

Cage Tickets Now Available

All tickets for the University of North Carolina-University of South Carolina basketball game on December 5 at 2:00 p.m., in Woollen Gym are reserved. Students, faculty members and University employees must stop by the Athletic Office with their passcard in order to receive seating space for the game.

Because of limited seating in Woollen Gym, the same procedure used in past years will be used again for the 1959-60 basketball season. Holders of Pass Cards whose names start with the letters A through M will be given priority on this game through the period November 23-25. After that date any remaining tickets will be available on a first come, first served basis to anyone.

Arrangements have been made to allow University of North Carolina students to attend—at half price—the game between the University of North Carolina and the University of Kansas on December 11, and the game between the University of North Carolina and Kansas State on December 12. These games will be played in Raleigh at the Coliseum, but students must pick up the tickets in advance at the Athletic Office in Woollen Gym. Tickets are already available for these two games.

There is no priority on the distribution of tickets for these two games in Raleigh and tickets will be available to anyone with a passcard.

DUKE FOOTBALL TICKETS

The Athletic Ticket Office, announces that it still has a limited number of tickets for the Duke game which students can purchase for half price ($2.25). The office at Woollen Gym will sell a coupon for the reduced price which must be turned in at the Duke Stadium on the day of the game. The coupons are not transferable.

MURAL BASKETBALL

The First Annual Mural Holiday Basketball Festival has been slated for Dec. 7 through Dec. 11.

Intramurals officials say that this will give all teams "a chance to practice competitively before the regular season begins." The tournament will not be included in point system activities and will be a single elimination affair.

There will be no divisions; all the teams will compete on an all-campus basis. Entries are due Dec. 3, with play starting Dec. 7 and running through Dec. 11. Each organization may enter as many teams as they wish, and there will be a team plaque for the winner.

Frosh Football Coach Joe Mark Pleased With Tar Babies' Record

By RICHARD SOLES

After the conclusion of a successful football season, frosh coach Joe Mark had this to say: "I was very pleased with the outcome of the games, with the exception of the last one with Duke." The Tar Babies lost to Duke Saturday, 35-7, finishing the season with a record of four victories against a lone defeat.

Mark believes that his team made more mistakes in the final game than any other during the season, but felt that they put forth another good effort. "It was the biggest factor for our success," he stated.

Chance For Varsity
As for individuals, Mark had this to say: "Many of our boys have the potential to make the varsity next year, but they will have to brush up on the fundamentals and improve even more."

"Junior Edge did a commendable job at the quarterback post. He threw fairly well, and passed well and directed the team in an acceptable manner."
Mark felt that Wally Dunham, who led the team in scoring, ran well at times, for a freshman. Dunham is the lad who scored four touchdowns against the State frosh in the season's opener.

Injury To Addison
"I also believe that Jimmy Addison would have helped us. He has great potential." Addison, from Durham, was sidelined with a shoulder separation. He was running on the no. 1 team at left halfback before his injury.

Mark stated that Joe Craver and Bob Zaback had performed well at the center position, and also line-men, Bob Knight, Hugh Colvin, Tony Hennessey, Jerry Cabe, and many others did yeoman work at their respective positions.

OUTING CLUB MEETING
The UNC Outing club will meet on Monday night immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays in room 301-B Woollen Gym at 7:00. Plans for the coming beachtrip will be aired.

Peacocks And SAE Advance Into Tag Football Finals

SAE and the Peacocks will clash today at 4 o'clock for the all-campus tag football championship. While SAE had it relatively easy, the Peacocks reached the final plateau the hard way.

Undefeated or not, the Spodie-Odies' bubble burst as they bowed 13-8 to the Peacocks in a real battle. The Peacocks led 6-0 at intermission on the strength of Talbe's touchdown. The Peacocks ran to 13-0 early in the second half on Parker's TD and Zack's conversion. But S-O wasn't dead yet, stormed back and scored on a Hammett to Cameron pass. They had two good conversions called back by penalties, finally missed to make it 13-6.

The Spodies drove deep into Peacock territory and with four minutes left were on the Peacock 2-yard line. But the Peacocks held and took over on downs. Ralph Holthouser bagged a safety for S-O, but that was all as the Peacocks regained possession and ran out the clock.

SAE ran into unexpected opposition from stubborn Phi Delt White, but SAE's razzle-dazzle offense ran to perfection behind Peyton Hawes and SAE romped 22-0. SAE had only a 9-0 lead in the first half on Jim Smalley's TD and a safety. But Sandy Ainsley and Bill Stoneham each scored in the second half for final 22-0 margin.

All filter cigarettes are divided into two parts, and...

“Weni, widi, Winston!” Thus did Caesar (a notoriously poor speller) hail the discovery of Filter-Blend—light, mild tobaccos specially selected and specially processed for filter smoking.

He knew that a pure white filter alone is not enough. To be a complete filter cigarette, it must have Filter-Blend up front. And only Winston's got it!
That's why Caesar would never accept another brand even when it was offered gratis. In fact, history tells us he'd glower at the extended pack and sneer, "Et tu, Brute!"
In a stirring peroration to his legions, Caesar put it this way: "For the Numeral I filter cigarette—for the best-tasting filter cigarette—for the noblest filter cigarette of all—smoke Winston!"

“Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!”
P.S. to bachelors. If you're lucky enough to find a gal who'll keep you in Winstons, Caesar!
