

Covering The University Campus

GERMAN TABLE

The German Table luncheon will be held today at 1 p. m., in the upstairs dining room of Lenoir Hall. All German speakers have been invited.

YM-YWCA

The YM-YWCA Spring Conference Planning Committee will hold its first meeting today at 4:30 p. m. in the Library Assembly Room.

All students who are interested in taking part in the planning of the spring conference have been urged to attend.

Dorm Closings Schedule Given

Miss Katherine Carmichael, Dean of Women, announced today the schedule for closing and opening dates for women's residences during the Thanksgiving holidays. Dormitories will officially close at noon on Thursday, November 28, and re-open on Friday, November 29, at 6 p. m.

Miss Carmichael said the dorms will officially re-open Friday, November 29, to accommodate coeds returning for Saturday's game.

Any woman student not planning on leaving Chapel Hill during the holidays should get in touch with her dormitory hostess or sorority housemother immediately, so that arrangements can be made for her to remain in her residence. Closing hours during the five-day holiday are as follows: November 27-29, 11 p. m.; November 30, 1 a. m.; and December 1, midnight.

The Intimate Bookshop
Chapel Hill

Today's lecture will be given at 8 p. m. in the Philosophy Seminar Room of the West Duke Building on the East Duke campus. The topic of the lecture will be "Logicism As A Philosophy Of Mathematics."

Friday's lecture, "Philosophic Method," will be given at 8 p. m. in Room 105, Caldwell Hall on the UNC campus.

Art League Picks Officers

The new University Art League held its first regularly scheduled meeting Monday night. At the meeting, the League formed a constitution, elected officers and made plans for the balance of the year.

The newly elected officers are as follows: Duane Lowder, President; Marguerite Kirschner, vice-president; Mary Louise Davis, secretary; and William Cunningham, treasurer. Professor Kenneth Ness, acting chairman of the Art Dept., is faculty adviser for the group.

The League made plans for the coming year which include one monthly lecture on art of related subjects, open to the public; round table discussions with faculty moderators from various departments; art movies; and social activities.

At this charter meeting, many new members joined the league. Any other students interested in art have been invited to join.

Stocking Fund Donors Wanted

An estimated 1,600 persons in Orange County are up for "adoption" during the Christmas season.

The Christmas for these 1,600 will be handled again this year by the Empty Stocking Campaign of the Junior Service League of Chapel Hill.

During the campaign, which officially begins Monday, members of the Junior Service League will collect food, toys and money.

Anyone so desiring may adopt a person or a whole family and provide certain needs for the Christmas of that person or family.

Donations to the Empty Stocking Campaign should be sent to the Junior Service League of Chapel Hill.

DUKathon Race Set Saturday

The Fourth Annual DUKathon, a foot race sponsored by Delta Upsilon Fraternity, will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

The crowning of a DUKathon Queen will take place immediately before the race begins.

The DUKathon, which covers 13.6 miles, begins at the Carolina Theater in Chapel Hill and ends at the Durham Post Office. About 75 runners have entered the race so far.

Runners will follow Franklin St. and the Durham Highway into the city limits of Durham, and will then follow the main streets to Five Points in the middle of town. The post office is three blocks from Five Points.

Delta Upsilon will award special trophies to first, second and third place winners. All others who finish the race will receive survivor's medals.

Godwin Added To Symposium

Sonny Halford announced yesterday the appointment of Herman Godwin as executive secretary of the Carolina Symposium. Godwin replaces Jerry Openheimer, who will become vice-chairman of the symposium. Godwin will assist the chairman of the symposium.

"I look forward to working with the new executive secretary during the coming months," Halford said.

In other symposium action, Jimmy Wallace was appointed advisor to the program committee. Announcing this appointment, Program Committee Chairman Jerry Openheimer said: "I am indeed delighted to have a man of Mr. Wallace's caliber and integrity join us in this capacity."

well done. We are looking forward to the spring elections."

Harry Braxton, UP Chairman, said, "The University Party is extremely pleased with the outcome of yesterday's elections. We feel that by returning a UP majority to the legislature, the students have affirmed their faith in the policies of the University Party. We are, furthermore, quite pleased at the outcome of the class officer elections. We would like to thank those students who supported our candidates and we feel assured that these officers will serve in good faith and to the best interest of their constituents."
