... coed matches, will it go in?

DKE, Spencer Dorm Team Up To Win 12th Co-Rec Carnival

DKE, led by Harley Suford; and Spencer Dorm, led by Sally McCrary, teamed up to win the 12th annual Co-Rec Carnival. They compiled 15 total points to win over Pi Kap No. 1 and Alpha Gam No. 6 who had a total of 13 points. In third place was Chi Phi No. 2 and Kappa Delta No. 2 with eleven points.

In the first event of the night Pi Kappa Phi No. 1 and Alpha Gam No. 2 won the relay event.

The other events of the carnival were sporting events and carnival games. These games took place after the presentation of the trophies to the winners of the relay races. There were fourteen different events being played on the court of Woollen Gym at the same time.

The winners of these events were: in the badminton event Dave Floyd, Phi Del, and Anke Vandersleen, Alpha Gamma.

In table tennis the winners were Frissy Wyrick, Spencer, and Bud Ellerbe, DKE. The winners of the carnival games were Sarah Duggett, Alderman, and Mark Wilson, PIKA.

The winners of the other ball and box hockey were Jean McCristo, Spencer, and John McMichael, Chi Psi. In the volleyball event the winners were Julia Stokes, Carr, and Fred Harris, Pi Kap Phi.

THE DRESS PARADE

In all my years of observing coed fashions—and I have been arrested many times—I have never seen such verve, such dash, such je ne sais quel as can be found in this year's styles!

I am particularly enchanted by the new "baby waist" dresses which so many of you girls are favoring this season. How demure you all look in your "baby waists"! How sweet! How innocent! How colorful when your housemother lifts you up and purg you after dinner!

Another trend that leaves me limp with rapture is the oversized handbag. Goodbye to dinky little purses that hold nothing at all! Hurray for today's sensibly sized bag with plenty of room for your makeup, your pens and pencils, your shelter half, your Slinky toy, your MG, and your Marlboros.

Did I say Marlboros? Certainly I said Marlboros. What girl can consider herself in the van, in the swim, and in the know, if she doesn't smoke Marlboros? What man, for that matter. Do you want a filter that is truly new, genuinely advanced, but at the same time, does not rob you of the full flavor of first-rate tobacco? Then get Marlboro. Also get matches because the pleasure you derive from a Marlboro is necessarily limited if unlit.

To return to coed fashions, let us now discuss footwear. The popular flat shoe was introduced several years ago when it became obvious that girls were growing taller than boys. For a while the flat shoes kept the sexes in a state of uneasy balance, but today they will no longer serve. Now, even in flats, girls are towering over their dates, for the feminine growth rate has continued to rise with disturbing speed. In fact, it is now thought possible that we will see fifteen-foot girls in our lifetime.

But science is working on the problem, and I feel sure American know-how will find an answer. Meanwhile, a temporary measure is available—the reverse wedgie.

The reverse wedgie is simply a wedgie turned around. This tilts a girl backward at a 45 degree angle and cuts as much as three feet off her height. It is, of course, impossible to walk in this position unless you have support, so your date will have to keep his arm around your waist at all times. This will tire him out in fairly short order; therefore you must constantly give him encouragement. Keep looking up at him and batting your lashes and repeating in awed tones, "How strong you are, Shorty!"

"I am Uncas, the last of the Mohicans!"

Next we turn to hair styling. The hair-do this year is definitely the cloche-coif. One sees very few crew cuts or Irene Castle bobs, and the new Mohican cut seems not to have caught on at all. In fact, I saw only one girl with a Mohican—Rhodella H. Sigafos, a sophomore of Bennington. Her classmates laughed and laughed at her, but it was Rhodella who had the last laugh, for one night a dark, handsome stranger leaped from behind a birch and linked his arm in Rhodella's and said, "I am Uncas, the last of the Mohicans—but I need not be the last, dear lady, if you will but be my wife." Today they are happily married and run a candied-apple stand near Maceo, Ga., and have three little Mohicans named Patti, Maxine, and Laverne.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Uncas and to all of you who have discovered the pleasures of Marlboro and Marlboro's sister cigarette, non-filter Philip Morris, both made by the sponsors of this column.
