Grimsley Chooses UNC To Whip Ga.

By WILL GRIMSLEY
 NEW YORK, Oct. 10 — (AP) — If college football weekends could be forecast like the weather, the outlook for the forthcoming week-end would be "fair and formful."
 The top teams, headed by Oklahoma, Michigan State, Georgia Tech and Texas Christian, appear safe enough. Upsets will have to find their places in the lower brackets.
 Prize picks last week were Pennsylvania, loser of 19 in a row, over Dartmouth and West Virginia over Texas. Score 33-12 for .733. Overall: 100-27 for .789.
The picks:
 Oklahoma 35, Texas 12; The Sooners, the country's best, find Texas still struggling with inexperience.
 Michigan 21, Army 14; The Wolverines, with great ends and depth, won't be at mental loss because of last week's defeat, but Army's line is too thin.
 West Virginia 14, Syracuse 13; Mickey Trimarki and a stout line give the Mountaineers a slight edge here in another upset.
 Notre Dame 28, Purdue 7; The Fighting Irish get better with each passing week. They should stop Len Dawson's passing attack.
 Duke 20, Southern Methodist 14; The Blue Devils get sore from their two early lickings and take it out on the Mustangs.
 Ohio State 28, Illinois 6; Buckeye supporters are saying that Don Clack is a better back than Hopalong Cassidy.
 Texas Christian 33, Alabama 12; This may be one of the great teams to come out of the Southwest, with Jim Swink a terror.
 Michigan State 14, Indiana 0; If the front cover jinx can't stop Duffy Daugherty, nobody can. Indiana makes it a good game.
 Georgia Tech 28, Louisiana 14; Racehorse backs break LSU's strong defenses.
 Princeton 20, Penn 13; No easy victory for the Nassau Tiger now that the Quakers have tasted victory. Good chance for upset.
 Mississippi 14, Vanderbilt 7;

Don Orr, Vandy's ace quarterback reportedly injured. Otherwise we might vote for a Commodore victory.
UCLA 19, Washington State 7; The Washington Staters have backfield speed but not enough to crack UCLA's firm defenses for more than a touchdown.

Yanks Top Dodgers To Win World Series
 Johnny Kucks Pitches Three Hitter For Win
 —Pledges—

BROOKLYN (AP)—The New York Yankees became the 1956 Baseball World Champions here yesterday afternoon as they roared to a 9-0 win over the Brooklyn Dodgers behind the three hit pitching of young Johnny Kucks.
 The Yankees thus duplicated Brooklyn's 1955 feat of winning a seven-game series after losing the first two games. It was the Yanks' 17th World Series victory in 22 attempts since 1921 and their sixth in seven series against Brooklyn.
 The Dodgers took the first two in Ebbets Field, then the Yanks won the next three in their stadium and then Brooklyn squared the series yesterday in their home park. Today's game was the first break-through by the visiting team.

BERRA SLUGS
 Berra, who clubbed a bases-loaded homer off Newcombe in the second game, hit over the right field wall the first two times he came to bat against Newk today, each time with a man on base. After that he was intentionally passed and one of those walks set off Skowron's bases-full blow off Roger Craig, the third Dodger pitcher. Elston Howard belted the other Yankee homer, with Newcombe as the victim.
 The seven-game series drew a paid attendance of 345,903 with 33,782 fans watching the final game.

HOMERS SET RECORD
 The four Yankee homers set a record of 12 by one club in a series, breaking the mark of 10 set by the 1952 Yanks. Berra, with 10 runs batted in during the series, smashed another record.

How well do you know human nature? Can you tell what subjects interest people most? Here is a chance to test your judgment—show how good an editor you are—and you may win $5,000 for yourself, plus $5,000 in scholarship funds for your college.
 It's fun to try. Maybe you can top other students in colleges across the country... and you can match wits with the editors of Reader's Digest.
 Why do far more college graduates read Reader's Digest than any other magazine? What is it that makes the Digest the most widely read magazine in the world—with 11 million copies bought each month in the United States, plus 9 million abroad? Why is it read each month by at least 60 million people, in 12 languages—Arabic, Danish, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish?
 Can you spot in a typical issue of Reader's Digest the universal human values that link scholars, statesmen, scientists, writers, businessmen, housewives? Can you pick out the articles that will be most popular with the average Digest reader?
 You may find... you know more about people than you think!

Here's all you do. Study the descriptions (at right) of the articles in the October Reader's Digest—or, better still, read the complete articles in the issue itself. (But you are not required to buy the Reader's Digest to enter the contest.) Then simply list the six articles—in order of preference—that you think readers of the magazine will like best. This will be compared with a nationwide survey conducted among a cross section of Digest subscribers.
 Follow the directions given below. Fill in the entry blank, paste it on a post card, and get it into the mail before the deadline. Additional blanks are obtainable at your college bookstore.
 All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, October 25, 1956. Don't delay. In case of ties, the entry with the earliest postmark will win.

READER'S DIGEST CONTEST, Box 4, Great Neck, L. I., New York
 In the space opposite the word "FIRST" write the number of the article you think will be the most popular of all. Opposite the word "SECOND" write the number of the article you think will rank second in popularity. List in this way the numbers of the six top articles in the order of their popularity. (Note: Use only the numbers of articles you choose. Do not write the title of any article.) Clip and paste this coupon on a Government post card.
