Carolina Defense Potent; Murals Today Football Back In Football

By RUSTY HAMMOND "A good defense is the best of fense." Somebody said it a long time ago, and he was right.

Although the Tar Heels certainly haven't been scoring many points, and the coaches bemoan this fact, neither have the opponents.

Statistics-wise, Carolina leads the ACC in both passing defense and total defense.

Another item that has led the Tar Heels to two straight victories—Carolina has put the foot back into football.

The leading kicker is Don Coker, who has really been getting the ball down the field.

Jack Cummings has also done his share in this department, although his average doesn't bear it out.

At 3:45 Manly vs. Avery, Grimes vs. Old East, Teague vs. Graham, Winston vs. Mangum, Everett vs. Parker.

At 4:45 Ruffin vs. Stacy, Joyner vs. NROTC, Alexander vs. Aycock, Peacocks vs. Law Sch-1, Dent Sch vs. Med Sch.

Swimming Winners The winners in the fall swimming contest are as follows: in the team events Phi Delt was first with 59 points.

In the individual events the winners were: in the 25 yard butterfly, Williams from ATO; 50 yd. backstroke, Dunlap from Phi Delt; 25 yd. freestyle, Williams from ATO; 50 yd. breast stroke, Briggs from Chi Phi; 50 yd. free style, Rogers from Phi Delt; diving.

Obnoxious Cards

This business of magnolias and honey is all right for your grandma, but when moderns send greetings, a touch of pepper is more au fait.

Like, maybe, the cards on our rack. We've scoured the market for the meanest, funniest, most obnoxious cards we could find.

So if you're a '59 model, and you want to have fun, toddle down to the undersigned emporium, and send a card.

But not to your poor timid old Aunt Tillie!

Coker Leading ACC Kicker

Don Coker of Carolina, the Atlantic Coast Conference's leading punter, and Ulmo (Sonny) Randle of Virginia, No. 1 pass-receiver, are off to starts which could lead to conference records.

Coker, junior fullback, has averaged 46.5 yards on 14 punts in four games, compared to the conference punting record of 43.9 yards set by Carolina's Jack Lackey in 1953.
