

JIM TATUM... No More Crystalballing For Him

FIRST MEETING SINCE '46

Old Rivalry Renewed; Justice Was Last Star

The last time the Carolina Tar Heels ran into the Middles of Annapolis, a fellow named Charlie Justice saddened the hearts of many Admirals. This Saturday, a team called desire or otherwise known as the Tar Heels have their work out for them.

Coach Eddie Erdelatz' Navy team is considered the best of the East this year and will come to Chapel Hill with a perfect 2-0 log after having humiliated Boston College and William and Mary by respective 46-7 and 33-6 scores.

In 1946, the last time Carolina played the Middles, Justice, who was then a mere freshman, led the Tar Heels to a 21-14 victory in a series that has been intermittently going on since 1899. There have been four UNC-Navy games to date and that win in '46 is the lone Tar Heel victory.

Tar Heel Coach Jim Tatum had nothing but nice things to say about his team's surprise 25-0 victory over Clemson last week, but he made it clear that any prognosticating was up to the sports scribes. He says his crystal balling days are over.

The Tar Heels emerged from Saturday's Clemson victory in good physical shape, but, more important, they are hungry for more food after getting their first victory in some time. The squad is in high spirits says halfback Jim Schuler, a young fellow with great enthusiasm.

"We're going to beat Navy... I can feel it in my bones."

That's a big order and one that will not come easy for any team in the nation this year. The odds-makers likely will make Navy a large odds-on favorite.

Navy will field a line averaging about 212 pounds per man. Carolina still will have the edge there, since it has been fielding a starting line that averages 220 pounds per man. Navy should reign in the speed department, though.

The forte of the Middy line will rest in the 235 pound frame of 1956 All-America Honorable Mention, tackle Bob Reifsnnyder. The Navy backfield will be headed by Tom Forrestal, who has come into his own this year as a carrier and aerial wizard. He showed off-and-on finesse last year at quarterback.

Navy's line and fullback Ned "Old" Peckham's leading ground-line last year, should handle the defensive chores along with 190-pound halfback Al Swanson.

The Tar Heels have been getting stellar line play from tackles Leo Russavage, Don Redding, Stuart Pell and Phil Blazer and the development of the center position has also drawn praises.

In addition, Tatum can depend on starting guard Jack Lineberger and opposites Ed Furjanic and Don Stallings to do a creditable job through the middle of the line.

Already a crowd seems to be gathering around Chapel Hill for the big game at Kenan Stadium Saturday and according to the advance ticket sales, this one should draw more than 20,000.

Armed with a crowd of 69,476 packed Yankee Stadium and saw the Yanks hammer Spahn for two clinching runs in the sixth inning.

Bill Skowron, the Yankee clouting first baseman who hadn't played a game since Sept. 13 because of an ailing back, was forced out of action after two innings when he re-injured his back. Elston Howard and then Joe Collins succeeded him.

The veteran Spahn was touched for seven hits before he was removed with one out in the sixth. Ernie Johnson finished that inning but was removed for a pinch hitter and Don McMahon pitched the last two innings for the Braves.

Spahn was the victim of all three Yankee runs, although the third was scored on a squeeze play executed by Jerry Coleman and Yogi Berra after he had been removed.

Hank Bauer drove in Coleman with the first Yankee run with a double in the fifth and Andy Carey's single in the sixth scored Howard with the second Yankee tally.

Yanks Stop Braves, 3-0 In Opener

Lefty Whitey Ford limited the Milwaukee Braves to five hits in their first World Series appearance today and the New York Yankees pounded Warren Spahn to cover in the sixth and took the series opener, 3-1.

A crowd of 69,476 packed Yankee Stadium and saw the Yanks hammer Spahn for two clinching runs in the sixth inning.

Bill Skowron, the Yankee clouting first baseman who hadn't played a game since Sept. 13 because of an ailing back, was forced out of action after two innings when he re-injured his back. Elston Howard and then Joe Collins succeeded him.

The veteran Spahn was touched for seven hits before he was removed with one out in the sixth. Ernie Johnson finished that inning but was removed for a pinch hitter and Don McMahon pitched the last two innings for the Braves.

Spahn was the victim of all three Yankee runs, although the third was scored on a squeeze play executed by Jerry Coleman and Yogi Berra after he had been removed.

Hank Bauer drove in Coleman with the first Yankee run with a double in the fifth and Andy Carey's single in the sixth scored Howard with the second Yankee tally.

The Braves, who had made only three hits in the first six innings, finally scored off Ford in the seventh. Covington opened with a double into the left field corner. Nippy Jones, batting for Ernie Johnson, the second Milwaukee pitcher, moved Wes to third with an infield out and Schoendienst drove in the run with a ground single through the middle of the diamond.

The second game will be played in Yankee Stadium tomorrow with Bobby Shantz, 11-5 expected to pitch for the Yankees and Lew Burdette, 17-9 for the Braves. Then, after a day off for travel, the series will move to Milwaukee.

The Tar Heels have been getting stellar line play from tackles Leo Russavage, Don Redding, Stuart Pell and Phil Blazer and the development of the center position has also drawn praises.

In addition, Tatum can depend on starting guard Jack Lineberger and opposites Ed Furjanic and Don Stallings to do a creditable job through the middle of the line.

Already a crowd seems to be gathering around Chapel Hill for the big game at Kenan Stadium Saturday and according to the advance ticket sales, this one should draw more than 20,000.

Armed with a crowd of 69,476 packed Yankee Stadium and saw the Yanks hammer Spahn for two clinching runs in the sixth inning.

Bill Skowron, the Yankee clouting first baseman who hadn't played a game since Sept. 13 because of an ailing back, was forced out of action after two innings when he re-injured his back. Elston Howard and then Joe Collins succeeded him.

The veteran Spahn was touched for seven hits before he was removed with one out in the sixth. Ernie Johnson finished that inning but was removed for a pinch hitter and Don McMahon pitched the last two innings for the Braves.

Spahn was the victim of all three Yankee runs, although the third was scored on a squeeze play executed by Jerry Coleman and Yogi Berra after he had been removed.

Hank Bauer drove in Coleman with the first Yankee run with a double in the fifth and Andy Carey's single in the sixth scored Howard with the second Yankee tally.

The Braves, who had made only three hits in the first six innings, finally scored off Ford in the seventh. Covington opened with a double into the left field corner. Nippy Jones, batting for Ernie Johnson, the second Milwaukee pitcher, moved Wes to third with an infield out and Schoendienst drove in the run with a ground single through the middle of the diamond.

The second game will be played in Yankee Stadium tomorrow with Bobby Shantz, 11-5 expected to pitch for the Yankees and Lew Burdette, 17-9 for the Braves. Then, after a day off for travel, the series will move to Milwaukee.

The Tar Heels have been getting stellar line play from tackles Leo Russavage, Don Redding, Stuart Pell and Phil Blazer and the development of the center position has also drawn praises.

In addition, Tatum can depend on starting guard Jack Lineberger and opposites Ed Furjanic and Don Stallings to do a creditable job through the middle of the line.

Already a crowd seems to be gathering around Chapel Hill for the big game at Kenan Stadium Saturday and according to the advance ticket sales, this one should draw more than 20,000.

Armed with a crowd of 69,476 packed Yankee Stadium and saw the Yanks hammer Spahn for two clinching runs in the sixth inning.

Bill Skowron, the Yankee clouting first baseman who hadn't played a game since Sept. 13 because of an ailing back, was forced out of action after two innings when he re-injured his back. Elston Howard and then Joe Collins succeeded him.

The veteran Spahn was touched for seven hits before he was removed with one out in the sixth. Ernie Johnson finished that inning but was removed for a pinch hitter and Don McMahon pitched the last two innings for the Braves.

Spahn was the victim of all three Yankee runs, although the third was scored on a squeeze play executed by Jerry Coleman and Yogi Berra after he had been removed.

Hank Bauer drove in Coleman with the first Yankee run with a double in the fifth and Andy Carey's single in the sixth scored Howard with the second Yankee tally.

DON COKER... Sophomore Of Week

AP Names Don Coker Sophomore Of Week

Raleigh, Oct. 2 (AP)—Sophomore football stars cavorted all over the place last Saturday when Carolina's hitherto hapless Tarheels humbled Clemson's high and mighty Tigers.

Clemson's sophos had been more widely advertised, but when the chips were down they were outshone by Coach Jim Tatum's youngsters.

The standout of the Carolina sops was Don Coker of Reidsville who rates the nod as this week's associated press Sophomore of the week.

Coker, A-1, 196-pounder from Reidsville played a part in three of the Tar Heel scoring drives. He bulled three yards for a first down in a fourth and one situation in the second Carolina touchdown drive.

Other soph standouts in the Clemson Carolina contest included Clemson fullback Dough Cline who gained 16 yards in tries and Carolina's sub quarterback Jack Cummings who passed to end Takey Crist in a play that covered 33 yards to set up the last Tar Heel score.

Direct's Booters

Marvin Allen's Carolina soccer team began its 1957 schedule Monday with a 3-0 win over Roanoke College. The booters, undergoing numerous personnel changes, face a "loaded" schedule this fall.

Baseball statistics table for Milwaukee and New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Baseball statistics table for New York Yankees.

Harrier Should Be Strong; No Dead Weight—Ranson

Loaded is a misleading term for the prospectus of Carolina's defending ACC champion cross country team.

That's why veteran Coach Dale Ranson refers to his crop of distance runners as "long-legged" and "long-winded." "We don't want to give the impression there's any dead weight around," Ranson said.

And the ranson for Ranson's apparent optimism is the return of four veterans from last year's title-winning team, which sprinted to a dozen against one loss, and an impressive group of new sophomores.

Heading the quartet of lettermen is Greensboro's Dave Scurlock, a lanky junior who locked up four University track records in competition last year. Scurlock ground out new school track marks in the 440 and 880 yards runs and as anchor man in the mile and two mile relays.

Stomping into shape with Scurlock for an opening visit to Clemson, Oct. 7, are Captain Everett Whalley, John Reaves, a Charlotte senior and Howard Kahn, all lettermen.

Being counted on heavily in a combined effort to fill the fleet shoes of departed two-time All-American Jim Beatty of Charlotte is Wayne Bishop, a junior from Greenville who sat out last season with a leg injury.

Depth is afforded by two juniors who saw limited action last season. Alex Coffin of Asheville and Doug Henderson of Ellerbe.

The promise shown by a foursome of upcoming sophomores is making Ranson breathe easier.

The new varsity men are Cowles Lipfert of Winston-Salem, Fick Arthur of Greenville, Frank Sirianni of Long Beach, N. J., and Joe Friedberg of Great Neck, N. Y.

If pat records are indicative the Tar Heel harriers will be strong contenders for conference laurels. Since taking the reins as track-cross country mentor in 1927,

Coach Ranson's teams have never finished lower than fourth in cross-country competition. The Tar Heels have won or finished in the runner-up slot in the ACC each year since its creation five years ago.

Over 10,000 cars can be parked in the patrolled parking areas of the N. C. State Fair.

Race To WHIPPLE'S!

State Preps For Clemson

RALEIGH (AP)—Offensive plays and defense maneuvers against the Clemson style attack today occupied the N. C. State College football squad.

The Wolfpack also sharpened its passing game and gave attention to kicking. Tony Guerrieri, Dick Hunter and Ken Trowbridge got off booming punts in the kicking session. Dick Christy worked on kickoffs.

Coach Earle Edwards found his squad in good physical shape. The Wolfpack, fresh from wins in its first two games will travel to Clemson Friday morning for the game on Saturday afternoon. The squad will work out at Clemson lightly Friday afternoon. They will return to Raleigh immediately after the game.

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE: STEREO-REALIST 3-D Camera, case, flash, 2 viewers. Brand new (won in national contest); retail $99.50. Only $70. J. E. Critcher, Chapel Hill, Weekly, Fa. 8461.

FOR SALE—52 NASHUA TRAILER w/bath and 7x13 adjoining room. Utilities connected. 3' by 7' closet. Sloan's Trailer Co., Airport Rd. Oil heat, gas stove.

IF THE FRESHMAN WHO hitched a ride with me to WC last Saturday night will come by 405 Cobb, he can pick up his rain coat.

Gridders Come Out For Drills

The Carolina Tar Heels were given a break by the weatherman today and held their first football practice of the week on a dry field.

The Tar Heels, in making preparations for Saturday's game with highly-ranked Navy, worked primarily on their pass defense and kicking game.

Coach Jim Tatum lauded the play of tackles Stuart Pell, a 230-pound senior. Tatum added that Fred Swearingen, starting guard in last week's game with Clemson, was still working out lightly after suffering a bruised shoulder. Swearingen excelled in the Clemson game after being moved from second unit center position to starting left guard.

In previous practice sessions this week, Tar Heel drills have been hindered by rainy weather.

Program Sellers Meet

A meeting is set this afternoon for the program sellers at the Carolina-Navy game to be played here Saturday. The meeting will be held at four o'clock in room 304 Woolen Gym.

Bocters Embark On Heavy Slate With One Win

By BOB MYERS

To play heads-up soccer is to get started on the right foot.

That's the philosophy of Coach Marvin Allen as the Carolina soccer squad, with one win already in the bag, embarks on a heavy schedule.

Initial efforts of the booters to better a 4-3 won-lost mark of last season were successful. Well-weathered with experience, the spirits of the charges weren't dampened by a muddy field as they blanked Roanoke College, Va., 33-30, in the season's opener.

Number one headache for Coach Allen is finding a goalie to replace capable Chuck Hartman, now an assistant mentor. Three men, Jim Ratty, Micky Zlotnicki and John Holland have the edge on the spot.

Heading the list of returnees is Captain Bill Blair of Morehead City. A right halfback, Blair was the sparkplug in the Roanoke test, though he didn't tally.

The imposing list of seasoned players includes Charles Covell, Ted Smith, who scored twice against Roanoke; Tom Rand, Jim Purks, Ted Youhana, Rick Grausman and Coleman Barks.

The soccer schedule:

Oct. 7-at Lynchburg, 14-Washington and Lee, 21-at Virginia, 25-at Davidson. Nov. 1-Pfeiffer, 8-Maryland, 15-Duke, 20-at N. C. State.

SUPER-WINSTON PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS "IN THE SOUP"

Winston Cigarette advertisement featuring a character and a pack of cigarettes.