New Instructors Named To History Department Posts

Three new instructors have joined the History Department at the University of North Carolina. Dr. Fletcher Green, department chairman, has announced.

The new instructors listed by Dr. Green are Dr. Morton Keller of New York, Dr. Hugh D. Hawkins of Oklahoma and Charles A. Hale of Minnesota.

Two of the instructors, Hale and Keller will teach in the Department of Social Science.

Hale received his B.A. degree from Amherst College in 1951 and his M.A. from the University of Minnesota in 1952. In 1952, he studied at the University of Strasbourg under a Fulbright grant. Last year, he carried on research in Mexico under a Doherty fellowship in preparation for his doctoral dissertation.

Dr. Keller recently received his Ph.D. degree from Harvard University. He served with Naval In### news in brief

FROM RADIO DISPATCHES

WASHINGTON—Russia was reported moving steadily and rapidly in the Middle East to exploit the break in the alliance of the western powers.

State Dept. spokesman Lincoln White charged Russia with sending small arms, trucks and similar equipment into Syria, a violation of a United Nations resolution asking UN members not to send more arms to the Middle East.

White said the Soviet Union has been sending them for some time and also since the resolution was adopted.

AMMAN, Jordan—Jordan announced she is cutting free her relations with Great Britain and all British bases there will be liquidated.

It was reported she is considering the establishment of diplomatic, cultural and economic ties with Russia. A radio announcer said this could move the Soviet Union across the Arab states through Syria and Egypt to the Suez Canal.

LONDON—One hundred members of the conservative Labor Party in Parliament adopted a resolution severely criticizing the American position in the Suez crisis and the complete reliance on the UN. It was reported the American position endangers the Atlantic alliance.

AUGUSTA, Ga. — The White House gave assurance the Atlantic alliance would remain intact. Secretary of State Dulles, just recovered from an intestinal operation, will talk with President Eisenhower on his way home from Key West, Fla.

Automation In Mathematics Demonstrated Here

A mathematics professor from N. C. State College demonstrates an electronic computer to a Carolina math professor. The machine was one of two demonstrated at a North Carolina Mathematics

Teachers Conference here. One was an equation solver built out of surplus parts. The other was an analog computer. Shown are Prof. John W. Cell of N. C. State, left, and Prof. J. W. Lasley of UNC.

Stage, Film Stars Here Saturday

Four Broadway and Hollywood stars will appear on the stage of Memorial Hall Saturday night at 8:30 in the "The Best of Steinbeck," sponsored by The Carolina Play-makers.

Constance Bennett, Tod Andrews, Frank McHugh and Robert Strauss will enact dramatized excerpts from the works of Pulitzer prize novelist John Steinbeck.

Constance Bennett is a member of the famous Bennett family, with her father Richard Bennett, one of the great actors of the past fifty years, and her sisters, Joan and Barbara, stage and film stars. Educated abroad, Constance began her acting career at fourteen, when she was "discovered" by Samuel Goldwyn. Before she was twenty-five her success grew with one hit after another until, after her fourth assignment, she established a record by receiving $30,000 a week for five weeks for a picture.

Among her eighty films were "Common Clay," "Ladies in Love," "Tail-spin," and the "Topper" series. Six years ago she became Hollywood's first full-fledged woman producer when she purchased the best-seller "Paris Underground" and produced it entirely on her own, playing the leading role. In recent years she has toured in such theatre productions as Noel Coward's "Easy Virtue," Philip Barry's "Without Love," "Over Twenty-One," and "John Loves Mary." In Germany, where her husband was a Wing Commander during the Berlin Air Lift, she gave two performances a day for the Air Force for two months.

Besides her theatre and film work Miss Bennett has owned her own cosmetics firm, designed a fashion line called Constance Bennett Originals, received five citations for her war work, organized her current ABC radio show and recently completed a successful tour of the top supper clubs in the country.

Tickets for the production are available for $2.50 and $1.50 at the Business Office, 214 Abernethy Hall.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the Infirmary yesterday include:

'Magic Flute' To Be Given Here Sunday

Les Petites Musicales will present "The Magic Flute," an abridged version of the Mozart opera, with Norman Cordon and the University Glee Club on Dec. 2.

Sponsored by Graham Memorial Activities Board, the production is to be held in Hill Hall.

Heading the cast will be Norman Cordon as Sarastro, John Hanks as Tamino, Dona Patton as Pamina, and Joel Carter as Papageno. The University Glee Club will be under the direction of Joel Carter.

Robert Andrews, who holds his masters degree in Dramatic Art from UNC, will direct the opera, which will be presented with costumes and scenery.

No admission is charged for the performance.

Dean Brandis To Talk On UN

The first supper forum of the YM-YWCA will be held Thursday with Dean Henry Brandis Jr. of the Law School giving an address entitled "The Potentialities of the United Nations."

The meeting will be held in the large dining room on the second floor of the North end of Lenoir Hall. Meeting time is 5:30 p.m.

The forum is a continuation of the international relations study group which has been meeting in the afternoon (night). Tonight's meeting is sponsored by the international relations group and the current affairs group of the YMCA-YWCA.

Students Off For UN Seminar Tomorrow

By PRINGLE PIPKIN
Twenty-one UNC students, nine girls and twelve boys, will go to New York Thursday by car for a seminar on the United Nations.

This seminar is sponsored by the UNC YM-YWCA with staff assistance from Miss Anne Queene, director of the YWCA. Six students from Ohio and Michigan will join the group in New York. The UNC group will stay together in the same hotel in New York.

Thursday evening the group will have an orientation session for the seminar.

Friday morning the contingent will be familiarized with functions of the United Nations. At 10 in the morning the students will go to the General Assembly of the United Nations. In the afternoon the group will tour the UN Buildings. At 8 p.m. there will be a seminar session with two resource people from the UN or AFSC.

Grail Dance Set For Dec. 8

One hundred Meredith College women, at least, will be on the campus for the Dec. 8 dance sponsored by the Order of the Grail.

The entire campus is invited to attend the function, according to Delegata Luther Hodges.

Freshmen are especially cordially invited. Hodges said.

Music for the function will be provided by the Duke Ambassadors, an eighteen-piece band.

It will last from 8-11 p.m. and will be held in Woolen Gymnasium.

The idea of inviting another school outside the Consolidated University to the campus for a social event is without precedent, according to the Grail delegata.

It is hoped a precedent will be established by the dance which will be followed by other groups, Hodges said.

In subsequent articles concerning the establishment of this new tradition, President of the Student Body Bob Young and class officers will comment on it.

IDC Won't Meet

The Interdormitory Council will not meet tonight.

Instead the council will have a special meeting tonight week, Dec. 5, at 7 p.m.

President Sonny Hallford said the reason for postponement was that quiz conflicts were too great. Primary reason was a business administration examination conflict, Hallford said.

Tentative speaker for the meeting is Director of Student Activities Sam Magill.

Clothing Donations Are Good

Donations of clothing to the Hungarian Relief Clothing Drive from townspeople through today have been good, according to Mrs. E. T. Chanlett of the Community Church.

The drive is under the sponsorship of the Chapel Hill Friends and the Community Church.

Student donations have been light since boxes for the clothing had not yet been placed in the residence halls yesterday.

The appeal for special gifts and clothing came through the World University Service to aid the students of Hungary.

Mrs. Chanlett stated that any one who saw Walter Kronkiewicz's Sunday newscast on television will have some idea of the immediate need of the Hungarian refugees.

The drive will continue through Saturday, and every type of clothing is welcomed. There is a special demand for bed linen and baby clothing, however.

According to Mrs. Chanlett, since the clothing donations are being routed through the American Friends Service Committee, proper distribution procedures are assured. There had been some apprehension on the part of donors about whether the clothing might be confiscated by the Communists or sold at a profit.

The drive is a community project with all Chapel Hill Churches participating, along with the Interfraternity Council, the APO Service fraternity and the Woman's Residence Council.

Just One Physics Teacher

GREENSBORO, N.C.—The combined efforts of all colleges in North Carolina turned out just one qualified high school physics teacher last year and during the current school year they will turn out none, William C. Friday, president of the Consolidated University of North Carolina, said here yesterday.

Weinman Re-elected UP Leader

A large turnout of University Party members bestowed a rare honor upon Mike Weinman last night by decisively re-electing him as party chairman.

Weinman, a senior and a member of Zeta Beta Tau social fraternity, was opposed for the chairmanship by Jim Monteith, last year's UP nominee for senior vice-president in the spring elections.

"It's a tremendous honor to be re-elected as party chairman," Weinman said after the meeting was adjourned. "I'll work very hard to see we win the spring elections. We've got the material and I think we'll win it," Weinman added.

In the other elections for new party officers, Butch Tomlinson and Dave Davis were elected by acclamation for the offices of vice chairman and treasurer respectively.

Both Tomlinson and Davis are sophomores at the university. Tomlinson is a member of the Beta Theta Pi social fraternity and Davis is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Harriett Bobbitt was accorded a similar honor as that given to Weinman when the members re-elected her as secretary of the UP.

Bobbitt, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, was opposed for the office of secretary by Judy Ann-Crater.

The terms for the officers will last until late in the spring semester when the UP will hold another election for new officers.

Spring Preregistration To Begin Here On December 6

Holidays Enjoyable

By MARY ALYS VOORHEES

ACCORDING to the Greek way of life, Thanksgiving vacation meant quite a big time for some members of the student body.

While most Carolina gentlemen and coeds were packing cars to spend the holidays with the family, a group of Lambda Chis could be found out at the Raleigh-Durham airport, eagerly anticipating a trip south.

But this wasn't to be just an ordinary trip, so the fellows had a private DC-3 plane fly them down to Palm Beach, Fla.'s sunny shores, arriving in time for a swim before dinner.

With the warm weather to enjoy, their activities included a party with the Lambda Chis at Rollins College, nightclubbing — one brother dating a Russian princess — and loads of swimming.

And then to add to the vacation, the group headed back to the Hill in time for the Duke-Carolina game Saturday, after which they entertained the Duke Lambda Chis at a Juke Box Party.

While they were enjoying themselves in the Sunshine State, the ZBTs were having a grand old time up in New York City. After spending Thanksgiving Day at
