UNC Favored To Retain ACC Cross-Country Title Monday

By RUSTY HAMMOND

Carolina's undefeated varsity cross-country team tomorrow enters its most important meet of the season when it journeys to Winston-Salem for the ACC Championships.

A total of 64 athletes are entered for the big race and it will get underway at 2:30 p.m. The course distance is four miles.

The Tar Heels swept the same event last year with Carolina's great Jim Beatty capturing the individual honors. Beatty won the meet for the last three years. This year Beatty is gone, but while nobody may fill his shoes for along time, there are several very fine runners representing different schools from around the conference.

Among the best are Dale Tuler and Gaylord Tinsley of Clemson, Cary Weisiger of Duke, Burr Grim and Charles Fleming from Maryland, Billy Incoe and Joe Creazzo of N. C. State, Paul Farrier and David Bloor from Virginia, Bill Latham and Winfrey Gore of South Carolina, and Bob Medlin and Sam Jordan from Wake Forest.

UNC Represented
The Tar Heels will be very well represented in the meet by Wayne

Bishop, Dave Scurlock, Captain Ev Whatley, Cowles Liipfert, and John Reaves. Bishop, cream of the crop, has won every meet in which he has been entered this year with the single exception of the triangle meet with Tennessee and South Carolina when he was injured during the race.

Bishop's stiffest competition will come from Grim, Latham, Medlin and Weisiger. Of these boys, Bishop has beaten all but Grim. The meet with Maryland was cancelled because of the flu.

Grim Tough
Grim has been beaten only once, by Latham, but in his last outing he set a track record at Navy. Though Bishop has been winning consistently, Dave Scurlock must not be overlooked. He won the triangle meet after Bishop was injured.

Duke Tops Tigers, 7-6 To Clinch Orange Bid

DURHAM, Nov. 16 — Halfback Wray Carlton scored on a 35-yard pass and kicked the all-important extra point to provide the winning margin as Duke edged Clemson, 7-6, today in a thriller to virtually clinch a trip to the Orange Bowl.

A crowd of 22,000 saw the once-beaten Blue Devils score shortly before

Sooners Upset 7-0 By Irish

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 16 — Oklahoma's all-time record of 47 straight football victories was shattered today by an underdog Notre Dame team that marched 80-yards on the ground in the closing minutes for the all-important touchdown and a 7-0 triumph.

Oklahoma, ranked No. 2 in the nation and an 18-point favorite, couldn't move against the rock-wall Notre Dame line and the Sooners saw another of its national records broken—scoring in 123 consecutive games.

The defeat was only the 9th for Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson since he became head coach at Oklahoma in 1947 and virtually ended any chance for the Sooners getting a third straight national championship.

Although the partisan, sellout crowd of 62,000 came out for a Roman holiday, they were stunned into silence as the Sooners were unable to pull their usual last-quarter winning touchdowns—a Wilkinson team trademark.

As the game ended when Oklahoma's desperation passing drive was cutoff by an intercepted aerial, the crowd rose as one and suddenly gave the Notre Dame team a rousing cheer.

for the half when quarterback Bob Brodhead whipped a perfect pass to Carlton for a touchdown from the Clemson 35.

Clemson, harrassed by fumbles, drove five times past the Duke 30, once to the 1, before finally scoring late in the fourth quarter. Fullback Bob Spooner crashed over from the 2 for the score, but quarterback Harvey White's placement attempt was wide to the right.

Clemson had driven to the Duke 28, 17, 5, 1, and 7, but three of the drives were halted by costly fumbles.

The Blue Devils, who now have a 6-1-2 season record, can win the Atlantic Coast Conference title and the Jan. 1 trip to Miami by defeating rival North Carolina next Saturday. If Duke should lose, and North Carolina State defeats South Carolina next Saturday, State would win the championship but the Wolfpack is ineligible to play in a bowl game because of an NCAA suspension.

State Beats VPI, 12-0

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 16 — Wide awake North Carolina State parlayed Virginia Tech mistakes and a 58-yard touchdown run by Dick Hunter into a 12-0 football victory over the frustrated Techmen here today.

It was the sixth victory of the season against only one defeat and two ties for the Wolfpack. State now has shut out five of its eight opponents.

Virginia Tech, plagued with fumbles, pass interceptions and untimely penalties as it has been all season, six times threatened the State goal. The Techmen advanced to the State one, the 33, the 15 and the 17 in the first half and got to the 24 and the 4 after intermission. But each time State managed to stave off the threat.

Myers Park Wins Cross Country Meet

Myers Park High School of Charlotte captured the state high school cross country meet here yesterday with a low score of 25 points, edging out East Mecklenburg High, also of Charlotte, and Durham High.

Held on the Finley Golf Course, the meet ended with East Mecklenburg's 31 points in second place and Durham High taking third place with 140 points.

A total of eight teams participated in the 2 2/10 mile run with 49 contestants running.

The top five were (1) David Gilmore of Myers Park, 11:35.8; (2) Charles Powell of Myers Park, 11:45; (3) Jerry Fincher of East Mecklenburg, 12:07; (4) Bill Carr of Myers Park; (5) Steve Henderson of East Mecklenburg.
