Carolina's exhibition game with Wake in Thomasville this Saturday night has been cancelled. Therefore, league directors have established Thomasville as the site for the Wake Forest-Clemson contest with game time set for 8 o'-

The Tar Heels will then meet the winner on Monday night in Gastonia for the ACC title and the right to enter the NCAA regionals which begin June 4th.

Carolina will hold a workout tonight on Durham's Erwin Field at 7 o'clock in order to accustom itself to playing under the lights.

Coach Walter Rabb indicated that, in all probability, Harold Stowe will be the Tiger's mound choice, opposing the Deac's Bob Plemmons. Should Clemson win, the Tar Heels, according to Rabb, will face lefty Ty Cline.

A Wake Forest triumph would force Coach Gene Hooks to call on Jimmy Harrell to go against Carolina, though Bob Lawrence is a 000 001 010 00-2 possibility.
