

Beat Dook Parade Starts At 3 Today; ueen Named

The Beat Dook Parade will begin today at 3 p.m. Floats will assemble in front of Woollon Gymnasium, where the here" parade will begin, at 2 p.m.

At approximately 2:30, the parade queen will be crowned at the gym by Ted Rogers of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, sponsor of the annual event. Rogers is chairman of the queen contest,

FROM RADIO DISPATCHES

LONDON - Reports from within Russia Monday indicated Soviet Premier Khrushchev may be on the way out.

The pressure of world opinion has produced a crack in the Kremlin wall, said one radioman. He predicted the Soviet government may wait until the present satellites' rebellion is over, then remove Khrusuchev from office.

VIENNA - Hungarian workers, many of them back in their factories after a general strike, were reported not doing very much work. A technique of "passive resistance" to the Russians has been adopted by the rebels. said The Associated Press.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. --U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot

.

Herman Godwin is chairman of the overall event. Six attendants for the queen's float will also be named at the time of the crowning.

ROUTE Route of the parade is as follows: From Woollen Gym up Raleigh St. to Columbia St., down Columbia St. to Kenan St., down Kenan

St. to Cameron Ave., down Cameron Ave. to Raleigh St., down Ra-

There was vandalism on both UNC and Duke campuses over the weekend. See page 4 for details leigh St. to Raleigh Rr., where the parade will conclude.

Coeds entered in the contest are: Misses Nancy MacFadden, Libby Nicolson, Pat Dillon, Anne Barber, Gail Willingham, Daryl Farrington, berta Hastings;

Burgwyn, Barbara Murray; Jane Welch, Dottie Wood, Barb 'n roll concert in Raleigh Friday

Legislature Control, Honor Seats,

Class Chiefs In Electoral Two-year-old, playing under Hill Hall peaan tree, holding up Ritz Cracker box, saying to pecans: "Here, here come

* * * HOME FOR THANKSGIVING: Campus leader searching campus Sunday morning for signs of hinted Dook invasion. 18 4 10 Carolina Coed exclaiming to boyfriend: "I may be dumb. but I'm not stupid!"

Youths tor Thanksgiving. Jailed In

Dorm | hett Two Raleigh, youths have been charged with first degree burglary stay in Chapel Hill.

after they allegedly tried to steal wallet from two sleeping stu- giving plans: dents.

(See THEFT, page 3)

UNC Enrollment

tonight a bill to restrict the num-

Di To Debate

Bill Limiting

Police Capt. William Blake said the two. Albert Van Rheen, 17, and Richard Schoelling, 18, were in jail without bond. They face Sysan Mayhue, Barbara Prago, Ro- probable cause hearings in Recorder's Court today.

Mary Louise Bizzell, Ida Robin- Capt. Blake pieced together son, Elanor Riggins, Jane Brock, this story from the youths' admis- a series of preparations includ-Shirley Carpenter, Patsy Poythress. sions and other evidence: Elaina Burns, Jane Burns, Mary Van Rheen and Schoelling, both employed in Raleigh, left a rock Starts Tomorrow invited to visit in the homes of families living in Chapel Hill.

A party will be given for Korean students in the Presbyterian

THANKSGIVING

The YM-YWCA will sponsor a campus Thanksgiving service Tuesday at 4:45 p.m. at the Chapel of the Cross. Speaker for speaker for the service will be the Rev. Charles Hubbard, pastor of University Methodist Church. The topic will be "Going Home.'

INTER VARSITY

A houseparty for international students will be sponsored by the Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship during the Thanksgiving holidays. The houseparty will be held in the Blue Ridge Mountains' at Saluda Inn. Students from many lands will join in the guided tours of the scenic area and other recreation. There will be discussions on Christianity during the evenings.

The houseparty will last Nov. 22-25, and the total cost is $14. Further information about the be obtained from Challie Iralu, 226 Connor. or Ed Viser, 204 Connor.

TRANSPORTATION

Airlines are not only heavily booked for Nov. 21 but are heavily booked in advance for Christmas. These include Eastern, Capital, and Piedmont airlines.

The Carolina Coach Co., main source of travel to and from Chapel Hill, is still on strike at this time. The Durham-Chapel Hill bus line, however, is going in and cut of Durham approximately every hour.

Three trips being made daily from Chapel Hill to Greensboro. At Greensboro connections can be made to Winston-Salem and all points west.

Arrangements have also been made on a temporary basis until the strike ends for four through buses to Dallas. Tex.; one bus to Tampa-Miami. Fla.; and three buses to Washington and New York daily.

There are still some sections Council are:

Campus Runoff Ballot Set Today From 8-6 Foday's runoff election will determine Student Legislature control, composition of the three judiciary councils and class officers.

Balance

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Only Town Men's II residents will vote for class officers. Entire vote in the district was disqualified last week due to discrepancy between registered junior voters and actual voters for junior class officers.

One legislator also will be elect- Residents in Town Men's 1, ed by Town Men's II residents, which includes all men students Joe Clapp (SP) and Van Wolts living in the southern section of (UP) are competing for the seat. Chapel Hill south of Cameron Ave. In Town Men's III, runoff for a and its imaginary extension east-Student Legislature seat will be ward and westward except Victory held between Tom! Kenan (UP) Village, will vote in Gerrard Hall. and Jim Johnson (SP), Kenan Residents in Town Men's II, and Johnson last week tied with which includes all men students 49 votes each. · living in the rectangle bounded At present, the University by West Cameron Ave., S. Colum-

Party holds 24 legislature seats bia St., W. Franklin St. and Carrand the Student Party has 24. boro city limits, will vote at the Thus control may shift 26-24 to Scuttlebutt.

either party, or membership may Residents in Town Men's III, which includes all other men stube deadlocked 25-25. The entire campus will vote for Victory Village, will vote beside representatives to the three judi- South Building in Y-Court or in the building. ciary councils. Ber in a

Residents in Town Men's IV, Candidates for the Men's Honor which includes all men students in the eastern part of the state | Junior seats (3): Bill Bost, Bon residing in Victory Village, or the which cannot be reached from Evans, Jack Jones, Dave Watson, area bounded by Jackson Circle.

Thanksgiving holiday starts Wednesday at 1 p.m. and ends next Monday at 8 a.m. While airlines and train stations in the vicinity were reporting full passenger manifests, plenty of relaxation and fun was being planned for students who Here's a roundup of Thanks-

Exodus

By GARY NICHOLS

and EDITH MacKINNAN

DUNE DAME Heading the holiday activities will be the contest between Carolina's Tar Heels and the Duke Blue Devils. This year's battle between the two arch rivals will be held in Kenan Stadium-with game time set for 2 p.m. Saturday's game will climax ing this afternoon's "Beat Dook" parade. Sponsored by Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, the parade begins at 2 p.m.

Carolina students will hop aboard practically everything av-Hut tomorrow at 6 p.m. ailable tomorrow and head home The University's official Lodge told the United Nations that Russia is continuing to deport Hungarian rebels to the freezing Siberian plains in open boxcars. As of Nov. 14, he said, 14,000 Hungarians have been deported from their native land.

PARIS - In spite of government statements that there would be no food shortages, Frenchmen started hoarding and getting ready for restrictions on everything from sugar to gasoline -trought on by the Suez crisis. Gasoline consumption will have to be cut by 30 percent, however, spokesmen said.

NEW YORK -Members of the International Longshoremen's Assn. continued their strike on the Atlantic coast Monday despite appeals from the White House to reach terms with their employers. Negotations will be resumed today.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the Infirmary yesterday included: Misses Ruth Lukens, Doris ra Honey, Val Von Ammon, Kay night and came to Chapel Hill. Adams, Lucinda Holderness, Carolyn Placak, Anne Ruffin and An- they entered Winston Dormitory ne Bobbitt.

Woody, Nancy Stephens, Mary Valentine, Nancy Davis, Elizabeth McGraw, and Louis Cody. Weyman Richardson, Robert Southerland, Phillip Reinhardt, Peter Grodsky, John Schenck, David McCall, Radford Fulger, James Dunn, Hilton Goldman, Robert Thornton, and Walter Collison.

Judges for the contest were E. C. Ayres and Richard, Billings, were Smith, local merchant, Mrs. Kay sleeping. Kyser and Jimmy Capps, Raleigh disc jockey. stealing his wallet and class ring. FLOATS Around 35 floats from dormitories, sororities and fraterniti-s have been entered. Trophies will be awarded to the best floats in these four divisions.

Women's dorms entered arc: Smith. McIver and Nurses' Dorm. Sororities entered are: Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma

Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Delta and Pi Beta Phi. Fraternities entered are:

Chi Phi, Alpha Tau Omega, Kap- Di Hall, pa Alpha, Theta Chi, Zeta Beta The bill provides that:

Tau, Lambda Chi, Sigma Nu, Sig-"I. The maximum number of ma Phi Epsilon, Tau Epsilon Phi, students that could be enrolled St. Anthony Hall, Sigma Alpha Ep- at the University at one time be silon, Sigma Chi, Phi Gamma Del- limited to 5,000; II. Out-of state ta, Phi Kappa Phi, Pi Lambda Phi, students be required to make a Delta Theta. Delta Kappa Epsilon grade falling in the upper oneand Chi Psi. fourth of all participants in the University entrance examinations Men's dormitories entered are. before they be considered for ad-Alexander, Ruffin, Mangum, mission. Lewis and Everett.

The whereas clauses of the bill Lincoln High School and UNC state, "the tremendous increase in Bands will participate in the par students eligible to enter colleges rade. The Navy Drum and Bugle in the past few years has put un-Corps and Color Guard and the forseen stress upon facilities and AFROTC Drill Team will also per- personnel of the University and (See DI Page 3)

PLANETARIUM

The Morehead Planetarium At about 6:25 a.m. Saturday. Christmas Show, "Star of Bethlenem," will open Wednesday at room where two students, Jim 8:30 p.m. and continues through Dec. 31 except for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, when Billings woke up, Blake said, the planetarium will be closed. and found Schoelling in the act of There will be a Thanksgiving special showing on Thanksgiving day at 3 p.m., and matinees on Saturdays at 11 a.m., and 3 and 4 p.m. except for next Sa-, the United Nations, here on Dec. tunday, when the Duke game will 10. take precedence.

The busy planetarium schedule is rounded out with daily showings by reservations for school groups at 1 and 2 p.m. with general public showings at 1 and 2 The Dialectic Senate will debate

p.m. or. Sundays. ber of students at the University. LIBRARY HOURS

Deb te will be held at 8 p.m. in The Wilson Library will close on Wednesday at 5:00 p.m. and will remain closed until 9 a.m. Friday. On Friday the library will be open for those who will remain on campus during the holidays until 5 p.m. and will open on Saturday from 9 until 1 p.m. Sunday the Library will be closed all day.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL

Linda Mann, director of Graham Memorial, announces that GM will be closed during the Thanksgiving holidays.

The building will be closed from Wednesday at 7 p.m. until Saturday at 9 a.m.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

program and registration may here by bus.

The Carolina Forum will pre- gave the people of the area the sent V. K. Khrishna Menon, chair- opportunity to decide their own man of the Indian Delegation to Tuture.

> Eadlier this year, Menon, as minister without portfolio, was 1.311-71

Menon, second forum presenta- the Indian representative to the Peter, Nan Schaeffer, Cynthia tion in its 1956-57 series, will London Conference on the Suez Seagraves. Sara Van Weyk, Kit speak in Hill Hall at 8 p.m. | Canal.

The forum is chaired this year | According to Chairman Holmes. the Forum "cordially invites all of by Jim Holmes. those who are interested to attend cil are: In 1928, Menon reactivated the India League of the United King- the program.

"Our programs are presented dom. an organization which supported India's struggle for inde- for not only the students at Chappendence. From that time until el Hill, but also for the citizens Godwin, Jim Long, 1947 he remained secretary of of the state of North Carolina. the league, carrying on a vigorous who have a natural interest in the campaign for the independence welfare of their University," he of India.

KOREAN PROBLEM

basement.

In 1952, at the United Nations Manly Wellman To Speak, which eligible voters must count-General Assembly, Menon put Tonight In Law School forward a plan for the solution of the Korean prisoners of war prob-Manly Wade Wellman, local aulem which was delaying the end- thor, will be the guest speaker representatives appointed by the fore the Philantropic Literary Soing of hostilities in Korea. tonight at the Law School. Menon was described by many Wellman's topic is entitled "Silver observers as the outstanding Tongue Lawyers". statesman of the 10th session of His talk will begin at 8 p.m. in the General Assembly of the the Law School court room.

United Nations. Menon also piloted the Indian to Jerry Campbell, chairman of the sity-owned buildings may vote in trial; and the state is too large to Foreign students have been resolution on Togoland which Speaker's Committee.

John Zollicoffer, Paul Carr: Sophomore seats (2): Gary

Cooper, John Owens, Avery Thomas. Mason Wilkins, Tucker Yates. Freshman seat: (1), Lee Ainslee, Henry Harris, Hugh Patterson, Bruce Hoyle, Dick Robinson, Gordon Street. Candidates for the Women's Honor Council are:

Misses Sue Atchison, Betty Barnes, Lloyd Dougherty, Daryl Farrington, Nancy Milan, Marianna Miller, Ann Morgan, Doris Whitehurst. Lucinda Holderness,

Eve Leah McClatchey. Candidates for Students Coun-Junior seats (2): Mac Patten, Jay Walker:

Sophomore seat (1): Herman Dormitory presidents are responsible for implementation of the registration system in dorm men's districts. They must provide poll tenders and rosters ersign before voting.

In town men's districts, poll ten into two states -- eastern and ders and rosters are provided by western - will be presented beciety tonight in Phi Hall on the | Elections Board.

All dormitory rsidents will vote fourth floor of New East at 8 p.m. in their respective dormitories. Reasons for the split are that Residents of Emerson Stadium the cultures of the East and West will vote in Ruffin Dorm, and are very dissimilar: the East is The public is invited, according residents of unmentioned Univer- agricultural; the West is indushave a homogenous population. Old East.

Mason Farm Road, Daniels Rd, and Polk St., will vote in Victory Vil-

One ballot box will be located at the intersection of Mason Farm and Pittsboro Rds: Another box will be located at the intersection of Daniels Rd., Bagley Dr., Jackson Circle and Mason Farm Rd. Residents in Town Women's district, which includes all women students not living in University-owned buildings, and women residing in sovority houses, will vote in Gerrard Hall.

Any student who is unable to vote at the proper polling place because he is held in the University infirmary or for any other reason approved by the Elections Board will be allowed to vote by absentee ballot.

Phi Gets Bill To Cut State Into One More A bill to divide North Carolina

Cobb Dorm Holds A Dance

form.

Pictured above at Cobb Dormitory's dance last weekend are Miss Joy Daughtery of Cotton Dormitory, Woman's College, who was chosen "Sweetheart of Cobb Dorm." She's with Steve Lyon, president of Cobb.

Campus Chest Has A Winner

Miss Jean Peay, center left. and Margery Lindeman. center right,

got trophles for getting out the money in the Campus Chest campaign

last week. Miss Peay represents Spencer Dormitory; Miss Lindeman, Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. With them are Miss Jackie Aldridge and Jess Stribling, co-chairmen of the drive.

Loads Of Woman's College Girls

Three busloads of girls from Woman's College attended the dance at Cobb Dormitory Saturday night. Here, students and their dates are dancing to the music of Bruno's Combo in the dormitory's

And Theta Chis Have Darice, Too

The Carolina Inn ballroom was the scene of a social fraternity's annual pledge dance. Here it's Theta Chi. Music was provided by Ken McCauley's combo. (For another party picture, see page 4.)

Norman Kantor Photos.