Disarmament Plan

LONDON (AP)—Russia offered last night to open up part of the Soviet Union to President Eisenhower's sky patrol plan in exchange for Soviet photo surveys of Alaska and possibly all the United States west of the Mississippi River.

The plan was laid before the U.N. disarmament subcommittee and was plugged heavily by Moscow radio.

The U. S. delegation declined to comment, and other subcommittee members reacted variously. Some thought the Soviet plan slightly encouraging. Other reaction was unfavorable.

U. S. Accuses Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, striking back at Russia, yesterday blamed the crisis in Jordan on intervention by Soviet-controlled "international Communism."

A spokesman declared that since World War II the Soviet Union "has subjected 10 once independent nations to its rule." His application appeared to be that the Reds have been trying to gain domination of Jordan.

State Department Press Officer Lincoln White made the charge of foreign intervention at a news conference in response to requests for U. S. government reaction to charges made in Moscow Monday.

'The Crisis Is Over'

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—King Hussein announced yesterday "the crisis in Jordan is ended."

The 21-year-old monarch, apparently feeling himself in firm control after three weeks of touch-and-go tension which threatened the peace of the whole Middle East, rejected a Soviet complaint that the United States was interfering in Jordan affairs.

At the same time he told a crowded news conference Jordan is not interested in the Eisenhower Doctrine which aims to defend the Middle East from Communist aggression.

Staff Meeting

There will be an "urgent" meeting of the Daily Tar Heel staff today at 3 p.m., according to Editor Neil Bass.

Bass urged all staff members to attend.

Back To Bed Seniors; This Is Your Day

Seniors who rose sleepily from their beds this morning and trudged automatically off to their first class, have been directed to read this notice:

Today is Senior Day. All classes for graduating seniors have been cancelled. For those who are up and about, the only thing left is to go back to sleep and wake again for the organizational to be held at 10 a.m. in Hill Hall.

This morning and afternoon seniors will be meeting to organize for commencement and celebrate the final four years of college.

At 5:30 p.m. seniors will gather at the Patio for a final informal get-together. Program officials have indicated that a fine evening of entertainment is planned to be highlighted by the awarding of a Ford automobile.

The affair ends at 10:30 and all seniors are invited to participate in what Publicity Chairman Lou Rosenstock promises to be the "finest senior day yet."

Rosenstock extended his thanks to Miss Dottie Wood and her social committee for planning the evening's activities.

INFIRMARY LIST

Misses Patricia Gregory, Janet Johnson, Sandra Wallace, Elizabeth McKinnon, and Edith Drexler; Jean Pierre Boissavir, Timothy Jessup, Richard Stoker, Phillip Williams, Theodore Wohlburck, David Ansell, Fred Blue, James Thompson, David Burrows, and Harold Clark.

Mrs. Wanda M. Barry To Serve As Temporary Student Auditor

Mrs. Wanda M. Barry has been appointed to act as temporary auditor of the Student Activities Board, according to an announcement released yesterday by the Student Audit Board.

Mrs. Barry will replace Harry A. Kear in the position. Kear retired yesterday at the age of 66 after 21 years service to the university.

A spokesman for the Student Audit Board indicated that the board is still looking for a permanent auditor and is interviewing prospects here on campus.

Mrs. Barry, who came here in 1949, has filled every post and position in the Student Activities office. Her experience over the past eight years included filling in as bookkeeper, assistant auditor, accountant, etc.

Because Mrs. Barry expects to leave Chapel Hill in July, the Activities Board must find a replacement before that time. A Board spokesman said the position is expected to be filled sometime in June.

Expressing her hopes for the cooperation and assistance of the present staff in fulfilling her new role, Mrs. Barry said, "It will certainly be difficult to replace Mr. Kear in the position. I do, however, look forward to the job, even though it is only temporary."

Harry Kear, who retired yesterday, had been auditor since February of 1941, except for a hitch in the armed forces in 1941.

The former member of the bookkeeping department was also associated with the University for 21 years and was named to the position when two clerks in the office were called into service during the war.

The white-haired man who became something of a tradition at Carolina and around GM during his tenure, retired partly because of health and partly because of his 36 years.

As Mr. Kear left his office for the last time yesterday, he said goodbye to Student Body President Sonny Evans. Said an observer after watching Kear descend the steps from the second floor of Graham Memorial, "There goes another Carolina tradition."

UP Elects Braxton New Party Chairman

With a small gathering of members and a sweep of acclamatory voting, the University Party last night elected Harry Braxton as new party chairman along with a new slate of officers to lead the party for next year.

The voting was done all by acclamation as Jerry Jones was elected vice-chairman of the party. The new treasurer is Edwin Levy; the secretary, Susan Saun-

Tuition Increase Is Now Pending Committee Act

The proposed increase in tuition rates for non-resident undergraduate students here is currently resting in the hands of a General Assembly Joint Appropriations subcommittee.

When the measure will come to the floor of the House of Representatives is uncertain, according to the bill's sponsor, Rep. K. H. Ross of Beaufort.

Ross introduced the bill several weeks ago. It proposes an increase in tuition for out-of-state undergraduate students of not more than $200.

Non-residents now pay $500 tuition per year.

It was the final meeting for a few officers and members, and there were farewell speeches and encouragements for the future. Before yielding the chair to Braxton, former Chairman Mike Weinman thanked the people who had "contributed so much to the success of the spring campaigns and the election."

Weinman appraised the strength and the prospects of the UP and then advised the party members that "you have a tremendous responsibility . . . it is up to you."

With control of the legislature and with UP members in important student positions, Weinman said, that the UP was in a favorable position to lead next year and into the fall elections.

Benny Thomas praised the two year chairmanship of Weinman, telling the party body that Weinman "pulled us all through a lot of tight places. There were many times when we couldn't have done without him."

The new chairman, Braxton, has been former Elections Board Chairman, party floor leader in the legislature, and chairman of numerous UP standing committees.

Applicants To Take Exam Today By 6 p.m.

Jerry Oppenheimer, chairman of the Campus Orientation Committee, printed out yesterday that all applicants must have been interviewed and taken the required quiz before 6 p.m. today.

He pointed out that those persons who have applied for positions and as yet have not appeared for interviews must do so between the hours of 2-6 p.m. today in the Woodhouse Conference Room of Graham Memorial.

"Interviews will constitute a major part of the consideration for selection, Oppenheimer said. The other criterion will be the orientation quiz which will be taken today between 1-5 p.m. today, in the Orientation Office in GM, he added.

Oppenheimer said that all applicants must be interviewed and have taken the quiz before 6 p.m. today or their names will be automatically dropped from consideration.

In a statement yesterday stressing the importance of completing necessary orientation procedure, the Orientation Chairman said:

"In the interest of choosing the best counselors for the 1957 orientation program, the Campus Orientation Committee hopes to interview all applicants."

Those persons who have applied for positions and as yet have not appeared must do so before the deadline today.

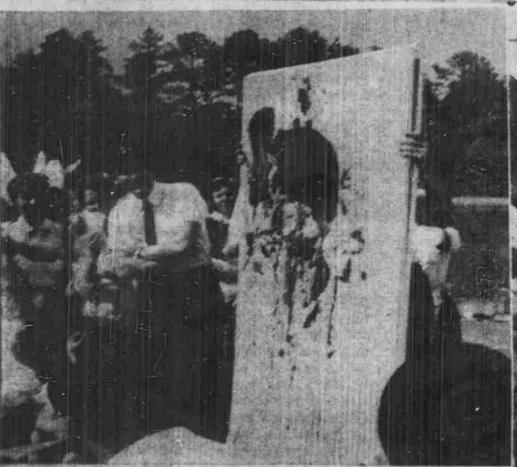

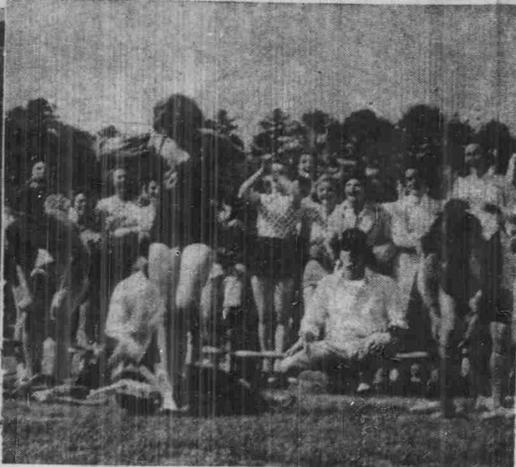

The committee hopes that everyone wishing to enter the program and everyone who has applied to date will complete processing today.

Student Government officers have lent their support to the orientation program and have urged that applicants and all interested persons take an active interest in the program.

Last Day

Student Body President Sonny Evans announced yesterday that today is the last day for applications to be received for student government positions.

Applications will be received in the student government office or at Graham Memorial information desk, he said.

Award Winner To Be Named

The Jane Craig Gray Memorial Award will be presented 8 p.m. May 12 in the reception room of Morehead Planetarium, according to an announcement released yesterday.

The award is given annually by the Beta Chi chapter of the Kappa Delta sorority in memory of Mrs. Gordon Gray, an alumna, as a tribute to the ideals which she exemplified.

Presented on the basis of character, leadership and scholarship, the award is presented each year to the outstanding junior coed on campus.

Winner of the Gray Memorial Award last year was Miss Sylvia Tarantino, a Tri Delta from Tampa, Florida. She was selected from a field of 30 girls under consideration for the award.

This year Vice President William D. Carmichael will make the presentation. A reception will follow the formal ceremonies in the faculty lounge of the planetarium, it was announced.

Selection of the award winner is made through a committee headed by Miss Katherine Carmichael, Dean of Women, as chairman. Other members of the committee include: Dean Ernest Mackie, dean of student awards; Bob Young, ex-student body president; Miss Mary Ann Keefer (replacing Miss Patricia McQueen, chairman of the Women's Honor Council); Miss Annette Niven, former chairman of Women's Orientation; and Ray Jefferies, assistant to the dean of student affairs.

Judith Dockery New Venus; Pee Wee Batten Wins Again

By BOB HIGH

Are you a regular fellow? Then you should have been in Kenan Stadium yesterday afternoon and seen Judith Dockery crowned "Miss Modern Venus of 1957-58."

While there, the advice was to run, don't walk to your nearest drugstore. The Kappa Deltas, last year winners of the Sigma Chi Derby, and the Chi Omegas tied for first place in the annual event between the local sororities and women's organizations on this campus.

In the Race To The Flesh, Pee Wee Batten retained her title as the "queen of strippers" by unclothing first. This race went only down to a bathing suit, however. Alpha Gamma Delta as second and the rest of the participating organizations tied for showing.

The KD's and Chi O's gained the tie with 15 points apiece. The Alpha Gam's were third with 11.

The 2,000 people in the battlefield of Coach Jim Tatum's Blue and White, saw everything given away to lucky ticket-holders from panties to Bob Cunningham to a case of beer to Peggy Swarringen.

Miss Dockery won the beauty Contest over Martha Fortune of Alpha Gamma Delta and Val Von Ammon of Pi Beta Phi. Miss Fortune placed second and Miss Ammon showed for third.

Judging for the event, which the whole crowd waited for till the end, was E. Carrington Smith, Tatum, Joe Augustine and Mrs. Sutton.

The famed secret event was very well kept under cover this year, for when the Sigma Chi's brought out a herd of goats for the girls to milk, the crowd went wild. Other incidents caused much glee with the bare-backed, shirt-sleeved spectators.

In the first event, the Grand National, the Chi O's won. It was run relay style with the first part consisting of two females going leapfrog to the opposite end of the track and then sending a girl shooting a marble to the other end, all the while staying on her posterior. Then an entry had to smoke a cigar to a certain mark, run to the other end, and touch another girl who leaped to the last entrant in a burlap bag. The last of the relay team, kept a potato between her feet and jumped to the finish line.

The KD's were second in this race and the Alpha Gam's finished third.

In the messiest event of the day, Hit The Geek, Beverly Culbreth of the Alpha Gam's splattered the most chocolate pie on the stooge, Hosea Wilson. Cater Poteat of the KD's was the next best "chucking pie" and the Chi O's Sarah Walters, a fast filly from the coast, coated the Geek for third.

In the Secret Event, Mickey Reed of the Nurses put the most milk in the jar in the time allotted to win hands pulling, I mean down. Sally Simpson of the KD's was second and Shirley Collins of Alpha Gam showed for position No. 3.

The skits were very good and hilarious. Many mistakes were made, but everything came out all right. The Nurses won with "I Can't Say No." The Chi Omega's placed for second with "Playboy" and Pi Beta Phi showed with a country program from Big Still, Tennessee?

Miss Nancy Jo Rush was presented to the crowd as "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" for the coming year and the ball.

All in all, great fun was had by all who attended and participated. The laughs were often and the "mistakes" were more often.

Latin American Relations Helped

Relations between Latin America and the United States were strengthened here last week.

At least that's the impression judging from the comments of six visiting community leaders from South America.

Selected as women community leaders in civic, educational, political and journalistic activities, they are touring the United States under auspices of the State Dept. and the Labor Dept.'s Women's Bureau.

The delegation included Mrs. Leticia Antezana de Alberdi, civic leader of La Paz, Bolivia; Miss Hilda Macedo, chief of women's police, Sao Paulo, Brazil; Dr. Anita Arroyo, literature professor and newspaper columnist, Havana, Cuba; Mrs. Celeste Samayoa de Espada,

Senior Invitations

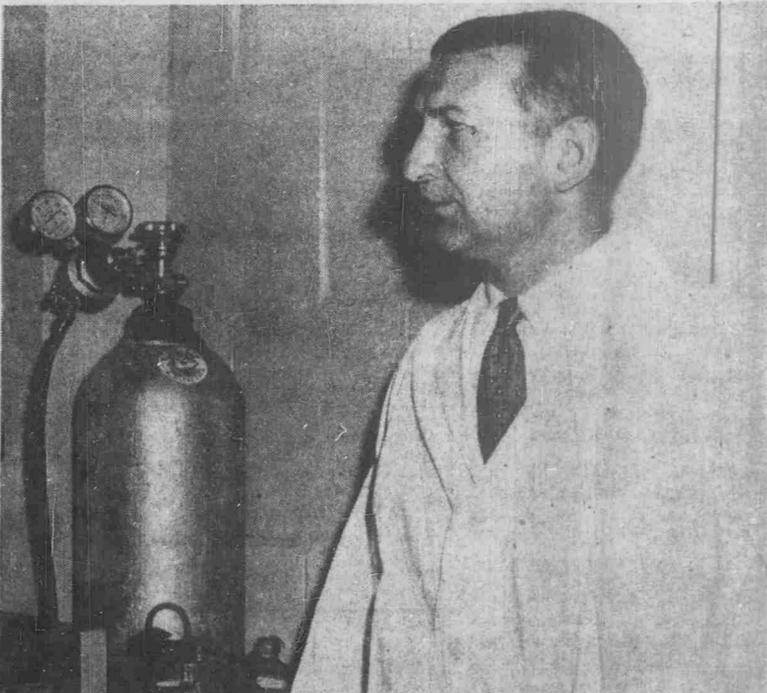

Senior Invitations can be picked up tomorrow and Friday on the second floor of the YMCA from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Order of the Grail announced yesterday.

Seniors have been urged to pick up their graduation invitations on the specified days. The Grail announcement further stated that a limited supply of invitations will be available for those who have not already ordered.

club leader, Guatemala City; Miss Maria Esther Talamantes, legal and political official, Mexico City and Miss Maria Edilia Valero, freelance writer, Caracas, Venezuela.

As they departed for three weeks of travel, which will take them to Tennessee, Arizona, California, Michigan and New York, they expressed impressions of their visits to North Carolina schools, offices, industries and private homes.

During their stay in Chapel Hill, the six women studied local government, saw preparations for the local election May 7 and attended workshops on women's organizations.

Guggenheim Fellowship Winner

Dr. T. Z. Csaky of the UNC School of Medicine, recently named Guggenheim Fellow, will travel to Denmark next spring to begin studying under the fellowship. He will be accompanied by his wife and two children. A native of Hungary, Dr. Csaky has been on the faculty of the School of Medicine since 1951.
