

Booters Beat Roanoke 3-1 For Fifth Win Of Year

By JIM PARKS

A magnificent team effort by the Carolina varsity soccer squad netted the Tar Heels a thrilling 3-1 victory over Roanoke College here yesterday.

Playing by far their best game of the season, the Tar Heels came from behind to score three goals in the second half to defeat Roanoke.

Coleman Barks was the scoring ace of the game with two goals. His first, coming in the third quarter, tied the score at 1-1. Then in the fourth quarter, he put the Tar Heels ahead to stay with his second goal.

Carolina outplayed Roanoke the entire game and controlled play almost entirely except for several minutes in the second quarter.

Goalie Staves Off Heels

Putting on uncanny display of passing ability, Carolina pounded away at the Roanoke goal dauntlessly, but were held off again by the Roanoke's amazing acrobatic goalie, Harry Clegg.

The first half of the game was almost entirely a contest between Carolina's smooth passing offensive unit and the Roanoke goalie.

Roanoke only rarely got an offensive threat moving. Their only goal came in the second quarter when a foul was called on a Carolina defenseman within the penalty area and Roanoke's Don Kerr blasted the ball past the goalie Marvin Blount on a penalty kick.

Kerr's goal gave Roanoke a 1-0 lead which the Tar Heels could not overcome despite several near misses before the half ended.

Second Half Different

The second half was a different story, however, as Coach Marvin Allen's squad, displaying excellent teamwork, kept the pressure on Roanoke and were rewarded with Barks' goal. Barks boost, made from about 20 yards out, was made after a fine setup by halfback Hugh Goodman.

Barks' second goal came after a charge led by left wing Rick Grausman, who played his best game of the year for Carolina, put the game on ice for Carolina's third goal, after a pass from Joe Perkins.

The Tar Heels next opponent will be N.C. State College, whom the team will face here Friday afternoon.

Food for thought is the only kind that hasn't been affected by the high cost of living.

Harriers Meet Tough Duke

By BING SOMERS

The Carolina cross country team, fresh from a 20-40 weekend pasting of South Carolina, take on rough, tough, undefeated Duke today at Durham in the final regular season meet of the year.

The Blue Devils, coached by Al Buehler and led by Dave Pitcothly, Jerry Nourse, and Cary Weisinger (4:10 miler), have very possibly the best cross country team that West Durham has ever seen.

Their greatest triumph of a thus far unmarred record took place when they slipped by mighty Maryland at College Park in a dual meet, a feat generally considered attainable only by the gods. And so far, the Terrapins have been the only team to give Duke even the slightest semblance of a fight.

Leading the Tar Heels, who are finally beginning to come around after suffering from early season doldrums, will be Junior Cowles Lipfert, who, along with captain Dave Scurluck, has been taking turns in playing number one man since Wayne Bishop reinjured his knee. Lipfert ran his best race against the Gamecocks and finished second.

Following these two will be dogged Howard Kahn, Sonney Sweet, Alex Coffin, and Bing Somers.

The undefeated and unheralded freshman team, led by Rett Everett, Dave Pelez, and Dennis Rash, will meet the Blue Imps immediately following the varsity race at 4:15.

Carson Pleased With Frosh

By ELLIOTT COOPER

Tar Baby Coach Bud Carson currently finds himself in a strange but pleasant dilemma. He is celebrating the 20-0 upset victory which his team achieved over Maryland last Friday while trying to keep his players from becoming overconfident about Saturday's game in Raleigh with the NoRth Carolina State frosh.

"I'm afraid there might be a letdown," Carson said yesterday, so he refrained from heaping praise on his team for its play against the Terrapins for that very reason.

"WORK ON DEFENSE"

The young freshman coach was obviously elated over winning last Friday, however he did take time out to pick holes in certain aspects of his team's performance. He stated that the Tar Babies' offense came closer to perfection than the defense. "We're going to have to work on defense this week," he said.

Carson explained that his pleasure over the offensive performance came from the fact that his squad moved the ball so well against a solid defense. Although

Rod & Gun Tomorrow

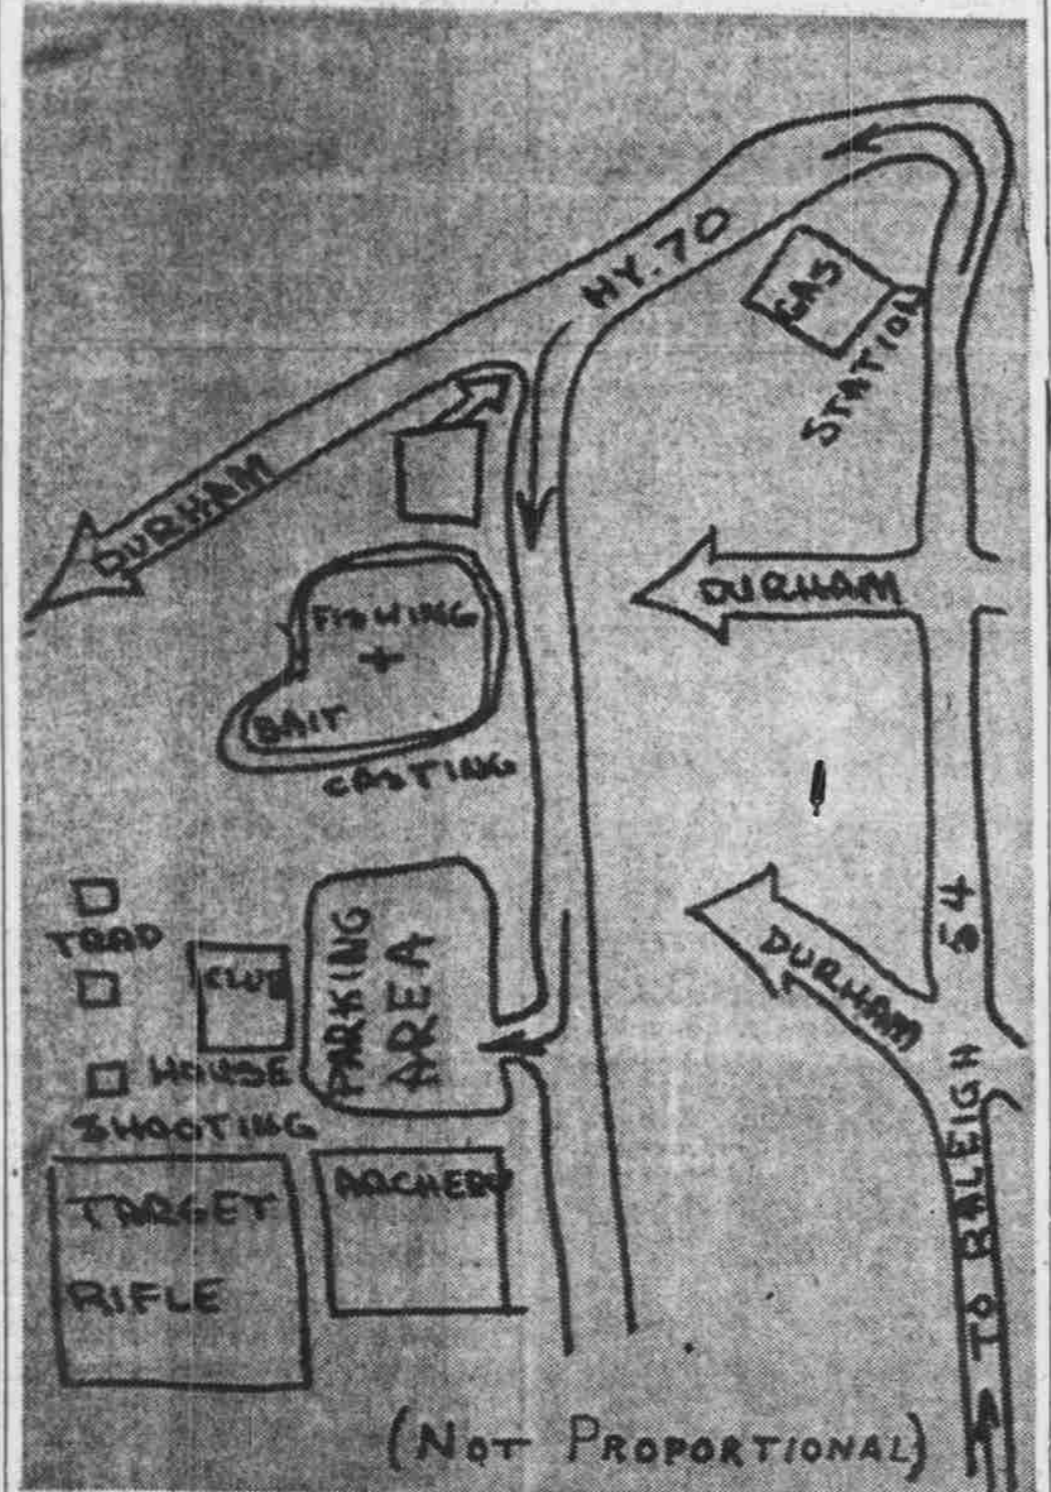

Charlie Harville, announcer and sportscaster for WFMY-TV in Greensboro, will show film of the UNC Rod and Gun Meet. He will present the film on his program, "The Outdoorsman." The program may be viewed on Thursdays from 7 to 7:15 p.m.

This, the fourth annual meeting of the Rod and Gun event, will be held Thursday, Nov. 6, from 2 to 4 p.m. The meet will take at the Durham Wildlife Club Area.

There will be four events in the meet: Archery, bait-casting, target rifle and trap shooting. There will also be fishing for bass and bream, and a trophy will be given to the person catching the largest one in each class. Trophies will be given to the individual winners of each event and a plaque will be awarded the winning team.

The meet will be on a co-rec basis. Women may enter either on an individual or a team basis. All students may enter the meet except those in the NROTC rifle team. A team will be composed of four persons. All entries may be picked up at the Intramural Office. The Rod and Gun Meet is co-sponsored by the newly formed UNC Outing Club and the Intramural Office.

Any persons not able to find a ride to the area of the meet may get one at the Intramural Office.
