

Frosh Top Duke 4-0 On One-Hitter

By C. J. UNDERWOOD
DURHAM — Three Tar Baby hurlers combined their talents in a masterful one-hit pitching performance to carry the frosh to a 4-0 shutout over Duke here yesterday.

The win enabled Carolina to clinch first place in the final Big Four standings with a fine 7-3 record. Overall the frosh managed 8 wins in 15 decisions, thus closing out the season with a winning slate.

Tarlow Stars
Fast balling Dick Tarlow set the Imps down on one Texas League single during his five inning stint while he and his mates were cashing in on three Duke miscues for a two inning, three-run lead.

Paul Swing started it as first batter of the game with an infield chopper. He stole second and went to third when Duke pitcher Larry Harrison threw wild into center-field on a pick-off attempt. Jud Spainhour's bouncer up the middle brought Swing home with what turned out to be the only tally the Tar Babies needed.

With one down in the second, Ron Miller singled and took second when Whitey Wade's bouncer to the mound resulted in another throwing error on Harrison. After a force play, Tarlow came through with a hit to score Miller.

Another error, this time by short-stop Lynn Fader, sent Jerry Evans across with the second and final marker of the inning.

Lanky righthander Bob Wacker contributed three hitless innings and Lewis Holcomb added one more to complete the afternoon.

Carolina's AAU

RALEIGH, N. C. — Approximately 235 top track performers, representing 21 clubs, will compete in the annual Carolinas' AAU track meet here Saturday. This competition closes out the season for the Tar Heel track team.

In this meet, which is held mainly for individual honors, the Tar Heels will be without their two top performers, Dave Scurlock and Wayne Bishop. Other than these two, the Heels will compete in full force.

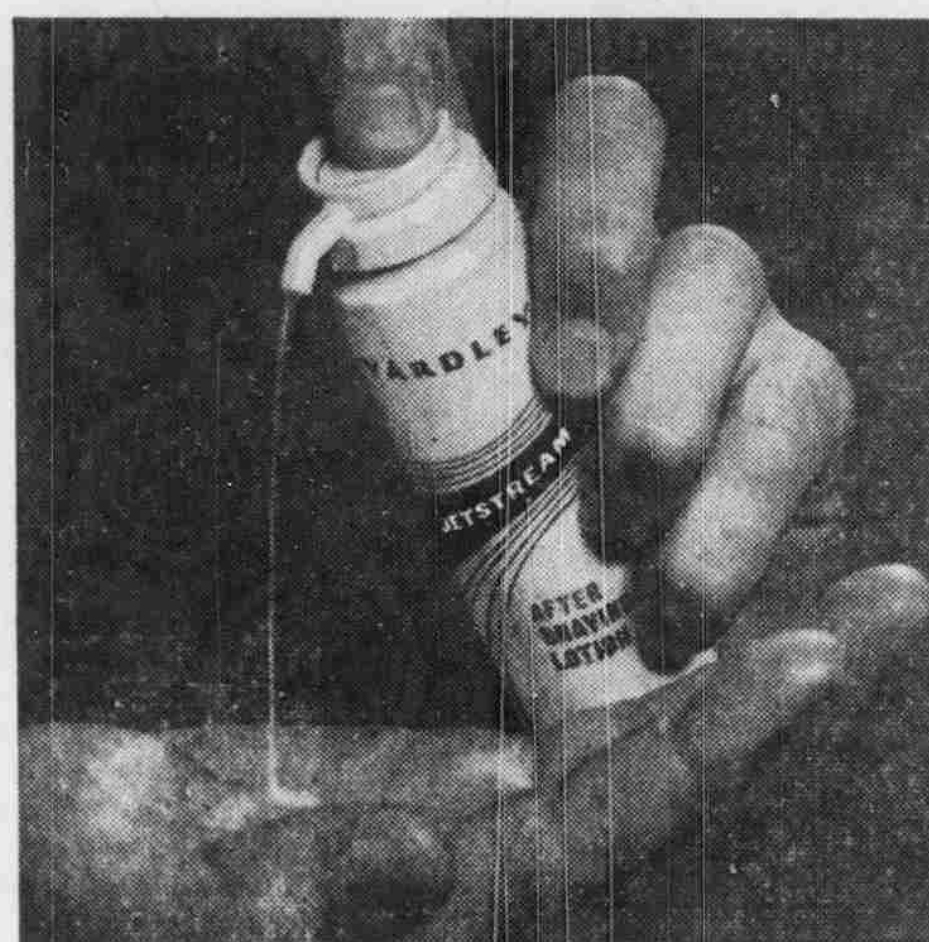

In the running events, Wally Graham and Ward Purrington will lead the dashmen; John Sylvester and Benjy Seagle, the quarter; and Cowles Lipfert, Bob Foxworth, Dave Peltz, and Scott Brent, the half.

Bing Somers, Tim Burnette, Larry Henry, and Lipfert and Foxworth, should they not qualify in the half, will run the mile; and Alex Coffin and Rett Everett will go the grueling three mile.

Lyndon DeBorde will be faced with the same problem that has confronted him the past three years—how to run against such world famous hurdlers as Elias Gilbert, Lee Calhoun, Fran Washington, etc. and finish in the top six. Gilbert set the world's record in the 220 yard lows here last year.
