

Glee Club, Choral Club Plan Concert Tonight

The annual Christmas Concert, given jointly by the UNC Men's Glee Club and the Chapel Hill Choral Club, will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in Hill Hall. Dr. Joel Carter, director of the Men's Glee Club, will lead the two groups in the program.

The concert will consist of two sections, the first by the Choral Club and the second by the Glee Club. Later the audience will join in on traditional carols.

The Choral Club will begin the program with Camille Saint-Saens' "Christmas Oratorio." Choral Club soloists on this selection will be: sopranos, Gladys Teague, Barbara Peacock, and Quillian White; mezzo-sopranos, Dolores Edwards and Inge Rader; altos, Marilyn Zschau and Helen Jones; tenors, James King and Gene Strasser; basses, Roy Sommerfeld, Everett Hall, and Edgar vom Lehn. Accompanying the two groups will be Suzanne

Tri Delts Introduce Pledges

By MARY ALYS VOORHEES

Twirling skirts, long dangling earrings and music in a yuletide mood set the tempo Friday night in the Carolina Inn Ballroom for the annual Tri Delt Pledge Dance.

Amid Christmas decorations, the couples danced about the floor to the music of the Duke Ambassadors from Durham.

However, the highlight of the evening came at 10 p. m. when the 1957 Pledge Class and their escorts were introduced. As their names were announced by Ray Jefferies, master of ceremonies, each pledge and her date stepped into the spotlight and joined the other pledges to form a triangle or the Greek letter, Delta.

Dressed in billowing white gowns, the pledges carried a bouquet of yellow carnations tied with baby blue satin ribbon and encircled with a silver triangle.

After each pledge had been introduced and the triangle had been formed, the girls joined together to sing one of the sorority's songs.

Officers of the class are Lillian Shannonhouse of Charlotte, president; Ann Bonner of High Point, vice president; Suzanne Ross of Charlotte, secretary; Bea Newman of Birmingham, Ala., treasurer; Barry Bowen of Gastonia, project chairman and Susan Purser of Charlotte, chaplain.

Immediately after the ceremony, with background music by the Ambassadors, a no-break dance was held in honor of the pledges and their dates.

Intermission followed shortly thereafter, at which time refreshments were served from a table in one end of the ballroom. Arrangement of red carnations, flanked by five-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers, decorated the table, which was overlaid with a white linen cloth.

A huge red ring was suspended from the center of the ballroom and filled with mistletoe, and Christmas wreaths were placed at intervals throughout the ballroom.

Alpha Delta Pi

The girls at the ADPI House had a supper party last Thursday night with the Pikas.

Friday afternoon they joined the Phi Kapp's from Duke in giving a party for some children in Durham.

Yesterday they and the Chi Phi's gave a party for orphans and then enjoyed a party and dinner afterwards.

Tonight the ADPI's are having their annual Pledge and Big Sister-Little Sister party.

This sorority also has made big plans for the weekend following the Christmas holidays, Jan. 3 and 4. They are having their initiation weekend. Activities will include a dance on Friday night at the Chapel Hill Country Club with the Embers providing the band music. Also on Saturday, the big event will be a party at the Washington-Duke Hotel in Durham with the Sigma Nu's.

Pi Beta Phi

Tuesday night the Pi Phi's started off an enjoyable week with a covered dish party for the pledges. Sunday night they celebrated with a Christmas party and decorated their tree. Last night they had their Big Sister-Little sister party and went caroling afterwards. Tonight the Pi Phi's will join the Sigma Nu's in entertaining orphan children at a party.

Chi Omega

The Chi O's enjoyed a cocktail and dinner party with the Dukes Thursday night. Last night the sorority and the Phi Gams gave a party for orphans. Tonight the Chi Omega girls are having a Christmas party.

Kappa Delta

Last Thursday the KD's and the Delta Sigs gave a party for the children at the Methodist Orphanage.

Friday the girls held their Pledge party with the Sigma Nu's.

Tonight the KD's and Chi Psi's are having a party.
