

Carolina Defeats Terps In Two-Overtime Thriller, 65-61

Dave Sime Will Run For State Dept. In Burma

NEW YORK —(AP)— Speedster Dave Sime will miss most of the indoor track season to answer a call of the U.S. State Department.

Dan Ferris, executive secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, said yesterday the Duke University sprinter would leave Thursday to run in Rangoon, Burma, not returning until Feb. 20.

"He will substitute for shotputter Perry O'Brien who couldn't make the trip," Ferris told the Metropolitan Track Writers at their weekly luncheon. "Rangoon wanted a topflight athlete. The State Department asked for Sime specifically because he missed the Olympic Games."

Sime was forced to withdraw from the Millrose Games, New York Athletic Club and National Indoor Track and Field Championships at Madison Square Garden.

Fencers Resume Work

The fencing team will resume practice today at 3:30 at Woollen Gym. Anyone interested in joining the team is urged to come to today's practice session. Plans have been made to hold the first meet of the season on Feb. 23 against Augusta Military Academy.

Tar Heels Rally For Great Win

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — North Carolina, No. 1 team in the nation, extended its unbeaten string to 17 with a thrilling 65-61 double overtime victory over Maryland last night.

Lennie Rosenbluth scored 8 of the team's 12 points in the two overtime periods to enable the Tar Heels to keep their streak alive. He got in all of 25 points before fouling out with 1:09 left to play in the second overtime.

The regulation game ended 53-53. Each team scored six points in the first overtime and Maryland missed winning when Bob O'Brien's last second shot after a one-minute freeze bounced off the back of the rim.

The Terps missed a similar opportunity with eight seconds remaining in the regulation game after a freeze of a minute and a half.

Nick Davis, Maryland's high scorer with 20 points, drove in toward the basket and passed off but center Perry Moore fumbled the ball under the basket.

Tommy Kearns, 5-foot-11 North Carolina guard, twice came through. He tied the regulation game at 53-all and then made the basket which put North Carolina ahead 63-61 with 3:12 to go in the last overtime.

A record crowd of 14,000 saw North Carolina win its seventh straight Atlantic Coast Conference game. Maryland has won 6 and lost 4 in the loop.

John Nacinick was second to Davis in Maryland scoring with 16. Rosenbluth got support from Pete Brennan with 14 points and 10 each from Kearns and Joe Quigg.

THE BIG ONE IN WOOLLEN:

Fallen UNC Matme Point For Battle With Terrapins Friday

By RON MILLIGAN

Quickly recovering from the bruises of their first defeat of the season by VPI, the Tarheel wrestlers are pointing confidently for the biggest ACC match of the season when they meet Maryland Friday night in Woollen Gym.

Someone asked Coach Sam Barnes what happened at VPI last week, and he replied: "They just got the jump on us! Besides making mistakes, I think one of the main troubles was that my boys weren't in their best physical condition."

As far as the ACC standing goes, the defeat for the Tarheels does not hurt them since VPI is not in the conference. Carolina and Maryland are the leading contenders for the conference championship. Carolina has wins over Wake Forest and Virginia, while Maryland has wins over Virginia and N. C. State in the conference.

Freshman Cagers Meet Davidson JV's Tonight

By BILL KING

Carolina's freshman cage team will be out to better its second semester record tonight as the Tar Babies go against the Davidson junior varsity at Davidson.

Coach Vince Gramaldi's talented aggregation, boasting a 9-3 record thus far, bounced back with a 93-78 victory over Bullis Saturday night after being humiliated by the Wake Forest Baby Deas 93-67 last Thursday.

Gramaldi, speaking of the Wake Forest loss said: "It was the worst game that we've played this season. We just can't be that bad again. The boys were dull after a two weeks layoff for exams, but I'm not taking anything away from Wake Forest, they were hot and they played us a fine ball game. You can be sure of one thing though," he added, "we're looking forward to playing them again."

Gramaldi thought the Tar Babies did a fine job against Bullis. "They showed a lot better that night," he commented. "They seemed to have snapped out of the layoff fatigue."

Referring to the Bullis game, Gramaldi added: "We played them man to man although we probably should have thrown up a zone defense. Bullis was small and fast and we have two big men (Kepley and Shaffer) who are not fast enough for a real good man to man, but I wanted the boys to get some experience with that type defense. We did switch to the zone at the last to sew up the game."

Asked about tonight's game, Gramaldi said: "I don't know much about the Davidson team but I imagine they're small. We will start with the man to man and switch to the zone if the going gets tough."

Gramaldi will go with Lee Shaffer and York Laresse at forwards; Dick Kepley at center; and John Crotty and Mike Steppe at guards tonight. In the Bullis game, Kepley dropped in 29 points with Laresse and Shaffer getting 22 and 20 respectively.

As a parting shot Gramaldi was asked what his over all opinion of the Tar Babies was. "They've improved a great deal," he answered. "They seem to be getting used to each other and they've certainly learned a lot about college basketball."

"Shaffer and Kepley are shooting much better and we have a very strong bench," he continued. "Wally Graham, Jack Cruichfield, and Gray Poole have been especially outstanding."
