

WEATHER

Considerable cloudiness today and tomorrow.

The Daily Tar Heel

ELECTIONS BOARD

It has erred in serving students, editor says on page 2.

VOL. LXV NO. 128

Offices in Graham Memorial

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1958

Complete Wire Service

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Books Found At Lenoir Hall

Books and notebooks left by students in Lenoir Hall may be picked up now, according to John Winkler, student manager.

The books will be on a desk in the office on the right side of the south entrance to Lenoir Hall.

The names that were written in some of the books include: John Rowland, Don Douglas, Tom Guernant, Margaret Starnes, Page Bernstein, Grayson H. Walker, Hobart Steele, James L. Phillips, Rick Barrett, John F. Bost, Joe Clemmens, Ernest Webster, J. C. Hoerston, Bill Bailey, Rudolf Zarzal, Joe Denfell, Phil Edwards, George Manasse, George W. Sutton, Townsends, A. R. White and Elenor Baker.

Other books without any names have been found and may be claimed. In addition, library books will be left in the office for several days so that student may pick them up and straighten out any fees with the library as soon as possible.

IFC Meeting

The Inter-Fraternity Council in a meeting Monday decided not to endorse a candidate for editor of The Daily Tar Heel and to leave the matter to the discretion of each fraternity.

All five editorial candidates spoke before the meeting, expressing their views on the student newspaper post.

In other action the IFC voted a contribution of $100 to the Campus Chest in a move to bring the drive up to its fund goal.

NROTC Leaves Today For Fete

For the third consecutive year the Naval ROTC unit at Carolina will be represented in the Azalea Festival at Wilmington. The NROTC precision drill team, drum and bugle corps, and color guard will travel to Wilmington, this weekend to participate in the Azalea Festival parade.

The group will leave Chapel Hill at noon today and travel to Camp Lejeune, where it will be billeted with the Eighth Regiment, Second Marine Division. The Eighth Regiment is presently under the command of Col. R. C. Burns, USMC, former professor of naval science at UNC.

Lt. (jg) James G. Abert, USN, is officer-in-charge of the drill team and drum and bugle corps, assisted by Midshipman Capt. Maurice Glatzer and Midshipman Lt. Cmdr. Henry J. Sommer.

Midshipman Lt. Donald H. Miller, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will command the drill team and the drum and bugle corps will be led by Midshipman William A. McGee of Charleston, S. C.

Hallford Gives Interpretation About Funds

Sonny Hallford, Attorney-General, has issued a statement in regard to the funds received by campus organizations.

Hallford has been requested to give an interpretation of campus organizations who receive the majority of their funds from other sources, exclusive of the funds received from student government.

Hallford said, "The organizations who receive the majority to their funds from other sources shall be allowed to retain these funds which are not received from student government."

In other words, these funds will not revert back to the general surplus. It is suggested that these funds not be distinguished between by the Student Audit Board. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the Student Audit Board to determine which organizations shall be allowed to do this."

SENIOR CADET READY FOR TAKEOFF—Cadet Major Bob Barber of Durham, is demonstrating to fellow Air Force ROTC cadets how he manipulated his plane on his first solo flight here last week. Barber was the second cadet to solo, the first being Cadet Captain Gerry Mayo who is shown in the background.

NAN SCHEAFFER:

Busy Days, Fun Ahead For Carolina's Azalea

By DOREEN GREENFIELD

Nan Scheaffer will be a very busy young lady this weekend amid all the parties and special events in Wilmington.

She is the lucky coed who left yesterday with her escort, Buddy Baercke, to represent Carolina at the 11th annual Azalea Festival.

The lovely senior from Tallahassee, Fla., started her exciting weekend last night with a dinner, fireworks and street dance, followed by a party for the queen and her court at the ballroom of the Cape Fear Hotel.

Friday the queen, movie star Esther Williams, and her court will attend the dedication of a bridge at Greenfield Lake. After an art show and a rehearsal at Airlie Plantation, the court, consisting of Nan and nine other lovely girls representing leading colleges in the state, will go to the king's coronation by motorcade.

The king is to be Scott Brady, movie and television star.

The big day is Saturday when the famous parade of pretty girls amid flowered floats will be a spectacular sight for thousands of people present.

At 1 p.m. the girls will attend the City-County Luncheon at the Surf Club, following which there will be a coronation practice.

The climax of the weekend will be Saturday evening when Miss Williams is crowned queen of the Festival. Her court has been given evening dresses in the range of azalea colors, white, pink, watermelon and lavender.

Theatre Conference Slate

FRIDAY, MARCH 28

2:30 p.m. in the Playmakers Theatre: Wilton Mason, UNC Music Dept., will deliver an address entitled "Music in the Theatre."
6 p.m. in the South Dining Room of Lenoir Hall: Paul Green, North Carolina playwright, will speak on "The Theatre of the people." Tickets: $2.

8:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall: "Out of the South," a production of four one act plays by Paul Green, including "Supper for the Dead," presented by the University of Louisville; "Quare Medicine," by the University of Alabama; "Hymn to the Rising Sun," by the Carolina Playmakers; and "The Man Who Died at Twelve O'clock," by Florida A. and M. University. Tickets $1.50.

SATURDAY, MARCH 29

11 a.m. in the Playmakers Theatre: Religious Dimensions of Theatre," an address by Tom F. Driver, Union Theological Seminary.
2 p.m. in the Forest Theatre: Auditions for Outdoor dramas.
2 p.m. in the Playmakers Theatre: Auditions for The Barter Theatre and The Vagabond Players.
2 p.m. in Memorial Hall: Dance tryouts for outdoor plays.
8:30 p.m. in Memorial Hall: "Out of the South," four one act plays by Paul Green including "The Last of the Lowries," presented by Catawba College; "Unto Such Glory," by the University of Virginia; "Fixin's," by The Little Theatre of Chattanooga; and "The No 'Count Boy," by Tennessee A. and I. University. Tickets $1.50.

Senior Class Nominees For SP List Platform

A platform calling for "Ingenuity in the senior class" was released yesterday by Tom Long, senior presidential candidate for the Student Party.

"The senior class is the one class which not only has the right and means to act, but also has the obligation to climax four year of college with positive actions," said Long. Among these are Barefoot Day and graduation functions. The SP candidates Jim Pittman, vice-president, Sue Camubell, secretary; Betty Kay Johnson, social chairman and Tom Long, president, feel that these functions may be best at

(See CLASS, Page 3)

Student Council Upholds Board Decision; John Brooks Ruled Ineligible For Race

Ralph Cummings Moves Into Political Spotlight

By DOUG EISELE

Ralph Cummings definitely moved into the Carolina political spotlight early Thursday morning following a ruling by Student Council that SP vice presidential nominee John Brooks is ineligible to run for office.

The Council, meeting in a special session that lasted early into the morning Thursday, upheld a former decision by the Elections Board which keeps Brooks out of the vice presidential race.

With that ruling came assurance from the Student Party that Cummings, chosen by the party's advisory board after Brooks first had been ruled ineligible, definitely will run on the SP ticket with Don Furtado, presidential candidate.

Council Chairman Mac Patton said his body based the ineligibility ruling on grounds that (1) the Elections Board did not overstep its constitutional power in handing down the initial judgment and (2) the law used for that decision was not in conflict with the constitution.

"Any other interpretation would have to follow changes in the elections law as it is now written," Patton said. "As a judicial body, the Student Council felt it had no other alternative than to abide by the law, created by legislative action, which we did not bind in violation of the constitution."

It was on grounds of unconstitutionality of the election laws, coupled with a claim of unequal consideration, by the Selection Board that Brooks appealed the Elections Board decision of Monday to the Student Council on Wednesday.

Following the Student Council's ruling, Brooks made a statement thanking those who worked on his much-publicized case and called for legislative action "to correct the flaws in the elections laws and the judicial system . . ."

His full statement follows: "I am not a candidate for the vice presidency of the student body. I encourage everyone to consider the candidates now in the race and to vote for the man who is best qualified to hold the position."

"I extend my sincere appreciation to Bob Furtado and the Elections Board, Mac Patton and the Student Council, and Ray Long and other members of my counsel for their time and energy in helping student government solve this unique problem."

"It is the hope of all of us that the Student Legislature will take steps to correct the flaws in the election laws and the judicial system a normal pace of activity is resumed."

Matrix Society Elects Officers

New officers of the Matrix Society, honorary journalistic sorority, were named Wednesday afternoon in Bynum Hall.

Jackie Haithecock is president of the group. Others who will head the organization for the spring semester are Joan Brock, vice president; Ruth Whitley, recording secretary; Gail Godwin, corresponding secretary; Ann Frye, treasurer; and Mary Moore Mason, keeper of the archives.

Only recently the group held its initiation and pledge ceremonies at the home of Mrs. Ross Scroggs, at which time senior coed Mary Moore Mason was initiated and four junior coeds were pledged.

The pledges are Joan Brock, Ann Frye, Gail Godwin and Ruth Whitley.

UNC Solons Compromise On Clauses

By DAVE JONES

A compromise between two divergent groups was effected last night in the Student Legislature. Representative Roger Foushee (SP) moved that his bill on the NSA Basic Policy Declaration on Academic Freedom be reconsidered. It was. Then he moved the Racial clause amendment written by the Ways and Means committee last week be deleted.

The ways and means Amendment read: "However recognition (of student organizations) may not be denied because of racial clauses in national charters."

After it was made clear to the body that there was a substitute amendment ready for presentation by Representative Charlie Gray (UP) Foushee's motion passed.

Gray then offered the following substitute amendment: "However the Student Legislature of the University of North Carolina would possibly like to see the removal of Discriminatory Clauses. We do not recommend the denial of recognition to organizations whose national charters include such clauses."

Representative Connie Bernstein voiced the only opposition to the compromise amendment. Her opposition was based primarily on the existence of the word "Possibly" in the first sentence.

The amendment and the bill were passed giving them the force of a resolution.

Further business for the evening included the unanimous passage of a resolution by Representative Erwin Fuller (SP), praising the work done by Symposium faculty advisor William Geer, Chairman Sonny Hallford, and the staff.

A bill by Student Party Floor Leader Pat Adams to provide for the purchase of an accounting machine for the student activities fund office was passed after Adams explained the financial provisions of the bill to the body, (the office will be loaned 3,087.50 dollars over a period of ten years.)

Speaker Don Furtado turned the last regular session of the legislature over to the Speaker Pro Tempore Leo Wardrup, in accordance with established custom. Wardrup handled all business conducted including the swearing in of a new member, Dorothy Doug Kellam.

Appointments approved by the body included that of Mary Anne Hoffer to be editor of the Yack for the remainder of the school year.

There will be one more meeting of the 24th session of the Student Legislature.

YWCA OFFICERS—New officers for the YWCA for 1958-59 are from left to right: Sophie Martin, membership chairman; Betty Kay Johnson, program chairman; Bea Newman, treasurer, Anne Selph, secretary; Dee Dee DeVere, president. Nancy Grubb, vice-president, was absent from the picture. (Buddy Spoon Photo)

Bayliff Is Veep

IDC Elects Rudy Edwards President

By STAN BLACK

Rudy Edwards, a junior from Rutherfordton, was elected president of the Interdormitory Council in its meeting Wednesday night. Edwards has been on the IDC for two years and has served as social chairman this last semester.

He declared in a speech before the election his intentions of working closely with student government to eliminate injustices such as the current plan to pay for new dormitories through self-liquidating bonds supported by increased room rents.

Edwards further wishes to revise the Interdormitory Court, which he cites as in "bad need of reorganization." He would like to change the impression that most dorm men have of the IDC as a policeman. Edwards feels that if the IDC were to develop itself as a social coordinator for all the dormitories it could serve the students better.

Doug Bayliff was elected vice president. Foy Bradshaw, the new secretary, and Paul Woodard the new treasurer in other elections of IDC officers. Bayliff, a junior from Graham, has previously been so chairman of the social committee and is at present the president of Mangum Dormitory.

Bradshaw is a sophomore in the pharmacy school from Rocky Mount. He has been a member of the IDC for one year. Paul Woodard is a junior journalism major from Bayboro and has served as president of Lewis Dormitory this year.

Court Officers

Elections were also held for officers of the Interdormitory Court. Otto Funderburk, sophomore from Spray and president of Manley Dormitory, was elected chairman of the Court. Walt Poole, a sophomore from Kinston, is the new clerk of the Interdormitory Court.

In other action Wednesday night it was announced that the IDC banquet at which the presentation of the "best dorm" awards will be made will be held April 16 at Brady's. Also sometime in May the IDC and GMAB will jointly sponsor a dance on the tennis courts for the dormitories. Dates will come from WC for the dance.

Scotch-taped sign on Coke machine in Battle Dorn, with negligible arrow which can be set to point to either of two captions: "In order" or "Out of Order."

Coed when asked how she did on that day's quizzes: "Oh, okay. I guess. But that doesn't disturb me. What does is that I flunked crossword today. I just couldn't get the puzzle worked."

Editor of a coed campus publication studying layouts in Playboy and Gent magazines to get ideas.

GMAB Officers To Be Selected

Applications for officers, committee chairmen and committee members for the Graham Memorial Activities Board for 1958-59 are available at the information desk at Graham Memorial.

The offices to be filled on GMAB for this coming year are: president, vice-president and secretary. The committee chairmen to be selected are: chairmen of the calendar, current affairs, dance, drama, films, music, office, polls, publicity, receptions and decorations, special events, Sound and Fury and tournaments committees. There will also be about 200 committee members appointed to these committees, according to GMAB President Benny Thomas.

In regard to the applications, Benny Thomas has invited anyone who has questions about the positions open and filling out applications to come by his office any afternoon.

GM SLATE

Womens Orientation Interviews, 2-6 p. m., Woodhouse Conference Room.

Lost Book Drive Ends Here Today

The Student Committee drive to get books which are illegally held has netted 17 books so far.

The drive will end today in the late afternoon. Any book which has been illegally held can be brought to the Student Government Office on the second floor of Graham Memorial and no questions will be asked.

The library loses around 200 volumes during the course of the year. This drive is an effort to get some of those books back in circulation.

The student committee will return the books to the library.

Tri Delt Scholarship Competition To Begin

The 1958 scholarship competition of Delta Delta Delta Sorority begins today. All women students at UNC are eligible to apply for the award. Application blanks may be obtained from the Dean of Women's Office.

The sorority's scholarship program is an international service, irrespective of fraternity affiliation. The deadline for applications will be Thursday, April 17. Judges will be announced later.

Delta Delta Delta awarded three scholarships last year totaling $500.

Premiership Places Nikita Khrushchev In Stalin-Like Position

MOSCOW, March 27 (AP)—Communist boss Nikita S. Khrushchev took over today as premier of the Soviet Union, replacing Nikolai A. Bulganin. The unexpected switch placed Khrushchev in a position comparable to Stalin.

Diplomats in the galleries gasped with astonishment when aged Marshal Klementi Voroshilov announced to an eagerly expectant Supreme Soviet (parliament) that the Communist chief would be the next chairman of the Council of Ministers. But the 1,378 deputies at the joint session of the two houses burst into a storm of applause. Khrushchev took it modestly. Contrary to the normal practice for a Soviet leader, he did not join in the applause for himself, but stood by with bowed head until it subsided. Then he clenched his hands above his head in a salute to the deputies. Bulganin's resignation had been expected. As the joint session opened, he surrendered the post he had held since February, 1955, when Georgi M. Malenkov lost it. As premier, Khrushchev would sit across the table from President Eisenhower, should there be agreement on a summit conference. The possibility of such a meeting, therefore, might have been a factor in Khrushchev's decision to assume the premiership. Some sort of Supreme Soviet action also had been expected on foreign policy, dealing with the question of a ban on thermonuclear weapons, and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had been scheduled to make a statement on it. But the joint session which made Khrushchev head of the Soviet Union in name as well as in fact ended after three hours and 28 minutes with no further action. It seemed likely Bulganin, now 63, would be given a job in Khrushchev's cabinet possibly that of deputy premier. A veteran Communist leader, Bulganin held many important posts in his long career