professors, and he had to confess that he had to pad his slight five-foot-six-inch frame to look a little more like St. Nick.

When I asked him how he liked his job, he beamed and said, "They're always so glad to see me and wish me a Merry Christmas. When they're leaving, they always say that they hope they'll see me again next year."

As long as Matthew Mason keeps playing his dual role of Santa Claus and Dr. Reet the "good times" will be sure to roll on the UNC campus.

KDs, Delta Sig Entertain Orphans

The KDs and the Delta Sigs traveled to Oxford Thursday afternoon to play Santa to a group of orphans.

The party took place at the Oxford Orphanage Home and began as Santa made an early arrival, laughing heartily and distributing numerous presents to the children. The KDs and Delta Sigs assisted the children in assembling the toys and playing games.

The party was topped off with ice cream and cookies for everyone. The project was headed by Edith MacKinnon, president of the KDs and Jim High, Delta Sig president.

TEP Officers

The TEPs have elected new officers to serve until April. They include: Chancellor, Art Sobel of Neponsit, N. Y.; Vice Chancellor, Al Finkelstein of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bursar, Michael Falk of Woodmere, N. Y.; and Scribe, James Pittman of Williamston.

Mclver Buffet Supper

Approximately 100 Mclver coeds and their dates celebrated the Christmas season at an informal buffet supper held at the dorm Sunday afternoon. The setting was in keeping with the season as an elaborate tree and Christmas music livened the spirits of everyone.

Mrs. Florence Cook, last year's house mother, served as an official hostess along with Mrs. Charles Seward, this year's house mother, and Caroline Warren, house president.

Men in the know know true from false

College grads over forty suffer from a decline in their earning power.

TRUE FALSE

False. In fact the older they get the more money they earn. Statistics show that the average man's earning power declines rapidly after he reaches 45. The college grad's income is still going sharply up at this point.

College educated men tend to be bachelors to a greater degree than average American males.

TRUE FALSE

False. Recent studies show that Mr. College Grad is no longer avoiding the marriage license bureau the way he used to. In fact statistics now indicate that having a college degree actually lessens the probability of a man leading the-bachelor life.

Jockey brand is America's best known brand of men's underwear.

TRUE FALSE

True. Independent surveys prove that Jockey is not only the best known underwear in the U.S. but also in 98 countries around the world. Just shows how universally men value comfort and fit.

VARLEY'S

The Marlboro Man

"He gets a lot to like—filter, flavor, flip-top box." The works.
 A filter that means business. An easy draw that's all flavor. And the flip-top box that ends crushed cigarettes.
