the Dialectic Senate Tuesday night.

The resolution will be introduced by David Mundy, who said he promised to "skin the Democrats with hell-fire and brimstone."

The resolution itself declares that the "Democrat Party is conducting one of the vilest, dirtiest, most innuendo-filled, and devious campaigns in modern political history."

Members of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans on campus have especially been invited to attend and participate in the debate, according to Mundy. Di parliamentarian. He said, however, that speeches would be limited to five minutes.

The debate will take place at 8 p.m. on the third floor of New West. Di officials said an executive session of the senate would be held immediately following the debate.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Those in the infirmary yesterday included: Miss Elizabeth Parrish McCord, Miss Janet Elizabeth Thomas, Marvin Douglas Harless, Paul Coe Clark, Charles Ferrell Cox, Charles Harrington, John B. Owens, Larry Kent Jackson, Alvin Ward Smith, Miss Stephanie Sparger, John Jackson.

Monday Meeting Set: Class-Cuts To Be Discussed By Student-Faculty Group

By GRAHAM SNYDER

A Student-Faculty Committee will meet tomorrow night to discuss the present class-cut policy system and possibilities for revision of the rule.

As a result of a suggestion by Dr. Hugh Holman of the English Dept., Student body President Bob Young appointed a special student committee two weeks ago to meet with the committee appointed by the Faculty Council.

In his suggestion, Dr. Holman said a discussion would be helpful in appraising the degree of student and faculty dissent in regard to the attendance policy, and the reasons advanced for revising it.

This will be the second conference of a student-faculty committee concerning the attendance policy of the University. Last spring a bill, advocating revision of the class-cut policy and sponsored by the committee on attendance regulations, was passed by the Student Legislature but rejected by the Faculty Council.

The bill provided for unlimited cut for juniors and seniors, with a loss of one quality point per cut for unexcused absences two days before and after regular holidays. Freshmen and sophomores, under the bill, would have still been under the present rule of three unexcused absences.

The Faculty Council rejected the bill on grounds that the use of quality point deductions for excessive absences was academically unsound.

UP To Air Parking Problem Tuesday

An open discussion of the parking problem will be held at the first fall meeting of the University Party at 7 p.m. Tuesday on the second floor of Graham Memorial.

Party chairman Mike Weinman said, "In view of our President's veto of the Columbia St. parking bill, new action may have to be taken."

Yack Gives More Time For Photos

The period for freshmen, fourth-year medical students and nursing students to have their pictures made for the 1957 Yackety Yack has been extended, according to Editor Tommy Johnson.

Students falling into these groups can have their pictures made tomorrow through Wednesday at a cost of $1, Johnson said. The $1 charge is to cover the extended contract of the photographer.

The pictures will be made in the basement of Graham Memorial from 1 to 6:30 p.m. Yack officials have requested that girls wear dark sweaters and pearls for the photos. Men have been asked to wear dark coats, ties and white shirts.

The remainder of the schedule for taking Yack pictures is:

Oct. 8-12—Sophomores, Pharmacy, Dental and Dental Hygiene students.

Oct. 15-19 — Juniors, Law students, Medical students and Graduate students.

GM Barbers To Charge $1 Now For Haircuts

It'll cost a buck to get a haircut in Graham Memorial's barbershop from now on.

The student union's officials yesterday said they had raised prices from 85 cents to $1, effective immediately.

The reason, according to Assistant Director Dan Turner, is a general price rise in barber shops downtown. Chapel Hill barbers this week uniformly agreed to raise their prices from $1 to $1.25.

Graham Memorial's two barbers, Pittman Culbreth and Tom Heardon, have been cutting hair at the rate of 200 heads per week, said Turner.

Turner now hopes to add another barber to his shop "if this business continues."

The student union can afford to charge less per haircut than most establishments because the building pays all upkeep costs, Turner said. This, plus the fact that the University is classified as a "private" organization by barbers' license men, allows the student union to charge less.

Chapel Hill Concert Series Will Open Here On Wednesday With Miss Eileen Farrell; Other Top Stars To Appear At Later Date

WITOLD MACYUZYSKI will appear later

Eileen Farrell, said to possess one of the "greatest" voices this country has ever produced, will appear in a concert here Wednesday.

She will perform at 8 p.m. at Memorial Hall under sponsorship of the Chapel Hill Concert Series, which will sponsor three more appearances of well known musical artists this year.

Membership tickets for the complete series can be obtained at the Information Office of Graham Memorial at a total cost of $7.50 for reserved memberships, $6.50 for unreserved memberships, and $5 for students and students' wives (unreserved memberships). Tickets can also be obtained at Kemp's and Danziger's.

It was in the 1950-51 season that

Miss Farrell, to quote the New York Review of Permanent Music, "came into her own as a thrillingly great dramatic soprano." In October of that season she made her New York debut before a capacity house in Carnegie Hall.

Although her talents "were already well known to metropolitan critics and audiences through her many local engagements with orchestras and on radio, her recital proved one of the overwhelming triumphs."

OTHER CONCERTS

The three other series concerts this school year will include the Chicago Opera Ballet with a company of 45, including soloists, corps de ballet, complete scenery,

Birds Gain 14-0 Win To Hand Tar Heels Third Straight Loss

Carolina Gets To One But Birds Stop Threat

By BILL KING

Daily Tar Heel Sports Writer

COLUMBIA, S. C.—South Carolina's Gamecocks unleashed a torrid second-half running attack featuring sophomore Halfback King Dixon to send the Carolina Tar Heels down to their third straight defeat, 14-0, before some 20,000 rain-soaked fans at Carolina Stadium here yesterday.

The hard running Dixon, along with quarterback Mackie Prickett and Dixon's running mate Alex Hawkins, completely pulverized the Carolina defense in the final two quarters.

The Gamecocks used a sustained drive of 94 yards to score their first touchdown with 13:45 left in the fourth quarter.

Dixon bore the brunt of the carrying and put the Gamecocks ahead, 6-0, when he slashed off left tackle from the Tar Heel two. Hawkins made it 7-0, with the extra point.

South Carolina tallied again with 0:57 remaining in the game when Prickett dived over from the 1 to put the Gamecocks out front, 13-0. Hawkins added his second straight extra point and the Gamecocks had their winning margin of 14-0. Carolina moved to the Gamecock's 21-yard line before the horn sounded ending the game.

Until Dixon and mates made their big move in the third and fourth quarter, the two clubs had battled on almost even grounds. In the first half both teams were in enemy territory several times. Each time, though, the two defenses were able to halt the drives.

The Tar Heel's deepest thrust of the game came just minutes following the end of the first quarter when Ed Sutton carried from his own 28 to the South Carolina 42. Successive carries by Don Lear and Curtis Hathaway moved the Tar Heels to the Gamecock's 30 for a first down.

Lear then went over left tackle to the South Carolina 19 for another first down. Sutton got two to the 17 and Hathaway went around left end down to the nine-yard line.

Hathaway got two more around left end, and Lear carried to the five. Larry McMullen tried the left side again and got to the three. With four down and three to go for the score Hathaway was smothered at the Gamecock's one-yard line to end the threat.

Just thirty seconds before the end of the first half, the Tar Heels had the ball at the South Carolina 26, as the result of a 15-yard penalty against the Gamecocks. Hathaway dashed around left end to the twelve with 0:12 remaining. The Tar Heel quarterback then pitched out to McMullen who flipped a short pass to Sutton at the USC four and a first down. But the Tar Heels were not able to run another play before the half ended.

South Carolina's 94-yard march to their first score was highlighted by a 29-yard pass play from Hawkins to Dixon that carried to the Tar Heel's 42. South Carolina was penalized back to the 47 and Prickett and Hawkins moved the ball to the 43. Hawkins then went around left end to the 33 and Dixon ran the opposite end to the 17. Fullback Don Johnson and Hawkins moved the ball into scoring position with successive runs that put the Gamecocks on the Carolina 7. Dixon carried around around right end to the five, then off right tackle to the 3. Dixon tried the right end again and was smothered by Jim Varnum of the Carolina 1. From there Dixon went over for the score.

Billiards King Will Be Here Starting Mon.

An internationally-known billiards expert, Charlie Peterson, will be in Graham Memorial's Pool Room tomorrow to begin a week of student instruction and billiard exhibitions.

For a number of years, Peterson has given Carolina students personal instructions along with "eye-opening" exhibitions.

GM officials say plans for the coming week's program indicate this to be the "most extensive billiards week Carolina has ever seen." Details as to the exact hours he will give instructions and exhibitions will be announced later, GM officials say.

Sponsored by the Graham Memorial Activities Board, Peterson's trademark is "Show-me-a-shot-I-can't-make." He will appear here tomorrow through Saturday in his 25th annual tour of colleges and universities.

Eye-catching UNC Majorettes Help To Beautify The Gridiron

The UNC Marching Band, in addition to having their uniforms add to its attractiveness, also has four eye-catching majorettes that beautify the gridiron. Their high-stepping antics lend color and

Majorettes Add Beauty To UNC Marching Band

By BOB MYERS

If the University band is the largest since the "Choo Choo" Justice era and sparkles in the first set of new uniforms in 26 years, what more could add luster to this aggregation?

The answer is four pretty majorettes who closely resemble Santa's reindeer in their white costumes and at the height of exhaustive routines.

Raves and praise showered this year's edition of the band on its initial outing before 37,000 Kenan Stadium grid enthusiasts two weeks ago. If mention of $6,000 appropriated for band improvements fails to justify these laurels, the three native Tar Heel lovelies and the Southern beauty queen who lead it will.

These would be Jo Carpenter, chief majorette, of Thomasville; Mary Anne Nelson, of Mebane, both returnees; and newcomers, Carolyn Meredith, of Raleigh, and Jane Brock, of Atlanta, the reigning "Miss Atlanta of 1956."

Figures and looks aren't the only requirements of Band Director Herbert Fred, however. Experience is an essential. And previous membership on high school bands has guaranteed this element.

Miss Carpenter, 20-year old brown-haired daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter, is a 1955 graduate of Thomasville High School, and was a majorette there. She's not only one-fourth of the eye appeal, but is continually teaching new routines to the others.

Another senior, an English major, is 20-year old Miss Nelson, brunette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson. She strutted at Mebane High four years and thinks the band is "really shaping up this year," literally and figuratively.

Miss Meredith, freshman nurse, performed a year with the large Needham-Broughton High Band at Raleigh. She's 18 and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Meredith.

Miss Brock, only blonde member of the foursome and the only out-of-stater, suppresses illusions that all Georgia peaches come in bushels, and that blonde bombshells lack ability. Jane, studying dental hygiene, high-stepped with Atlanta's Bath High School band four

'Representative Government' Will Be Discussed By Phi

The Philanthropic Literary Society will debate a bill Tuesday at 8 p.m. on the top floor of New East urging "true representative government."

The bill provides that "the elected should represent the opinion of the electors rather than some private preconceived opinion on national, state, local and campus levels."

Jim Moncith, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, will introduce and defend the bill. He will make his defense on the grounds that true democracy can exist only when the representatives speak the will of the people. James Duval, critic, will attack the bill, reportedly on the grounds that it is impossible to know the will of all the electors at all times. "The Phi may have a censure on the Di for the absurd action of last week (i.e., the conferring by the Di of an honorary membership in the phi on Elvis Presley)" Moncith said.
