Mira Winking Among Devils And Demons

Morehead Planetarium's presentation, "Devils, Demons and Stars," is also featuring its latest technical advance. The variable intensity of light from the star, Mira, can now be seen in the planetarium's skies.

A new projector was made in the planetarium's shop especially for showing Mira. Heretofore, Mira had been shown at a fixed intensity.

Celestial Whims

The title of the program refers to the ancient concept of the celestial bodies. Certain occurrences both good and evil were attributed to the whims of these bodies conceived as devils, demons and gods.

"In describing the characteristics of the stars, an attempt is made to dispell any superstitions and to fortify the modern concept by presentation of factual information," Jenzano said.

Some of the questions about stars will be answered such as whether a star is larger because it appears brighter and whether stars move.

Stars Colors

Also to be discussed are why stars vary in color, why do stars can be seen with the naked eye.

The importance of the sun as another star will also be discussed.

The present program will run continuously through March 10. Programs begin each week day at 8:30 p. m.; on Saturdays at 11 a. m., 3p. m. and 8:30 p. m. and on Sundays, at 3 p. m., 4 p.m. and 8:30 p.m.

since a three-stage program had been planned to enlarge the existing facilities to meet the needs of the growing congregation.

Temporary Facilities

Meanwhile temporary worship facilities for the congregation of 500 and the over 1,000 Presbyterian students at the University are to be provided in University buildings. The Rev. Mr. Barron said that Sunday services would be held at 11 a. m. in Carroll Hall, with Sunday School in the Hillel House for classes that have been meeting in the church itself.

Final drawings for the projected church expansion project were to be received from the architect and bids on the work sought within a week. This was to include a new wing for a student center, and a complete renovation with additions to the Sunday School area. Expected cost was $350,000.

A Synod-wide campaign for this and other college campus projects is being carried on now by the Campus Christian Life Committee. The local congregation has contributed almost $110,000 toward the construction.

Faulty Steeple

The flames brought to nought an $8,000 job of exterior renovations to the church. Nearly complete were extensive repairs to the eaves, roof, and front porch. It was discovered recently that the steeple was in a faulty condition structurally, and so the church bell had not been rung in the last few weeks.

Thursday's fire followed by exactly one week another Orange County blaze which caused an estimated quarter million dollars damage—the latter being the one that leveled the Central High School for Negroes in Hillsboro last Friday morning. Exactly five weeks previously to last night the major fires of an even dozen arson attempts began on the University campus, with the $50,000 Swain Hall blaze and several smaller fires.

Guilty

GREENSBORO, Feb. 21 (AP)—Junius Irving Scales, former head of the Communist party in the Carolinas, was convicted by a U. S. District Court jury here today of violating the Smith Act.

Scales was sentenced by Judge Albert V. Bryan to six years in the federal penitentiary.

Mayo To Fill Top WUNC Student Post

Jack Mayo, a sophomore from Raleigh, has been appointed assistant station manager of Radio Station WUNC, succeeding Pat Mulvihill who graduated last month.

Don Knoepfer, associate professor of radio-television and manager of WUNC, in announcing the appointment Thursday, added that Mayo is the youngest man to hold the top student position at the radio operation.

Before becoming assistant station manager Mayo held the post of program manager. His past experience includes position with WPTF and WRAL in Raleigh. He joined the staff of WUNC in 1956 as a continuity writer.

Succeeding Mayo as program manager of the University FM station is Bob Hodges.

Miss Lee Arbogast is filling the position of operations manager vacated by Hodges.

Sonny Evans To Attend Meet

Student Body President Sonny Evans will attend a student government conference today at North Carolina College and will speak on "Developing Techniques in Student Government Administration."

He and Bob Young, President of the UNC Student Government 1956-57, will be discussion leaders at a leadership training conference at Duke University.

Al Lowenstein, former President of the US National Student Association and a UNC graduate (1950), will deliver the keynote address of this meeting which is being sponsored by the Duke Women's Student Government Association.

ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil

Laces and leathers and dozens of things

Ski boots lace easier and faster, stay comfortably tight. They do so because the rawhide leather has been made more pliant with a special treatment perfected by Esso Research. The leather in the skier's boots, the wool in his socks—even the lacquer on his skis—were also made better with the help of other products derived from oil. ESSO RESEARCH works wonders with oil.
