

History Dept. Faculty Attend Historical Meet

Faculty members and graduates of the UNC Dept. of History will play an important part in the annual meeting of the Southern Historical Assn. to be held Thursday through Saturday at the Washington Duke Hotel in Durham.

James W. Patton, curator of the Southern Historical Collection of the UNC Library and formerly a member of the UNC History Dept., will take office as president of the Association and deliver his presidential address Friday night.

Prof James L. Godfrey will deliver a paper, "The Labor Government and the Independence of India," on Thursday.

Indian Librarian Joins UNC Library Staff For 3 Months

The Reference Librarian for the National Library of India, Janardan M. Kanitkar, has recently joined the UNC library staff for a three months visit. Kanitkar is here to study American library methods and to bring information on Indian libraries.

The UNC Library was one of 11 in the United States chosen by the International Relations Committee of the American Library Association to receive Indian Librarians now in this country.

When asked in what phase of the library program he was most interested while here at UNC, Kanitkar replied, "I have recently been given the task of setting up a library at our new Indian Institute of Public Administration in New Delhi; therefore every phase of library work is important to me."

Then he continued, "Usually a new school collects piles of books and then calls in professional librarians when these books become unmanageable." "This time we are going to make a proper beginning and start our library as it should be," he said.

"By studying your present procedures and their development, we hope to have a very effective library program at our new school and to avoid the mistakes that you probably made along the way," he said.

He explained that he came to UNC because it has one of the oldest state university libraries in the country and also because of its Institute of Government.

In speaking of Indian libraries in general, Kanitkar stated that at present they are rather limited. He added that in the second 5-year plan, which goes into effect next year, provisions are being made for establishing a library in each district.

The books in these libraries will be in the language of the people of the particular district and mobile units will circulate them throughout the region.

In concluding he added, "Of course this program will be handicapped by our poor roads, but we are working on those too. All of these problems are interrelated and must be solved together."

LILIAN PIBERNIK plays here tonight

Miss Lilian Pibernik Is Guest Pianist Tonight

Miss Lilian Pibernik, pianist, will be presented in a concert of Hungarian folk music in Hill Hall today at 8 p.m.

Her recital is the fifth of UNC's Dept. of Music regular Tuesday evening series concerts, which are open to the public free of charge.

Miss Pibernik's program will include Bartak's Suite Opus 14, four pieces from Kodaly's "Zongora Muszika," Schubert's Sonata in A Major and Bach's Toccata in D Major.

Chest

Also included in the Campus Chest Drive are the Goettinger Exchange, 20%; Care, 13%; Cancer, 7%.

The Campus Chest Drive was first slated to run from Nov. 4-10, but because the goal was not met, the drive was extended through Thursday, Nov. 15, Miss Aldridge said.

In a final plea for funds to meet this year's goal, Miss Aldridge said, "Can we as students neglect this student's responsibility in student to student aid in giving to these worthy causes? If you cannot afford to give money, if even a nickel is beyond your capabilities, then have you clothes or books that you don't need or want? Can you afford not to give a nickel?"

Elections

will be located at the intersection of Mason Farm and Pittsboro Roads. Another box will be located at the intersection of Daniels Rd., Bagley Dr., Jackson Circle, and Mason Farm Rd.

Women's Dormitory District 1 — All women living in University-owned buildings, which are not sorority houses. Voting in each dorm.

Women's Town District 1 — All women students not living in University-owned buildings, and women residing in sorority houses. Voting in Gerrard Hall.

Students may vote only in their respective voting places.

Any student who is unable to vote at the proper polling place because of internment in the Infirmary, absence from Chapel Hill, or any other reason approved by the Elections Board, will be allowed to vote.

Run-offs will be held Nov. 20. A run-off will be held if, for an office to which there is to be only one candidate elected, no one candidate receives a majority of votes cast for the office.

If candidates for two or more offices (constituting a group) are to be selected, and there are more candidates for election than there are offices, then the majority shall be ascertained by dividing the total vote cast for all of such

UNC Public Health Staffers Present Papers At Meeting

Six members of the faculty of the University School of Public Health are presenting papers this week at the 84th annual meeting of the American Public Health Association.

The meeting is being held in Atlantic City, N. J. this week. Approximately 8,000 participants are attending from throughout the United States and Canada.

SULTRY SCENE WITH THE HOUSE-PARTY QUEEN

She sat next to me on the train that day
And a wave of perfume wafted my way
—A dangerous scent that is called "I'm Bad!"
Deliberately made to drive men mad.
I tried to think thoughts that were pure and good
I did the very best that I could!
But alas, that perfume was stronger than I
I gave her a kiss . . . and got a black eye!

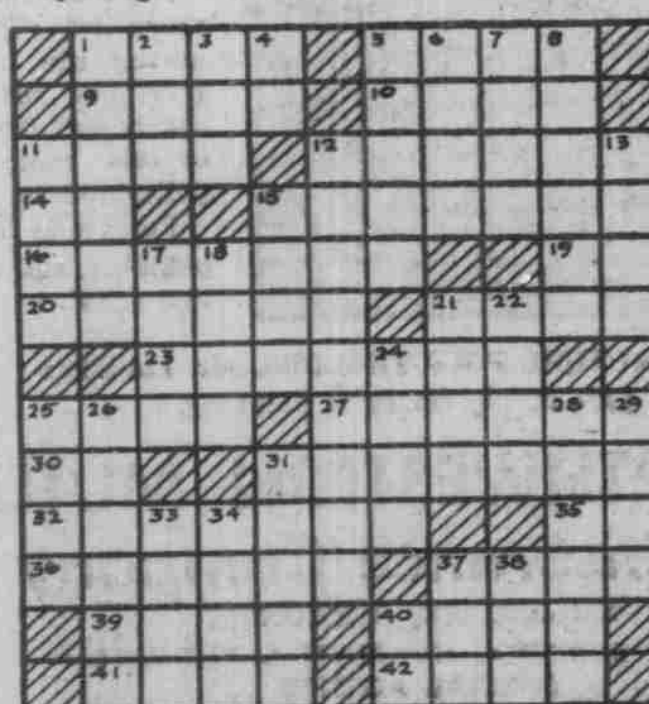

If kissing strangers has its dangers, in smoking at least enjoy the real thing, the big, big pleasure of a Chesterfield King! Big size, big flavor, smoother all the way because it's packed more smoothly by Accu-Ray.

Like your pleasure big?
A Chesterfield King has Everything!
