Old Timers On Hand
Virginia Cavaliers On Hand For Track Meet With Tar Heels Today

By DAVE WIBLE

It's reunion day for the Tar Heel track teams of 1910-14 and the main event on the card for the old timers is to be the Carolina-Virginia track meet which will be held on Fetzer Field starting at 3 o'clock.

The Carolina coach of those by-gone years, Nat Cartmell, will be the center of the homecoming festivities. Coach Cartmell will have an opportunity to see eleven of his charges that he coached during his five years at Carolina. This morning, Coach Cartmell will meet with Chancellor Aycock, and have luncheon at the Carolina Inn. After the track meet, reunion will shift to a cocktail party at the home of Collier Cobb. Tonight, the group will meet in a general assembly of the UNC Alumni Association in the Carolina Inn ballroom at 6:30.

The former Tar Heels will see the newest Carolina track team on a comeback trial. The Heels suffered a sound 90-41 licking Saturday to the Maryland Terps bringing their record to 1-2. Before Maryland, they had defeated South Carolina but their opener was lost to Clemson.

Carolina will be favored today. Virginia has lost to South Carolina, and Maryland this year. The Maryland defeat was even more one-sided than Carolina's loss.

The Cavaliers are strongest in the pole vault department where they have three men who can clear over 13 feet. Pat Whitaker tops the list with Henry Daven Port and Clarence Roberts close behind. Whitaker is also an outstanding high hurdler. More Cavaliers to watch are Sonny Randle in the dashes, and Jack Cravins in the quarter mile.

Carolina's middle distance star Dave Scurlock will go for points in the 440 and 880 today, and also the mile relay. Wayne Bishop, will double up on the mile and 2 mile along with Cowles Liefpelt.

The meet will get under way at 3:00 with the field events. At 3:30 the track event will start with the running at mile.

Blue Imps Win Track Meet

The Duke yearling track squad took 11 first places to defeat the Carolina Tar Babies 86-45 in a meet here yesterday.

The loss brought the Tar Babies record to 1-2. The only first for Carolina were Tom White in the 100, Benjy Seagle in the 440, Bobby Foxworth in the 880, and Bob Eubanks in the broad jump.

The meet came to a fine finish when Duke won the mile re-relay team by inches. The two teams stayed within five yards of each other the entire race. Duke Jack Merriman, and Carolina's Benjy Seagle pounded down the final straight-a-way side by side. Merriman lunged for the line and won by a nose.

The Tar Babies will meet Duke again a week from Saturday in Durham.

Frosh Beat Biddies

Carolina's freshman baseball squad kept its winning streak going when it defeated the South Carolina Biddies 5-0 here yesterday.

Carolina's Wayne Allen was given credit for the win. The Tar Babies scored four runs in the first and one in the second. Pitchers, Phil Rigdon came on in the fifth, and John Strott in the seventh to relieve Allen.

The Tar Babies will travel to Duke today. They meet State of the road tomorrow, and Wilmington Junior College there Saturday.
