

WEATHER

Sunny and mild; high temperatures in middle 70s; Thursday generally fair and warmer.

The Daily Tar Heel

SALARIES

The state legislature ought to take cognizance of the need. See page 2.

VOL. LXV NO. 163

Offices in Graham Memorial

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1958

Complete Wire Service

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Troops Dispatched After Nixon Mobbed

WASHINGTON. — Four companies of U. S. Airborne troops and Marines are in their way to the Caribbean area as a result of the mob action against Vice President Nixon in Venezuela Tuesday.

VICE PRESIDENT NIXON attacked in Caracas

They are being sent, a Defense Department spokesman said, to "cooperate with the Venezuelan government if requested."

A spokesman said the troops, numbering about 1,000 were being sent to "certain United States bases in the Caribbean area." But he would not say what bases.

Among the American bases close to Venezuela are those in Puerto Rico and Trinidad.

Earlier Tuesday president Eisenhower demanded, and promptly received, assurance that Venezuela will take adequate measures to protect Nixon.

The State Department said it has been advised the Venezuelan government moved in infantrymen and tanks to keep order.

"The situation looks much better, and Mr. Nixon's staff in Caracas assures us that both the Vice President and his security aides are satisfied the situation is under control," a State Department official said.

Secretary of State Dulles, speaking on behalf of the president, hinted Nixon would cut short his good will visit if Venezuelan authorities failed to act promptly. The visit normally would end Wednesday afternoon.

"If there is any lack of will or capacity (to protect) we want to know that quickly," Dulles told Venezuela's Charge d'Affaires at an emergency conference at the State Department.

Both Dulles and Tarchetti indicated they believed communists instigated the anti-Nixon rioting in a move to inflame U. S. relations with Latin America.

Scholastic Group Taps 13 Thursday

Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity, will initiate 31 UNC students Thursday.

The initiation will be at 5:30 p.m. in Di Hall. Following the initiation at Di Hall, a banquet will be held in Lenoir Hall.

Membership in Phi Beta Kappa is based on a quality point average. Juniors, after completion of 78 hours with a 2.6 quality point average, are eligible. Transfer students who have spent two years at another school are eligible for membership after completion of 45 hours of work with a 2.5 quality point average.

Transfers who spend one year elsewhere are eligible on completion of 78 hours of work here with a 2.4 quality point average. Students who have spent four years at UNC must have a 2.3 quality point average and 108 hours of work completed.

Miss Crater, Hallford Take Sullivan Prize

Julia Ann Crater and Sonny Hallford have been named recipients of the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award.

This award, established in 1928, is bestowed annually upon the man and woman of the graduating class who have best demonstrated an attitude of unselfish interest in the welfare of their fellow students.

The terms of the award emphasize that it shall not be based on scholastic, athletic or other collegiate attainments.

Hallford and Miss Crater were chosen for the award on April 28. The award presentation will be made later in the year. Both winners will receive an engraved certificate and a plaque.

All Candidates For Degrees Get Briefing

A general meeting of all degree candidates will be held in Memorial Hall Thursday at 4:15 p.m. for briefing on commencement exercises.

Dr. J. C. Lyons, faculty commencement marshal, said it is "very important that all planning to get degrees at the June commencement be there to get instructions."

This meeting will include details on forming the commencement procession and where and how to go about getting academic costumes and commencement program.

TOP FRATERNITY AWARD GOES TO PHI DELTS
Chancellor Emeritus House presents House Trophy to Don Millen

Phi Delts Win Award As Leading Fraternity

The R. B. House Outstanding Fraternity Award was presented at the IDC meeting Monday night to Don Millen, Phi Delta Theta fraternity, by Chancellor Emeritus R. B. House.

The award is determined annually by a board of two judges, Sam Magill and Ray Jefferies, of the Dean of the Student Affairs office, assisted this year by Tucker Yates, president of the Interfraternity Council, on the basis of a point system.

Phi Delta Theta earned the trophy, mainly on its accumulation of 28 out of a possible 30 points for scholarship. The pledge class also won the Outstanding Pledge Class Award.

Phi Delta's held many positions on campus and participated in the IDC and intramurals.

Total possible points are 22 1/2 for campus representation, both major positions and percentage participation in extracurricular activities outside the fraternity; 17 1/2 for IFC participation; 15 for intramurals participation; 10 for social activities and five for house appearance.

The house appearance points are determined by the sorority house mothers. There is a possible total of 100 points toward the award.

The award was named after House for his service to fraternities since he has been here and will be presented by him as long as he lives.

The trophy itself will be retired after eight years, going to the house that has won it the most times. At that time another trophy will be started.

Library Club Initiates 45 New Members

Forty-five students and alumni of the UNC School of Library Science have been initiated into the newly-formed Epsilon chapter of Beta Phi Mu, international library science honor society.

Epsilon is the fifth chartered by Beta Phi Mu, which was founded 10 years ago at the University of Illinois. Other chapters are in California, Florida and England.

Fourteen of the UNC initiates are currently working for a master's degree in library science: Aylene E. Cooke, Mary Frances Morris and Frances V. Thackston, Durham; Mildred H. Farrow, Guilford College; Bobbie Newman Redding, Greensboro; Adriana P. Orr and Audrey B. Zablocki, Chapel Hill; Walter Gary, Wilson; and Philip D. Shore, Pilot Mountain.

Other student initiates are Jeanne P. Helstrom, Salem, Va.; Evelyn M. Kocher, Radford, Va.; Elaine Lansdell, Elberton, N. J.; Kathleen H. Chespe, Greensboro, Ala.; and Dewey F. Pruett Jr., Birmingham, Ala.

The 31 new alumni members include Margaret Allman, Edith E. Averitt, Jane C. Bahnsen, Olin V. Cook, Josephine B. Floyd, Jean Freeman, Eleanor S. Godfrey, Charles C. Hopkins, William H. Johnson, Pattie B. McIntyre, Robert A. Miller, Gay G. Moore, Katherine B. Mouzon, Helen M. Peacock, Virginia Y. Wells, Tera B. White, and Lena Mae Williams, all of Chapel Hill.

Austrian Art On Exhibition Through May

An exhibition of drawings by Paul Flora, the celebrated Austrian artist, has gone on display in the Morehead Planetarium's South Art Gallery here. The exhibition will close on May 31.

Planetarium Manager A. F. Jenzano said that "we feel very fortunate in securing the exhibition of this quite prominent artist." His first American showing was in New York in March of this year.

A native Austrian, Flora lives in Innsbruck, Tyrol. He has had one-man shows in Vienna and Munich, is represented in a number of galleries and has captured prizes and award in European countries.

Four books of his drawings have been published, and he has illustrated a number of books published both in America and abroad.

Alumni Assn. Member Drive Closes Today

An increasing number of solicitors engaged in enrolling seniors in the General Alumni Assn. are reporting 100 per cent response among the soon-to-be alumni for whom they have personal cards, according to Frank Black and Jerry Oppenheimer, co-chairmen of the Senior Class Alumni Committee.

Today is the deadline for the more than 50 committee members to report results of their solicitation to the Alumni Office, headquarters of the Alumni Association in the Carolina Inn.

In commenting on the favorable response so far to the enrollment of the graduating class, co-chairmen Black and Oppenheimer pointed out that there will be no other on-campus drive this year to enroll seniors in the Association.

Seniors who will not graduate until August or later are urged by the committee to join now and take advantage of reduced membership dues of $1 to which they are eligible during their first year as alumni.

It was emphasized that to become an Association member at this time implies no obligation on the senior's part to continue his membership beyond the first year.

All first-year alumni who join the Association at the special rate receive all benefits of regular membership, including a full year's subscription to the alumni magazine.

Presidential Veto Of Radio Club Bill Upheld By Solons

The veto of the UNC Amateur Radio Club appropriation bill by Student Body President Don Furtado was upheld by the Student Legislature last night.

In submitting the veto, Furtado gave the following reasons for his action:

"I do not feel that the members of the UNCARC have adequately explored the possibility of receiving initial financial support from other areas."

"If we provide the $2,000 which has been requested, we will have entered our General Surplus by the sum of $600. It is very unusual and generally undesirable to enter the General Surplus. The General Surplus must be maintained as an emergency cushion."

"The Radio Club" has yet to request bids for the equipment desired."

"The operation of the UNCARC, if equipment is furnished by student government, should be under the control and scope of some programming arm of student government such as GMAB."

The Student Body President concluded his message by saying: "There is no doubt in my mind that the Radio Club as proposed is a worthy organization and could benefit some students of the University. It must be remembered, however, that the funds of the students are expendable and not unlimited and that all new financial demands must be weighed carefully, remembering our obligations to the students and those organizations that we have previously committed ourselves to support."

The appointments of Summer School Student Body President Curtis Gans and Secretary-Treasurer Everett James were approved by the body last night.

Other Summer School appointments not previously announced, and approved include: Jim Rose as chairman of the Men's Honor Council, and Phil Blazer, Bob Burroughs, Fred Smith, Kay Herring, Burt Davis, Bob Shepherd, council members; Gordon Street, Jean Southerland, Jane Duncan, Joel Fleishman, John Minter, Don Dotson, Betty Hobson Student Government Board;

Nancy Turner, chairman, and Barbara Miles, Libby Johnson, Betsy May, Nancy Grubb, Molly Adams, Beverly Heaton, Women's Honor Council Members; Hadyn Davis, Angus Duff, Dillon Wooten, Don Millen, Mike Smith, Dance Committee;

Delegates to the NSA: Don Furtado, Paddy Wall, Curtis Gans, Ed Levy, Frank Elkins, John Brooks; Alternates, Ralph Cummings, Charlie Gray, Diana Johnson, Lillian Shannonhouse, Gary Greer, Roger Foushee; Second Alternates, Joel Fleishman, Hugh Patterson, Lin Butler, Jim Smalley; NSA Committee, Bill White, Ann Smith, Gary Greer, Lin Butler, Roger Foushee, Jim Smalley, Jeanie Paden, Pete Liman, Ann Harvey, Sue Campbell, David Evans, Pringle Pipkin.

Jim Tatum's Contract Is Extended To 1963

The Executive Committee of the UNC Board of Trustees met in Raleigh Monday in the Governor's office to consider appointments and promotions submitted for approval by the three divisions of the Consolidated University.

The Board approved the extension of Head Football Coach James Moore Tatum's contract for two additional years, from Jan. 1, 1961, to Jan. 1, 1963.

Appointments approved for the UNC were Karl Ludwig Selig, Associate Professor in the Dept. of Romance Languages; George Brown Tyndall, Associate Professor in the Dept. of History; Loren G. MacKinney, Assistant Professor in the Dept. of Pediatrics.

Pauline Wayne McCaskill, Assistant Professor in the School of Nursing; Lucia Cameron Morgan, Assistant in the Dept. of English; Benjamin Eagles Fountain Jr., Assistant Professor in the School of Education; Paul S. Hubbard, Jr., Assistant Professor in the Dept. of Physics; Robert Arthur Rupen, Associate Professor in the Dept. of Political Science.

(See FACULTY, Page 3)

Y Officers Are Installed At Banquet

Fifty-six students were installed into the YM-YWCA in its annual banquet and installation ceremonies held in Lenoir Hall's South room Monday night.

Highlighting the ceremonies was an address by Dean of Student Affairs Fred H. Weaver.

Weaver reviewed the year with comments on the highlights of the joint organization.

His topic concerned the history of the University and its "founding in the 1800's of an organization such as the YMCA and the manner in which that organization has come to permeate every phase of UNC life . . . and how such a gathering of dedicated Christians has reflected a student harmony founded on student responsibility, which is now and always, will be the best manner in which to secure a mature mind and an educated one."

Following a welcome by Belle Corry, outgoing president of the YMCA Stewart Colson presented reflections of the years' achievements and highlights. New YMCA president Dee Dee Devere introduced the speaker, Dean Weaver.

Miss Ann Morgan and Kelly Wallace then introduced the new YM-YWCA executive committee officers.

They are, with YMCA officers and YWCA officers appearing in pairs, presidents, Bill Sugg and DeeDee Devere; vice-presidents, (See Y-OFFICERS, Page 3)

Sigma Xi Sets Annual Affair Here Friday

The UNC chapter of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, will hold its annual banquet and initiation at 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 16, in south dining room of Lenoir Hall on the UNC campus.

Following the banquet the presidential address of Sigma Xi will be delivered by Harold Hotelling, professor of statistics and associate director of the Institute of Statistics at UNC.

According to Walter H. Wheeler, associate professor of geology and secretary of the local chapter, Dr. Hotelling's speech to be given at 8 o'clock Friday night in room 207 Venable Hall will be open to the public. Dr. Hotelling will discuss "The Statistical Method and the Philosophy of Science."

Sigma Xi was founded at Cornell University in 1886 for the purpose of encouraging original investigation in science; the UNC chapter was established in 1920. Membership is contingent upon evidence of excellence in research in one of the sciences. Advanced undergraduates and graduates who show promise in scientific research may be elected to associate membership, to be promoted to full membership later if deemed worthy.

First Wesley Lectures To Feature Paul Tillich

The Wesley Foundation has announced that Dr. Paul Tillich of Harvard University will deliver the first Wesley Lectures at Chapel Hill October 3-4.

Tillich is a clergyman of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. A native of Germany, Tillich served for four years as chaplain to the German Army in World War I. He served as professor at the universities of Berlin, Dresden, Leipzig, Frankfurt and Halle.

As a leader in the Christian Socialist Party, he was forced by Hitler to leave his teaching position in Berlin.

He found refuge at Union Theological Seminary in New York and conducted seminars in philosophy at Columbia University.

In 1955 he was named one of Harvard's six distinguished service professorships.

The Wesley lectures will be delivered in Hill Hall at 8 p.m. in October. Tillich's first lecture will be entitled, "The Present Encounter of the World Religions." The second one will be, "The Present

Encounter of Religious and Secular Faiths."

The lectures are being sponsored by the Wesley Foundation, the Methodist Church's foundation for Christian education on state and private university campuses.

Foundation officials have expressed the hope that these lectures will be permanently established in Chapel Hill for the purpose of encouraging a continuing dialogue between culture and the Christian faith. The lectures are non-sectarian in purpose.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary yesterday included:

Misses Jo Maria Britton, Carolyn Escott, Patricia Gregory and Betty Winslow and David Birn, Paul Clark, Wallace Graham, Richard Hart, Lewis Hawley, Ted Huffstetter, George Jackson, Richard Mason, Eugene McDonald, Thomas McGee, and David Parker.

DR. PAUL TILlich

First Wesley lecturer next fall