

Church Yard Goes Parisian

By PETER NESS

Shades of Paris! Anyone passing through the side lawn of the University Methodist Church is convinced of a Left Bank atmosphere prevailing there.

Paintings are strung out along the sidewalk and sculpture and pottery rest on the grass beside them.

The scene is the Second Annual Sidewalk Art Show, which began Friday and continues through 6 p.m. today.

The art work, most of which is for sale, gives the sidewalk and surrounding area a colorful appearance, not unlike the display of wares by the artist in the streets of Paris.

Berets and straw hats haven't been omitted from Chapel Hill by spectators who probably are more "characters" than the artists of the works they've been viewing.

The various pieces of artwork are priced from $5 up to more than $100.

Kappa Delta Sorority To Present Jane Gray Award

Kappa Delta Sorority will present the Jane Gray Award to an outstanding junior girl this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the main lounge of Graham Memorial.

The annual award, given in memory of the late Mrs. Gordon Gray, wife of a former president of the Consolidated University, is based on character, scholarship and leadership.

Insurance Award

A prize which goes each year to the outstanding senior studying at the University for a career in insurance work has been awarded to George Daniel Carter of Mayodan.

The W. T. Beaty Insurance Award is a cash prize of $75, given by W. T. Beaty of Raleigh, general agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.

A scholarship committee of members of the School of Business Administration faculty chose Carter for the honor. Scholarship is the main basis for selection, but some consideration is given to participation in other university activities.

Massey Stars In Peace Film On WUNC-TV

"Does Disarmament Make Sense," starring Raymond Massey, will be a film presentation by WUNC-TV Monday at 9:15 p.m.

This is the second in the series "Eight Steps to Peace," produced by the Pierce Butler Jr., Foundation for Education in World Law, which WUNC-TV is currently showing. The first, "World Law," starred the late Tyrone Power. Future programs in the series are star Henry Fonda, Robert Ryan, Vanessa Brown and Vincent Price.

Massey discusses the problem of disarmament and how it can be enforced only if the United Nations is given the power to require all nations to eliminate their weapons of aggression.

It is a plea to strengthen the United Nations so that it may become the instrument capable of enforcing peace on earth. It describes how disarmament, enforced by the United Nations would help eliminate the fear which divides the nations today, and how it would relieve the world of the backbreaking costs of arms.

Massey eloquently points out how every arms race in history has resulted in war, and urges that world law, enforced by a strengthened United Nations, can end the arms race and free mankind from the scourge of war.
