Short Course Here Best In Entire Nation; Costa

A national magazine photographer advised news photographers to learn the language of a country before they try to talk foreigners into posing for pictures.

Hugh Morton of Wilmington is the program.

The advice came from Frank Scherschel, Life Magazine news-photographer, at the opening session here yesterday of the eighth annual Southern Short Course in press photography.

Scherschel based his advise on experiences of hand-talking and translators that he had to use in European assignments.

"Too many Americans" he said, "make the stupid mistake of talking loud over there instead of learning the language."

The meeting will be held from Sunday through next Friday.

Hailing from Raleigh, he is past president of the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, past president of Kappa Psi pharmaceutical fraternity, treasurer of the senior class, and chairman of the Dance Committee. Miller has been recognized for his activities by the Orders of the Grail and the Old Well.

After being elected to the position of vice chairman of the section in Miami Beach, Fla., two years ago, Miller advanced to the chairmanship at the A.Pha.A. Convention in Detroit, Mich., last April.

The Student Section of the A.Pha.A. is composed of delegates from 72 colleges of pharmacy throughout the United States. At least one thousand students are expected to attend the meeting which will be held in the spacious ballroom of the Hotel Statler.

Other University of North Carolina pharmacy students planning to attend this year's convention are Miss Shirley Bumgardner and Billy Lander, who are also delegates to the Rho Chi Convention which is held in conjunction with the A.Pha.A. Also going are Joe E. Smith, John Williams, David R. Davis and Mike Lazarus.

Hundreds of newspaper photographers were judged today in the annual southeastern contest for excellence. Winners will be announced at a banquet Saturday night.

Reliable informants said the chief reason for the meeting was a demand by Iraq that Syria pull out the 5,000 troops it has in northern Jordan.

These Syrian army units entered Jordan last fall at the time of the Israeli invasion of Egypt. Their ostensible purpose was to aid King Hussein's army if Israel also attacked Jordan.

The first of two spring concerts by the UNC Band will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 under Davie Poplar.

The public has been cordially invited to attend the free concert.

Director Herbert Fred said the music will be of a light nature.

Included in the music that will be presented are Victor Herbert's "Gypsy Life," Richard Strauss' "Allerseelen," a medley of Peter Rose's hits, Robert Russell Bennett's "Suite of Old American Dances" and several marches.

Calvin Hubert will play Tchaikovsky's "None But the Lonely Heart" as a trombone solo.

Senior music majors John Dear and Don Jefferson will conduct and Don Jefferson will conducting the concert, Fred stated.

6th Fleet Moves

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States yesterday sent its powerful 6th fleet steaming toward the troubled Middle East in a show of strength aimed at bringing calm to strife-torn Jordan.

This muscle flexing came as the government blamed "international Communism" for the unrest in Jordan and ordered President Eisenhower's special ambassador, James P. Richardson, temporarily out of the area.

Secretary of State Dulles, meanwhile, met for 40 minutes with Sens. Knowland (R-Calif.) and Mansfield (D-Mont.), representing the Senate leadership of both parties. Dulles and his aides also telephoned other leaders in the House and Senate.

All of these moves came as Young King Hussein fought at Amman to keep his kingdom from falling apart.

Martial Law

AMMAN, Jordan — (AP) — King Hussein, fighting for his throne, imposed military law on imperilled Jordan yesterday in a series of dramatic moves against his enemies inside and outside the country.

The embattled young king named a new government, clamped a curfew on the nation's main cities as a safeguard against rioting, and abolished the country's 10 political parties.

Secret Conference

CAIRO — (AP) — Syria's President Shukri Kuwatly flew to Cairo yesterday for an urgent, secret conference with President Nasser on the crisis in Jordan.

Reliable informants said the chief reason for the meeting was the chief reason for the meeting was a demand by Iraq that Syria pull out the 5,000 troops it has in northern Jordan.

Moscow Accuses U. S.

LONDON — (AP) — Moscow accused the United States of "blatant interference" in the internal affairs of Jordan last night.

An anonymous commentator on Moscow Radio's home service said the Jordan situation remains tense amid an "atmosphere of a deep interpolitical crisis."

Moscow Radio said the United States "by means of behind-the-scenes machinations are trying to set up a Jordan government which would adopt the aggressive Eisenhower doctrine and give up the policy of protecting the national interests and unity with other free Arab countries."

Second Protest Made By UNC On Pay Raises

RALEIGH — (AP) — A second protest by personnel of the Consolidated University has been registered against the administration-backed pay increase proposal for state employees.

This one came from the Woman's College in Greensboro. It followed on the heels of another from UNC maintenance workers.

Gov. Hodges and the State Personnel Dept. say the formula—by which an overall 11 per cent raise would be meted out—is designed to give larger dollar raises to low-salaried employees than an across-the-board percentage raise.

The Greensboro protest of the formula concerns Woman's College dining hall and building and grounds employees.

It was contained in a letter to the Guilford General Assembly delegation from the Woman's College director of dining hall, Superintendent of buildings and grounds and auditor.

If the formula is enacted into law, the letter says, 32 per cent of the dining hall employees will receive no increase.

The present salaries are above the new maximums proposed, it was explained. The letter added that these employees are automatically "frozen" in their salary ranges with little hope of future increases.

Comet Is Visible Here, Says Planetarium Head

A comet, discovered in the heavens just last year, can be seen with the naked eye just after sunset, Anthony F. Jenzano, Morehead Planetarium manager, said Thursday.

The comet, the Arend-Roland Comet, will continue to be visible under favorable conditions for about a month. It will begin to disappear the latter part of May, he said.

It can be seen by facing the northwest just after sunset and looking just above the horizon. It appears almost stationary, he said, and has a tail that is "quite squat and wide."
