

Sprays from the Showers

BY DICK BURROUGHS

Lost; One Good Swimming Coach

The resignation of Ralph Casey as varsity swimming coach has taken one of UNC's foremost coaches. Casey left to take a similar post with Southern Illinois University.

After 19 years association with the University it is surprising that Casey would leave after reaching the peak of his coaching prowess. He brought the NCAA championship meet to Chapel Hill this past season and since taking over the head coaching reins from Dick Jamerson in 1954 has had a remarkable record.

Considered to be one of the finest swim mentors in the country, his announcement brings with it the end of a great era in Tar Heel swimming.

Between Casey and his predecessor, Dick Jamerson, Carolina has won 16 conference swim titles and tied for one. During one period they won 54 consecutive meets. It is a shame that Chapel Hill should lose such a fine coach.

$$$ Football Improvements $$$

It was so hard for the grid team to have pride in the antique facilities of Kenan Field House that said building is being completely renovated. The locker room will be spacious; all showers will be tiled; and the entire facility will have excellent ventilation.

An addition is being built to the Monogram Club by covering the terrace back of the Club. This will provide a private training table so that the first 44 football men will be able to lunch and sup at the club.

This along with the sleeping facilities' improvements at Kenan Stadium and the complete rebuilding of Navy field should provide much of the needed material substance for the team to have pride and be able to hold its head up high.

If a team is being taken care of like champions, it is only right that they play like champions.

How Old Is Old?

How old does a man get before he is old? Thirty, forty, fifty years old? Well, now let's look at the leading hitter in the baseball world today. Yep, that's right, the splendid splinter from bean town, Ted Williams.

Ted is 39 years old and still going strong. He leads all the youngsters with the blazing speed and strong arms. What does Williams have? Good eyes, strong wrists but most of all, a great desire to be the greatest hitter in the game he loves so much.

There are plenty of others, too; Enos Slaughter on the diamond, Lou Groza on the gridiron, and until recently, Archie Moore in the ring to name a few. All these men love their sport and until they get tired of playing, they will never be old.

It Occurs To Me . . .

THAT it was more enjoyable to watch Tommy Jackson in between rounds than while he was fighting. The "hurricane" may get an offer from Arthur Murray if he decides to quit the fight game.

THAT Bill Corum added a great deal to TV with his humorous comments during the championship fight. The Tar Heel watchers at GM laughed continuously at the wise remarks passed on by the stout gentleman at ring-side.

FORMER HEAD COACH

Barclay Returns To Grid; Will Coach Line Defenses

Former Head Coach George Barclay will return to UNC as a defensive line coach under the man who replaced him two summers ago, it was announced this week.

Barclay, who was replaced in 1956 by present Head Coach Sunny Jim Tatum after having several lean years at the helm of the Tar Heels, served under Tatum at Maryland from 1947 to 1949 and was Jim's assistant at Jacksonville Naval Base in 1944-45.

"We think George will do us a lot of good," commented Tatum. "I have worked with him five years and respect his qualifications."

He is the second newcomer this year to join Tatum who is surrounding himself with the finest coaching talents available.

Bud Carson, who played for the Tar Heels back in the Charlie Justice era, has been acquired to handle the freshman.

"I just hope I can help them," Barclay said, at his University Service Station here in Chapel Hill. "I'm looking forward to my return to coaching."

Barclay points out that he will only serve on the staff during the regular football season and spring practice because he plans to maintain his service station which he has operated since leaving coaching in 1956.

Following a successful year as top man at Washington and Lee in 1949, Barclay came to Carolina and coached under Carl Snively until taking over the head coaching reins from his predecessor in 1953.

Barclay never had a winning season here but will certainly be a great asset to Coach Cheek and Coach Hickey in coaching the defensive team. "There are few coaching staffs who have the advantage of a specialty in this field with the experience which he has had in the game of football," Coach Tatum added.

GEORGE BARCLAY
Defensive Line Coach

No. 1 Team Adds Tourney, Notre Dame To Cage Card

The nation's No. 1 basketball team has added two attractions to their coming season—an inter-sectional clash with Notre Dame and the Kentucky Invitational tournament.

The Kentucky tournament is held at Lexington, Ky., Dec. 20 and 21 just before the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, in which the Tarheels also play.

Other teams set for the tournament are Kentucky, Minnesota and West Virginia.

The Tarheels will meet the "fighting Irish" Feb. 15 in the Chicago Stadium, to break their schedule which is heavily loaded with southern teams.

In addition to the Kentucky Invitational and the Dixie Classic, the Tarheels will play in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament at Raleigh on March 6-8.

The national champions lose only one starter, Lennie Rosenbluth, off the team which set a new national season record last winter by winning 32 consecutive games.

Coach Frank McGuire pointed out that the 1957-58 team will "actually be stronger" than last year's champions because highly regarded sophomore material "will give the squad more depth."

The schedule (home games unless specified): Dec. 7, Clemson; 10, George Washington at Washington, D. C.; 12, Furman at Charlotte; 14, South Carolina; 20-21, Kentucky Invitational at Lexington, Ky.; 26-27-28, Dixie Classic at Raleigh.

Jan. 4, Wake Forest; 7, William and Mary; 9, Virginia; 11, Maryland at College Park, Md.; 15, N. C. State; 18, Clemson at Clemson, S. C.

Feb. 1, South Carolina at Columbia, S. C.; Duke at Durham; 11, Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.; 13, Wake Forest at Winston-Salem; 15, Notre Dame at Chicago, Ill.; 18, N. C. State at Raleigh; 22, Maryland; 28, Duke.

Durham; Moyer Smith, Lexington.

Halfbacks: Ralph Hawkins, Glen Alpine; Jimmy Graham, Raleigh; Conrad Sloop, Kannapolis; Milan Wall, Mars Hill.

Fullbacks: Wiley Carpenter, Canton; Jim Rice, Winston-Salem.

23 Native Sons Will Play Ball For Tar Babies

When freshman football practice begins at UNC on Sept. 5, 23 of the young men in uniform will be homegrown.

Head Coach Jim Tatum released the list and expressed pleasure over such a large group of native sons who are football players choosing the State University for their higher education.

Three of the group, ends Joe Loflin of Fayetteville and Charles Rogers of Durham and center Bill Talley of Burlington, are presently enrolled in summer school.

Four will compete in the all-star high school game at Greensboro. They are Tom Honeycutt of Asheville and Vernon Hoyle of Durham, ends; Jim Shumate of North Wilkesboro, tackle; and Ed Carroll of Wilmington, guard.

The entire group:
Ends: Tom Honeycutt, Asheville; Vernon Hoyle, Durham; Joe Loflin, Fayetteville; Charles Rogers, Durham.

Tackles: Jim Shumate, North Wilkesboro; Bill Crabtree, Dunn; Gene Massey, Kannapolis; Wiley Hanes, Canton.

Guards: Dale Branson, Canton; Ed Carroll, Wilmington; Jim Joy, Stanley; Gary Cline, Wilmington; Bob Jenkins, Mount Holly.

Centers: Tom Cabe, Brevard; Bill Talley, Burlington.
Quarterbacks: Russell Hollers,

VARSAITY

Today-Saturday

The Young Don't Cry

Sal Mineo—James Whitmore—J. Carroll Naish

No Time To Be Young

Robert Vaughn

Sunday-Monday

Interlude

June Allyson—Rossano Brazzi

Tuesday-Wednesday

The Land Unknown

Jack Mahoney—Shawn Smith

Thursday

The Rose Tattoo

Burt Lancaster—Anna Magnani

CAROLINA

Friday

An Affair To Remember

Cary Grant—Deborah Kerr

Saturday

Beginning Of The End

Peter Graves—Peggie Castle

The Unearthly

John Carradine—Allison Hayes

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday

The Prince And The Showgirl

Laurence Olivier—Marilyn Monroe

Wednesday

Heaven Knows Mr. Allison

Robert Mitchum—Deborah Kerr

Thursday

Band Of Angels

Clark Gable—Yvonne De Carlo