

WEATHER

Fair, becoming partly cloudy with chance of showers. Low, 50-60; high, mid 80s.

The Daily Tar Heel

7,959 is a trend. See Page 2.

VOLUME LXVII, NO. 8

Complete Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1959

Offices in Graham Memorial

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Wilson Fellowship Grants To Be Given To 1,000 Students

The Woodrow Wilson national fellowship foundation announces its 1959-60 program of 1,000 fellowships in the humanities and in social and natural sciences.

Aldersgate Methodist Church To Observe 4th Anniversary

The Aldersgate Methodist Church will celebrate its fourth anniversary this Sunday.

2nd Concert In Series Set For Oct. 6

Compositions of Hunter Johnson with John Kirkpatrick, pianist, and Ethel Casey, soprano, as the featured artists, will be presented Oct. 6 as the second concert in the Music Department's Tuesday Evening Series.

GM SLATE

Activities scheduled in Graham Memorial today include: Free Juke Box Dance, Rendezvous Room, 8-12 p.m.; Pan Hel Post Office, Roland Parker I and II, 9-11:30 a.m.

Rushees Feted As Sorority Rush Winds Up Second Of Five Rounds

The second of the five rounds of sorority rush was held on Thursday and Friday nights. Each sorority gave three one-hour parties each night, for a total of six.

INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary Friday were the following: Ann Goodman, Ann Morgan, Charlene Fisher, Ann Hopkins, Phillip Seiberry, Raymond Wiesen, William Toland, Arvid Sieber, Robert Newman, Herman Taylor, Bernard Frye, Robert Stein, Anthony Rand, Laurence Wilson, Emil Marosini, Sara Maddison, Robert Haire and William Bryan.

James Dimmick

Dimmick To Instruct Social Science On TV

CHAPEL HILL — James Dimmick, instructor in social science, has been named an instructor for WUNC-TV's Freshman Year by Television project. He will teach a course in social science beginning Oct. 14 to be followed by a second social science course spring semester.

A native of Orange County, he has been teaching at the University since 1955. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Florida, and also attended Cite Universite in Paris, France.

The Social Science I course to be televised Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings at 8 p.m. on Channel 4 will offer a historical study of the institutions of western civilization, designed to promote an understanding of the social, political, and economic aspects of the modern world.

Petite Dramatique Tryouts Set

Coming into its own on the North Carolina campus in the field of extra-curricular activities is a dramatic organization, the Petite Dramatique.

The group will present a variety of productions during the 1959-60 season. Members will work with plays both new and old, which might not otherwise be available to the community.

Busy Signal

Have you been getting a busy signal lately? If you have you could be dialing 5-611 a number that no longer exists.

Surging Enrollment Means Crowded Dorms

Surging enrollment at the University this semester has resulted in a crowded and sometimes uncomfortable dormitory housing situation, as the number of dorm students increased by 456 from last year.

Carolina Seeks 1st Win In 10-Year Notre Dame Series

Chancellor Announces Promotions

Promotions for several University faculty members have been announced by Chancellor William B. Aycock, following approval by President William C. Friday and the Board of Trustees.

Dr. Alphonse E. Chestnut, director of the Institute of Fisheries Research at Morehead City, was given the rank of professor, moving from an associate professorship.

Another institute staff member, Dr. Gerald S. Posner, was promoted from assistant professor to associate professor.

Advanced from instructor to assistant professor in the Department of Political Science was Earle Wallace.

Also officially approved was James B. Hickey's promotion to the head football coach's position, succeeding the late James Tatum.

British Pair Plans Lectures On Campus

Two visitors from London will lecture and take part in the teaching activities of the Department of Psychiatry of the School of Medicine here next week.

They are the husband and wife team of Dr. Michael and Dr. Enid Balint, who will be here from Monday through Thursday.

Dr. Michael Balint is a consulting psychiatrist of the Tavistock Clinic. He also is the author of a number of books in the field of psychiatry.

Dr. Enid Balint is on the staff of the London Institute of Psychoanalysis.

Both of the Londoners will speak at the weekly School of Medicine Combined Staff Conference Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the Clinic Auditorium.

Their subject will be "Variants in Psychotherapy."

Dr. Michael Balint will lecture Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Department of Psychiatry on "The Doctor's Responsibility."

By ELLIOTT COOPER SOUTH BEND, Ind. — This afternoon Carolina will try again — try to do something it has never been able to do before, beat Notre Dame in football.

Ten years ago the series between the two schools started in Yankee Stadium. Each year since that time, with the exception of 1957, the Irish have prevailed whenever they met the Tar Heels.

For Notre Dame, today's contest marks the start of their seventy-first season. In addition, it will also feature the unveiling of a new coach, Joe Kuharich, who last year succeeded Terry Brennan as the head man in the gridiron department.

Hickey After First Win The Tar Heels, on the other hand, will be out to even up their season record after suffering an opening 20-18 defeat at the hands of Clemson a week ago in Chapel Hill. Like Kuharich, Carolina mentor Jim Hickey is hoping to chalk up his first big-time victory in college football.

A capacity crowd of some 56,000 is expected to be on hand for the kickoff here at 1:30 p.m., CDT. Although there will be no live telecast of the game, radio station WCHL will broadcast the contest beginning at 1:15 p.m. EST.

Since this is the first game of the year for both Kuharich and the Irish, the Carolina coaching staff is faced with the problem of not knowing just what to expect. The mystery becomes more complex for the Carolina followers since they have no idea about the physical condition of Notre Dame stars George Izo and Red Mack.

Izo To Miss Game Earlier this week it was reported that Izo had injured his leg while practicing Monday and would definitely miss the game. Mack is also having leg troubles but is expected to see some action.

Fortunately for Carolina, Hickey will have all of his star performers in top physical shape. The lone question mark in the Tar Heel attack is second-unit tackle John Hegarty who cut his hand in a freak accident. Despite this, Carolina trainer John Lacey expects to have him ready to go.

Hickey has made no changes in his starting lineup and will send the same team against the Irish that opened the Clemson game.

Offensive end stars John Schroeder and Al Goldstein, whose combined efforts against the Tigers amounted to five catches good for 69 yards, will once again be the leading candidates for quarterback Jack Cummings' passes.

Starting Tackles Tackles Don Stallings and Moose Butler are expected to provide the heft in the interior line along with guards Fred Mueller and Bob Shupin and center Jim Davis.

In certain spots, at the ends especially, Notre Dame starters will be considerably bigger than their Carolina counterparts. Monty Stickle, a 6-4, 225 pound bruiser, will start at left end with either Mike Lodish (210) or Pat Heenan (190) at the other terminal. Out of the three best tackles that Notre Dame has at the present time two are sophomores who have never played in a varsity game. Joe Carollo and Bob Bill, the two sophs, and Ollie Flor, a senior, should see a lot of action at this position where the Irish may be a little weak.

Captain Ken Adamson and Myron Pottios are scheduled to be the first string guards with 235 pound Bob Scholtz at center.

Carolina Backfield In the Carolina backfield the burden of the offensive attack will fall on the shoulders of co-captains Cummings and Wade Smith along with Milam Wall and fullback Don Klochak.

If Izo is unable to play his quarterback spot will probably go to senior Don White. A 200 pounder, White saw limited action last season as he played but 97 minutes and completed four of the ten passes he attempted.

Should Mack also be forced to sit this one out the left halfback position will be filled by junior Bill Clark. The other two regulars who are sure to perform are Bob Scarpitto and fullback Jim Crotty.

Hickey has stated that more of his squad members are expected to play today than did a week ago. As an outgrowth of their play against the Tigers the Tar Heels second team, which is now known as the head hunters, will be used extensively on defense with the third team becoming a sort of alternate offensive unit.

Sam Donahue And Orchestra Will Play For IDC Concert

Plans for the IDC concert and dance, featuring Sam Donahue and Orchestra, are near completion, reports Tommy White, Interdormitory Council Social Chairman.

The events, to be held Friday, October 9, will begin with a concert in Memorial Hall from 3-5 p.m. The dance will be in Woolen Gym that evening from 9 p.m. to midnight. A second dance will be sponsored after the football game Saturday, October 10, and will feature a combo.

Tickets ($2.75 per couple) are now on sale in Y-Court and at the Information Desk in Graham Memorial. They also may be obtained from any IDC member. Only 800 tickets are available because of the limited seating capacity of Memorial Hall.

Sam Donahue's last appearance on this campus was in the Germans of 1957, when he appeared with the Billy May band. He has performed with such all-time greats as Benny Goodman, Gene Krupa and Harry James.

This will be the first time that the IDC has sponsored a week end of this nature. The group hopes it will become an annual social event for Carolina students. The IDC is now completing arrangements to permit freshmen to have cars on campus for the affair.

Dress for both concert and dance will be informal or semi-formal.

Sam Donahue

Segregation Action Hit

By SAMUEL S. JONES, JR. A proposal to condemn the anti-integration actions of the Chapel Hill School Board highlighted the Chapel Hill Fellowship for School Integration meeting Thursday evening.

An audience of some 40 white and Negro members, meeting at the Community Church, also heard a report on Negro employment practices in Durham.

Sherwin Cooper, UNC instructor in geography, moved that a formal statement be published by the fellowship to denounce the recent actions of the school board in regard to the board's refusal to allow the admittance of a 10-year-old Negro child to a white elementary school.

He said he thought the fellowship itself, was "too soft" in its efforts to promote local integration. A committee was formed to write a statement and present it to the members for approval at the next meeting.

Miss Florence Irving of the American Friends Service Commission, High Point, spoke on a recent survey sponsored by her organization concerning the employment of Negroes practices of 474 business establishments in Durham. Some of the many questions asked employers were "Which jobs are open to both Negro and white applicants, what experiences with Negro employees in skilled jobs have you had, what has been public opinion toward these employees?" Detailed results of this survey will be issued shortly.

The Fellowship for School Integration is an open membership assemblage of University and local townspeople. It was formed six years ago to represent pro-integration feelings in Chapel Hill.

Hillel Frosh Council To Select Chairman

The chairman of the Hillel froshman council will be elected at a meeting of all Jewish freshmen Sunday, 10:30 a.m. at Hillel House.

The newly elected chairman will serve as treasurer of the Hillel Cabinet.

The meeting also concerns planning the program and activities for Jewish froshmen under Hillel sponsorship.

Susan Bernstein, president of the Hillel Cabinet, urges all Jewish freshmen to attend and take part in the activities planning.

HOLD THAT POSE! — This scene, a familiar one to those who have had their Yack picture taken, is presently recurring time and again in the basement of Graham Memorial. This year the Daily Tar Heel went one better and photographed the photographer photographing the students. (Photo by Peter Ness)