hustling forward line hit paydirt

It was a heart-breaking loss for the Tar Heels, who combined in an all-out, team effort which a Carolina squad has played un-

LAST TIMES TODAY

JANE GREER

MAN OF A

THOUSAND FACES

CINEMASCOPE

MARJORE RAMBEAU - JON BACKES - ROSER SMITH A LIMVERSAL INTERNATIONAL PICTURE

STARTS SUNDAY

der Coach Marvin Allen.

Tar Baby Gridders Trounce Virginia Freshmen, 32-6

fast Tar Baby backs.

Carolina's Baby Tar Heels won their third game of the season The rain-soaked corn est was today against the Virginia fresh- played on Navy Field in order men by a score of 32-6 as slash- that Kenan Stadium coul q' remain

By BILL KING

Evenly Matched Teams Should Furnish Good Battle Today's ball game in Kenan Stadium could be one of the most exciting games the Tar Heels have played all season. The bookies give nobody the edge, and that could be just how close it will prove

DTH Sports Editor

Both clubs are below par, physically. However, one should offset the other and set the stage for a real dilly of a battle. The Tar Heels lost last week to Tennessee. The Gamecocks have dropped two in a row, to Clemson and Maryland.

Neither team is in contention for the Orange Bowl bid, but both will be seeking revenge. Actually, they are about even in strength and everything else. Consequently, you can look for a real good battle in Kenan this afternoon.

Tar Heels Hold Big All-Time Edge

The records show that the Tar Heels hold a tremendous 22-6-4 margin in the overall record. The Tar Heels won the first match between the two clubs, 17-0 way back in 1903. Since 1950, the Game- dead on the Tar Baby 32. cocks have beaten Carolina only twice and both of those were shutouts-18-0 in 1953 and 14-0 last season.

Last year the Gamecocks were in the Orange Bowl fight right down to the wire after beating Duke in the season's opener. A loss to Clemson, the eventual representative, did not knock the Gamecocks out of contention, but only the following week, they were upset, 14-7 by N.C. State and that paved the way to Miami for the

The Tar Heel's two youngest players will not start today, but could kick-off on their own 20. and cons. South Carolina, the third see some action. Tackle Don Stallings and halfback Don Coker are went 80 yards for their first and team in the triangular meet, failed only 18. Coker, of course, is injured and might not be ready, but only score of the game, Bill Weitz to score, as the Gamecocks had Stallings is in top shape. The eldest member of the Tar Heels is plunging two yards for the T.D. but three finishers from a starting tackle Stu Pell, who is 25.

Two boys who are destined to get in their licks against South Carolina are halfbacks Wade Smith and Larry Fredrick. Another is converted tackle Ralph Steele from North Wilkesboro.

Large Crowd Watches Cage Squad Scrimmage

Basketball is askance, you might think. But not if you were in make it 25-6, Carolina. After the gular meet season, may have been Woollen Gym Thursday night. A crowd of about 500 went down to kick-off. Roy Wall picked off a watch the nation's number one team hold a regulation scrimmage, and Cavalier aerial on the Virginia the only thing missing was an overtime.

The contest pitted last year's freshman squad (and new the sophomore crop) against the veterans—and what a battle it was. The old hands finally pulled it out, 83-82, but the younger team gave the champs a real battle. Somebody reasoned, and logically, that we now have the number one and two teams in the nation at Chapel

The scrimmage was not without mishap, however. Veteran center gan, a driving rain turned the Joe Quigg sustained a knee injury in the final minutes of the game field into a virtual sea of mud, and had to be shouldered off the court. The extent of the injury is making a good footing nearly imnot known at this writing, pending X-ray examination.

Incidentally, veteran Pete Brennan was the top scorer for the night with 28 points. But sophomore Ray Stanley was close behind with 25. Sophomores Harvey Saylz and Lee Schaffer each gathered 18 points.

We Predict: Duke, Wake, State And Clemson

pigskin predictions.

Big game of the day for an Atlantic Coast Conference team is the thest penetration being a Caro- Scurlock's time was 20:26.6, and Duke-Navy affair up in Baltimore. The bookies have given the Middles lina drive which fell short on the he was trailed by UNC Captain the nod in lieu of their victory over Notre Dame last week, coupled enemy 18. The game ended with Everett Whatley, Wake's Robert with Duke's loss to Georgia Tech. We don't like to dispute their word, the Tar Babies threatening at the Medlin, and Tar Heel soph Cowles but we look for the Blue Devils to get back on the winning track- Virginia 23. let's say about 20-14.

N. C. State's unbeaten and twice tied Wolfpack will clash with William and Mary in Raleigh. The Injuns will be game, but the Pack has all the odds. State 27, William and Mary 7.

Wake Forest seeks its first win in seven games against a tough Virginia Tech autfit in Winston-Salem. The Deacs are overdue. Tech will be tough, but we look for victory number one at Baptist Hol-

The Clemson-Maryland scrap could be one of the best of the season. It should be rated a toss-up as the two teams are very evenly matched. It's murder going either way, but we'll take the Tigers by returned to Carr as soon as possible. 11. Henderson, UNC, 23:00.8; 12. a hair, 21-19.

Virginia is taking the week off.

Battle Of Carolinas

(Continued from page 1) The Tar Heel starting backfield a tremendous passing percentage should be composed of Schuler and, should the Tar Heels ground and Goff at the halfback slots, game be halted, it will be up to Gaca at fullback and Cummings at him to move his charges through quarterback. the air. The Tar Heels are also adept at the run-pass play with Spartans-Irish the halfbacks doing the tossing. Defensively, South Carolina will probably prove as formidable as any opponent this season. The Gamecock front wall averages Dame-Army football rivalry was about 215 pourds and scouting re- allowed to cool off, the Fighting ports have it that the line is tough Irish, shorn of their subway alum-up will probably have Buddy Oklahoma, No. 2, and then Iowa. Payne and Mac Turlington at the No. 5, on the next two Saturdays. Furjanic at the guards and former in a row-a 76,000 sellout in Michend Jim Jones playing his first igan State's double-decked Spartan 205 E. Franklin St. - Chapel Hill - Open Till 10 P.M. game of the season at center. Stadium.

Renew Rivalry

The Associated Press During the 10 years the Notre ni, installed Michigan State as The Tar Heels, at about the their big rival. The 24th meeting same weight, will miss the serv. between the Irish and Michigan ices of Koes and Lineberger tre. States's Spartans today fully demendously, but Tatum has some serves the Big Game designation. reserve strength upon which he For one thing, it marks the becan depend to stop the Gamecocks. ginning of one of the toughest as-The Tar Heel's pass defense is its signments ever handed a college main weapon and the Gamecocks team. After meeting Michigan probably are not planning any. State, curently ranked fourth in thing elaborate, aerial-wise. the nation in the Associated Press The rejuvenated Tar Heel line- poll, Notre Dame will go up against flanks, Stu Pell and Phil Blazer at The game; will be played before tackles. Fred Swearingen and Ed a capacity crowd for the ninth year

ing line play set up long runs by in good shape for today's Carolina-South Carolina battle.

Carolina tok the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards for the first score of the contest. On a second and thirteen situation, Russ Hollers hit Bob Campbell with a pass good for a first down on the Carolina 34. On the very next play, Hollers kept on the option play and raced 66 yards to pay-

HOLLERS AGAIN

Following the ensuing kick-off, Virginia was unable to move the pigskin and punted to the Carolina 16. The Tar Babies moved the ball to their own 42, then Hollers hit Mike Greenday with an aerial good for 58 yards and another

Rice converted to make it 13-0. 'arolina. Virginia, once again unable to go, kicked deep into Tar Buby territory, Roy Wall returnirat to the 35. Then Wall took a pic chout from Hollers, swept around his own left end, and ran all the way to the Cavalier 7 before being pulled down from be-

But an alert Virginia lineman pountaid on a Carolina fumble. giving the Cavaliers a first and ten on their own three. Virginia ran several short yardage plays, picking up two first downs, then pulled a quick-kick which rolled

THIRD TALLY

Then quarterback Henry Clements connected with halfback Joe Olejnick who went all the way for the third Carolina touchdown. The score stood at 19-0 when Virginia finally launched their first offensive thrust. They took the over the Wake Forest Demon Dea-

Frank Riggs returned to the field of only four. Carolina 45 on the kick and the Tar Babys lawnched still another sustained attack with Jim Graham dashing the final 10 yards to 22 and crossed the goal line with paced UNC in each of its five pre-Carolina's final score of the day, vious triumphs, reaggravated an pushing the count to 32-6 in favor old knee injury which sidelined The book all North Carolina is of the Tar Babies.

SEA OF MUD

Just after the second half be-

The time has come once again when we try our hand at weekend forth across the mid-field stripe ham turned in the day's best indi-

FOOTBALL HELMET TAKEN

The football belimet used in the display of homecoming in front of Carr dormitory was taken sometime over the weekend. The girls in Carr had paid a deposit to the Athletic Association for the use of the helmet. They would like to have 22:26; 10. Hunter, UNC, 22:28;

· To whet your appetite we'll have a window-full of rare and amusing old pamphlets.

Because they are fragile, we can't show them on our regu-

· To drive you crazy, we are putting out a table-full of odd volumes and old sets at silly little prices. If there's anything of great value there.

don't tell us about it, it would just make us feel bad.

lar shelves.

Thin Clads Keep Clean Record In Double Win

Superior team balance and depth proved decisive yesterday afternoon as Carolina's undefeated cross-contingent continued its winning ways with a 21-41 victory

Bishop Injured

The win, which closed out the Tar Heel's regular dual and trianan extremely costly one for them, for Junior Wayne Bishop, who had son and failed to finish the race.

Athletic and medical officials had not determined the extent of the injury last night, but they indicated that it might possibly not be so serious as they had first

The sloppy field set the stage Dave Scurlock, Carolina's crac's for many injuries, most of them middle distance runner, was the incurred by the Cavaliers. The first Tar Heel to cross the finish ball just see-sawed back and line, but South Carolina's Bill Latmost of the second half, the fur- vidual effort with a 19:52 clocking. Lippfert.

Summaries:

OLD BOOK WEEK

November 9th Through November 15th

Celebrate in North Carolinas Famous Barn

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

Varsity-Latham, USC, 19:52; 2. Scurlock, UNC, 20:26.6: 3. Whatley, UNC, 20:34; 4. Medlin, WF, 20:46.7; 5. Liipfert, UNC. 21:22; 6. Jordan, WF, 21:26.5; 7. Gore, USC, 21:28; 8. Reaves, UNC, 21:41; 9. Coffin, UNC,

• And - there'll be a special showing of valuable old books that are too big to fit

our shelves. Collector's items.

we're reducing them to sell

· What's more-All the books on our 48c shelf will be offered at four-you heard it-four for a dollar. Here's your chance to stock up enough old novels and detective yarns to last till next Fourth of July,

at a pip-squeek expenditure!

By ERWIN FULLER

nomination for

ALL-AMERICA!

-With two years eligibility remaining THE KILLER"

bet. His coach, former

Maryland assistant

seems & terrific all-star

Warren Giese, says Kompana assets and every bit of defensive desire of the

Te savors the competitive best linemen

we ever had at Maryland."

has " all the physical

Frazier, WF, 23:09.8; 13. Jones, WF, 23:35.6; 14. Laws, WF, 23:57; 15. Donovan, USC, 24:00. Frosh-1. Miller, UNC, 13:24; 2. Squires, WF, 13:30: 3. Sweet, UNC, 13:31.5; 4. Chappell, UNC, 13:51.5; 5. Bloodsworth, WF 14:00; 6. Boles, UNC, 14:23.5; 7. Costello, UNC, 14:26.5; 8. Copeland, UNC, 15:40; 9. White, WF, 15:50; 10. Hauser, WF, 16:07.4; 11. Dawson, WF, 16:21.4; 12. Bobbitt, WF, 16:22.2; 13. Wynne, WF, 16:37.3; 14. McDonald, UNC.

Browse Through

The Old Man and the Boy

him for his entire sophomore sea- cheering for. Robert Ruark's mas-

The Intimate Bookshop 205 East Franklin Street

Terps Rally In Second Half To Hand Booters 4-2 Defeat

second half to defeat a spirited, the game. upset-minded Carolina team here yesterday, 4-2.

Until a penalty kick was called against Carolina, the Tar Heels as he scored to put the Tar Heels the Maryland goal to put the Tar almost had an upset in their grasp, ahead, 1-0, early in the first quar- Heels in the lead again, 2-1. leading 2-1 early in the third ter after taking a beautiful pass

But Maryland's inside left, Ter- son. ry Charchalis, blasted the ball past goalie Jim Rattay to tie the score, 2-2. Maryland's second goal seemed to take some the starch out of the Tar Heels, who had previously outplayed the Terps.

Controlled Play

The Maryland eleven then proceeded to control most of the play, keeping the ball in Carolina territory for a major part of fourth quarter.

Center forward Asad Shurky dealt the Tar Heels the decisive blow several minutes later when he drilled the ball into the Carolina goal to give Maryland a 3-2 lead. Midway in the fourth quarter, right wing Tom Sinclair scored to give Maryland its twogoal margin.

The 4-2 score, however, is de-denied either during the first ceiving as the fired-up Tar Heels quarter and soon tied the game Maryland's powerful soccer had the Maryland squad on the up on a goal by inside right team scored three goals in the defensive for a greater part of Chico Liacuris. In the third quarter, Carolina's

Barks Scores

Coleman Barks gave the Caro- again when left wing Rick Grauslina side something to yell about man booted a beautiful shot into from center forward Mike Thomp-

But Maryland was not to be marked one of the best games

TODAY

FILMED ON THE SPOT - IN THE DENS AND BACK

MIGHTIEST EVER MADE! CARY GRANT

FRANK SIMTRA

in STANLEY KRAMER'S

"THE PRIDE and THE PASSION' TECHNICOLOR' - VISTAVISIO Released three United Artists

RAND PENING

LATE SHOW TONIGHT - SUN. - MON. - TUE.

Carolina

STOP OVER:

ALLEYS OF THE CITY OF THE THOUSAND PASSIONS!

John P. Marquand's great story of postwar Japan!

Open 5 P.M. - 1 A.M. - 7 Days a Week

Phone 7-1451 for Pickup & Delivery

Mama Mia! A Pizzeria HERE IN CHAPEL HILL . . .

. . . the best in real Italian Pizza made right here on the spot. Served with beverages and ice cream. Hi-Fi, candlelight, cozy atmosphere. And parking aplenty. Or, if you prefer, pizzas hot from the oven can be picked up or delivered to your door on

Mozzarella Cheese Sausage

Pepperoni Anchovy Olive

Around the World Combinations

How to Find Us . . .

CHAPEL HILL W MOSE MARY ST W. FRANKLIN ST CARRBORO

