

Covering Campus

JEWISH NEW YEAR

Services Commemorating the Jewish New Year (Rosh Hashanah) will be at Hillel House, 210 W. Cameron Ave., 8 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. Saturday, conducted by Rabbi E. M. Rosenzweig.

Additional services will be on Sunday morning for those celebrating Rosh Hashanah for two days. The High Holiday period will be concluded with the observance of the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) on October 12.

TENNIS MEETING

All students interested in playing varsity or freshman tennis are requested to attend a meeting in room 304 of Woollen Gym this afternoon at 4:30.

DEBATE SQUAD

Dr. Daniel H. Pollitree, associate professor of law, speaks to the Debate Squad today 3:30 p.m. in the Grall Room, second floor Graham Memorial.

The constitutional lawyer will discuss the national debate topic, Resolved: that Congress would have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court.

YDC

Students attending the Young Democrats Club convention in Asheville this week, have been asked to contact Dewey Sheffield.

Wudda bout this?

1. The campus is hungry.
2. The Rathskeller serves rare roast beef, deliciously.
3. The campus must produce a vastly greater thirst hunger.
