WEATHER

Increasing cloudiness, somewhat warmer with occasional rain likely by tonight. High in 60s.

The Daily Tar Reel

VOLUME LXVIII, NO. 56

Complete Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1959

Offices in Graham Memorial

America's great college papers. whose motto states, "freedom of expression is the backbone of an academic community."

67 years of dedicated service to a better University, a better state and a better nation by one of

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Campus Briefs-

Here's Exam Schedule, But Don't Bite Finger Nails Yet

Okay, folks, here it is!

Start biting your finger nails!

By action of the faculty, the time of an examination may not be changed after it has been fixed in the schedule,

All permits to take examinations to remove grades of "Exc. Abs." or "Cond," must be secured from the Central Office of Records prior to the exam. No students may be excused from a scheduled examination except by the infirmary, in case of illness, or by his General College adviser or by his dean, in case of any other emergency compelling his absence.

10:00 a.m. classes on TThS. Tues. Jan. 19, 8:30 a.m. 1:00 p.m. classes on MWF, *Pharm. 10, *Psych 26 Tues. Jan. 19. 2:00 p.m.

11:00 a.m. classes on MWF Wed, Jan. 20, 8:30 a.m. 2:00 p.m. classes on TThS, "Pharm.Ec. "BA 130 Wed. Jan. 20, 2:00 p.n. 3:00 p.m. classes, *Chem. 11, *Pharm. Chem. 61,

BA 71. 72. *Pol. Sci. 41, and all classes not otherwise provided for in this schedule Thurs. Jan. 21, 8:30 a.m. 8:00 a.m. classes on TThS Thurs. Jan. 21, 2:00 p.m. 12:00 noon classes on MWF Fri. Jan. 22, 8:30 a.m. 2:00 p.m. classes on MWF, 'Chem. 43, 'Pharm. 15

"Econ. 31, 32, 61 Fri. Jan. 22, 2:00 p.m. 12:00 noon classes on TThS, all "Naval Science and "Air Science Sat. Jan. 23, 8:30 a.m. 9:00 a.m. classes on MWF Sat. Jan. 23, 2:00 p.m. 1:00 p.m. classes on TThS, *Econ. 81,

°Physics 24 Mon. Jan. 25, 8:30 a.m. 9:00 a.m. classes on TThS Mon. Jan. 25, 2:00 p.m. 8:00 a.m. classes on MWF Tues, Jan. 26, 8:30 a.m. 10:00 a.m. classes on MWF Tues. Jan. 26, 2:00 p.m. French, German & Spanish courses No'd 1, 2, 3, 3x

& 4. "Econ. 70 11:00 a.m. classes on TThS * In case of any conflict, the regularly scheduled exam will take awards by the Haskins & Sells Foundation, Inc., precedence over the common exam. (Common exams are indicated by it was announced by Dean Maurice W. Lee.

Parade Plans All Set

Everything is all set for this year's Beat Dook Parade, which indicates the anual Duke-Carolina football game will be played soon -Thursday

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity annually sponsors the parade, beginning at 2 p.m. Tuesday. The queen and her court of four attendants will reign over the parade, riding on a special float. More than 30 floats will be entered by dormitories, fraternities and sororities, and four trophies await the ones judged most out-The UNC cheerleaders also will parade, along with the bands of

AFROTC and NROTC, Chapel Hill High School and Lincoln High The parade will begin at Woollyn Gymnasium at 2 p.m., proceed

Hill and back south on Columbia Street, then through the center of the campus eastward on Cameron Avenue. Parade chairman, Jim Copland announced that judging in the float competition will be done by Chancellor Emeritus Robert B.

House, Dean Katherine K. Carmichael, and Vic Huggins, merchant. The order of the parade will be as follows:

Cheerleaders, Lincoln High School band, Pi, Kappa Phi, Phi Gamma Delta, Joyner-McIver, Ruffin, Kappa Delta, Theta Chi, Alpha Gam- foreign students here Wednesday Dr. Turner said. "But at present for Saturday and Sunday, Decem-

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Pi Beta Phi, Parker, Graham, Phi Delta tion. Theta, Kappa Sigma, NROTC, NROTC drill team, NROTC band, Sigma Chi, Tau Epsilon Phi, Kappa Alpha, Chi Omega, Grimes and Manley.

Faculty Members Address Executives

Three members of the Political Science Department lectured last week to executives of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. assembled from nine southern states at Athens, Georgia.

Dr. Shepard Jones, Burton Craige Professor, delivered three lectures: "One World: How Much Can We Go It Alone?"; "Brinkmanship: "Who Is Winning the Cold War?"; and "The Moment of Truth: Where Do We Go From Here?"

Dr. Donald Matthews spoke on "The Peoples Voice: How Voter Opinion is Made," and Dr. Earle Wallace spoke on "The Great Art of Politics: How Decisions in Government are Made."

The conference was at the Georgia Center for Continuing Education, as a part of Southern Bell's District-Division Management Development Conferences.

Your GMAB-

Committee To Give Talks On Ike's Tour

By HENRY MAYER

A series of lectures and forums examining President Eisenhower's forthcoming Asian tour will be presented in the near future by the GMAB Current Affairs Committee, under the chairmanship of Jerry

JERRY STOKES ... plans lectures

This committee is designed to serve the student body by presenting informative panel discussion. speakers, etc. on current problems

Sponsorship of the spring political rally is an annual committee function and plans are already being formulated to insure the success of this year's portunity for the candidates for night major offices and the party chair- Inspired by and taken from the manent silohuette of the village pare and contrast the candidates.

In commenting on this year's plans Stokes said, "We've got a bigger budget to work with and should have a successful year. However, one thing is lacking; this is representation from interested and competent freshmen and transfers. All those who are interested are urged to apply to the GMAB office."

UNC ACCOUNTING SCHOLARS RECOGNIZED - Scholastic excellence has brought substantial awards to two students, announced this week as recipients of Haskins and Sells Foundation grants. O. N. Hutchinson (far left) of Charlotte, representing the CPA firm, is shown presenting checks of $1,000 and $500, respectively to James Robert Whitney and Robert Laverue Joyner. Looking on at right is Dr. Photo by Morgan

Accounting Major, BA Student Given Haskins & Sells Grants

A senior accounting major and a graduate stu-Wed, Jan. 27, 8:30 a.m. tlent in the School of Business Administration Wed. Jan. 27, 2:00 p.m. shave been presented scholarship and fellowship, Robert Laverne Joyner is winner of the Haskins & Sells Scholarship Award for 1959-60, valued at $500. He was chosen by the school's Undergraduate Scholarship Committee, headed by Dr. Claude S. George Jr., assistant dean.

The $1000 graduate fellowship given by Hasins & Sells was awarded to James Robert Whitney. He was also chosen by the school on the basis of scholastic excellence.

O. N. Hutchinson of Charlotte, representative of Haskins & Sells, Certified Public Accountants, presented the awards to the two students this week in Chapel Hill.

Joyner, a self-help student, has maintained a "B" average in his overtall University studies, and a higher record in accounting, his major field.

Whitney, a verteran of Army service, was graduated from The Citadel in Charleston, S. C. in August, 1958. After working with the Charleston CPA firm of Schleeter, Monsen and Debacker, he entered Carolina this fall to work toward the master's degree in business administration.

The Haskins & Sells Foundation set up its accounting awards program in 1956, aimed at stimulating higher scholastic achievement among college students majoring in accounting and encouraging other, promising students to specialize in this field.

Improved Negro-White Race Tryouts Monday, Tuesday For 'Christmas Garland' The parade will begin at Woollyn Gymnasium at 2 p.m., proceed down Raleigh Street to East Franklin Street, through downtown Chapel Relations Seen For Future ships face an optimistic future, Dr. should be left to the state. Albert L. Turner, Law School Dean at North Carolina College, Durham, Court in 1956 that equal but se- direction of Dr. Russell Graves, night on "The History of Segrega- the problem still exists with pri- ber 12 and 13, in the Playmakers

"The situation is being improved," Dr. Turner said, adding, "When I was young, we could never imagine that Negroes could be professional baseball players."

Negro slavery came into being because the slave trade was prosperous, the students were told. into this country were not slaves," the speaker declared

Dr. Turner, in tracing segrega-1863 supposedly ended slavery, Ne- The North Carolina Folklore So- widely popular entertainer.

"The 14th Amendment of 1868 made Negroes citizens, but in 1890 the legislature of Louisiana enacted a statute requiring railroads to provide equal but separate accommodations for the White and Colored races," he and events. In addition to the se- the Plessy vs. Ferguson decision prayers heard on plantations near ries on the president, a program of 1896 which upheld Louisiana's Lynchburg. Mrs. Turner has recenthas been planned for December measure and pointed out that the ly completed a film, "Songs out of singer, will offer "Some North parate facilities are unequal now Dr. Turner spoke to a group of is being applied to public property," Art. Performances are scheduled vate concerns. I could stay in an Theatre. integrated hotel but I dare not be cause of their attitude toward me.

America's Negro-White relation- ity, but that practical regulations 7:30 p.m., and Tuesday, 4 p.m.

The dean declared that the best way of achieving integration will be through individual influence by personal association.

"We need your help," he said. Jack Boswell and Marcia Klingel, at the meeting.

Tryouts for the first Carolina

the current year will be Monday, The production, entitled "A Christ-

"The decision of the Supreme mas Garland," will be under the associate professor of Dramatic and the educational movies he has

INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary Saturday were the following:

Kenneth Bunting, Wayne Kerstetier, Charles Clarke, William Shepherd, Stephen Lowder, Curtis co-chairmen of the YM-YWCA For- Giles, Joseph Hord, Richard Cough-The very first Negroes who came eign Students Committee, presided enour, James Gerardi and William

Dr. Turner, in tracing segregation's history, said that even after the Emphasization Proclamation in groes were disciplined by the ciety will have its 48th annual Dr. Wilton Mason, professor of "Black Codes" which prohibited meeting Dec. 4, 2 p.m., in the Vir- music, in a paper entitled "Ballads secretary-treasurer.

In "Making' Glory," Mrs. Lu- rials. cille Turner of Forest, Va., will present her interpretations of Ne-The speaker called attention to gro secular songs, spirituals, and dealing with the French-Algerian amendment protected racial equal- the South," for WUNC-TV and is a Carolina Folksong Favorites."

them from moving their homes and ginia Dare Ballroom of the Sir in Transit," will show by discussion Roland Parker I, II & III; and which regulated punishment for Walter Hotel, Raleigh, according to and singing how ballads change as Grail, 9-11 p.m., Grail. Dr. A. P. Hudson of Chapel Hill, they pass from one locale to another. Director of the University Donald MacDonald of Charlotte Chorus, Dr. Mason is currently will preside over the program, to planning a series of programs and which the public is cordially in- recordings featuring his own arrangements of Appalachian mate-

Douglas Franklin, director of music and education at the Central Methodist Church in Con-

Yule Tribute, 'Star Of Bethlehem,' Opens

"Star of Bethlehem," the More-time of the birth of Jesus. head Planetarium's traditional men to present their views to the King James version of the Holy skyline around the dome remains Jenzano said. "Patrons repeatedcampus electorate, as well as an Bible, the 1959 presentation is the to indicate any modernity," Jen- ly attended it year after year opportunity for the voters to com- original and cherished Morehead zano said. Planetarium program, Bethlehem" is devoted to the appearance of the heavens of almost twenty centuries ago and deals particularly with astronomical events known to have oc-

This convocation provides an op Christmas tribute, opened Friday even the opening winter panorama "We have removed, for instance, great arched cathedral.

As Planetarium Manager A. F. The second portion is the tradi-Jenzano put it, "This year there tional and original pageant of the birth of Jesus, told in lights, color The first portion of "Star of and music. It includes the threedimensional scenes of the Annunciation, King Herod's Palace, the the Nativity.

The Scriptural narration is again curred in the years about the by Dr. Urban Tigner Holmes. The and 4 p.m.

closing scene also is again the

"We felt obligated to repeat the original 'Star of Bethlehem' which o receive a true awakening to the meaning and significance of Christmas, Editors, clergymen and other distinguished people impulsively praised the spectacle vocally and in print."

Evening performances begin at Wise Men and the Shepherds and 8:30, and matinees on Saturdays begin 11 a.m., 3 and 4 p.m.

The Sunday matinees are 2, 3

Folk Singer Needs 4 Items For Show

Seeger Plays Guitar, Banjo In GM Series

A 12-string guitar, a 5-string banjo, his repetoire and his "humane" voice are all Pete Seeger needs to present his one-man show of folk songs and spirituals.

And these are what he will be using when he performs Dec. 4 in Memorial Hall for the GM Concert Series. Students will be admitted free for the 8 p.m. concert although 50 cent-tickets will be sold for

Non-students will be admitted after 7:30 p.m. for $1

R. V. Fulk, series chairman, said," We're lucky to get Seeger to appear here. He is noted as the favorite folk singer of college students everywhere, and he will entertain his audience with a wonderful program of folk songs and spiri-

Seeger's single performance here was arranged because of a one day break in his tight touring schedule.

His repetoire encompasses the entire scheme of American developmnt and includes the traditional songs as well as many fresh and exciting arrangements.

Seeger is famous for the unique rapport he achieves with his listeners. "I suspect everyone in Memorial Hall will be clapping their Playmakers studio production of hands to his music and eventually singing with him," Fulk said.

himself, the songster has stated, lina's mascot, Rameses VIII. We truly love folkmusic.' Evidence of this is the number of record albums and singles he has recorded, his books on folkmusic

G. M. SLATE

Activities scheduled today in Graham Memorial include: Society of Friends, 11 a.m., Grail:

Alpha Kappa Psi, 2-5 p.m., Grail, Roland Parker I & II. Monday's activities in Graham

Memorial are the following: Student Party Advisory Board, 2-5 p.m., Roland Parker I: Judicial Review, 4-6 p.m., Grail; Carolina Symposium Commitee, 4:30-6 p.m., Woodhouse; Carolina Forum, 6-6:30 p.m., Grail; Dance Committee, 7-8 p.m., Grail; Student Council, 7-10

PETE SEEGER · . . favorite folksongster

Rameses Typifies UNC-Duke Rivalry

By HARVE HARRIS

All of the intense rivalry between Carolina and Duke which will culminate in Thursday's football game Speaking for his wife Toshi and is perhaps best typified in Caro> a farm owned by Glenn Hogan dark." near Chapel Hill, and Hogan has quite a list of stories which have grown up around the mascot. One concerns the mystical power Rameses exerts over point after touchdown attempts.

This belief arises out of the 1957 Carolina-Duke game when Duke was ahead and the Carolina fans were feeling pretty low. As Hogan tells it:

"The cheerleaders and I lined up Rameses in front of the Carolina goalposts and sure enough we scored. Then we went on to kick the extra point right over his horns. Tar Heel fans remember Rameses that day and the score which ended 21-13, Carolina, Naturally, this hasn't increased tempt is made to kidnapp Ram- vhat's up front that counts."

"Last year," Hogan says, "we came out of the house the morning before the game and found several leaf-covered, blurry-eyed Duke boys staggering out of the woods. Evidently they'd hunted all night for The 200 pound ram is housed on Rameses and finally got lost in the

> He also tells about the time State College students thought they'd fooled him into letting them have the ram on the pretext of taking him to a pep rally in Chap-

"I gave them another ram and they took off, stopping long enough in Chapel Hill to yell that Duke had stolen Rameses. By this time Carolina students were pretty well peped up, and they hauled over to Durham to take Duke apart. It was some time before we got word to them that it was all a mistake."

Whatever the outcome of Thursday's game (meaning, of course, whatever the number of points Carolina will win by) Rameses will the Blue Devils' love for Caro- be there in all his blue-horned lina mascots. Every year an at- glory, demonstrating that "it's EGYPTIANS OBSERVE EXECUTIVE PROGRAM — The two key leaders of Egypt's new development program for senior management are visiting here this week observing The Executive Program in operation. They are Anned N. Rizk (far left), director general and head of the Egyptian Institute of Management Development; and Ahmad Aly Shaker (at right), secretary general. In center is their host, Dr. Willard Graham, director of The Executive Program, the intensive advanced management course in which 42 executives are now enrolled.