CHARLES COUCH
Gets WUNC Post

Charles (Chuck) Couch has been appointed chief studio engineer of WUNC Radio.

The appointment of Couch to the department head position was announced by Jack Mayo, WUNC station manager.

Couch replaces Howard Bannum who resigned last week.

Couch joined the station staff last year after transferring from Charlotte College. He is a major in the department of Radio, Television and Motion Pictures.

Until his present appointment he was a WUNC staff announcer. The year he is host of "Dinner Hour," a 55-minute program of dinner music heard every day at 6 o'clock on WUNC-FM.

Two weeks ago he was chosen the first "WUNC Radio Staff Member of the Week" for outstanding contributions to the whole operation of the station.

In his new capacity as chief studio engineer Couch will be in charge of the supervision of 16 WUNC studio engineers. He will also conduct weekly engineer training sessions for staff engineers.

In addition to his new duties he will continue to host his nightly musical program.

Dr. Garson To Address Harvard Med Classes

Dr. Warfield Garson of the Public Health School will deliver two lectures in Boston on Friday.

He will address the third year medical class of the Harvard Medical School in the afternoon on "Venereal Diseases." Friday night he will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Boston Bacteriological club. His topic will be "An Inquiry Concerning Gonococcus and Gonorrhea."

Dr. Garson heads the Venereal Disease Experimental Laboratory here.

Only One Bill Considered By Busy House

NOPE, IT DIDN'T SNOW on the Old Well last night, but it's time for Christmas in spite of the unseasonably warm weather. The staff of The Daily Tar Heel takes this opportunity to wish each and all a happy and safe holiday. May your Christmas and the following year be bright. (Brinkhous photo).

Legislators Have To Study For Quizzes

The Student Legislature last night acted on only one of the 11 bills that were scheduled for action.

Jim Crowder's bill to amend BR-27-56, a bill to submit to the electorate for ratification several amendments to the constitution dealing with the judicial branch of Student Government, was the bill passed.

Since the bill dealt with constitutional amendments, a two-thirds vote was required for passage. It was passed by a vote of 24-2, the dissenting votes coming from representatives Bob Nobles and Dave Jones.

A motion for adjournment came from the floor immediately after the passage of the bill. A vote of 17-9 carried the motion and the meeting was adjourned.

Several members of the Legislature stated that they have a number of hour quizzes before the Christmas recess and have to study for them.

Out of the 11 bills on schedule for last night's meeting, five were held in committee for further study and revision if necessary.

Two of the five held in committee were held at the request of their authors. Bob Nobles requested the holding of a bill to amend BR-26-18, a bill to provide for a more clear cut separation of powers in legislature, judicial and executive branches of Student Government. Nobles also requested that a bill to establish a committee to revise the Student Constitution of UNC be held in committee.

A bill to appropriate $200 to the Foreign Student's Relation Board, introduced by Bill Norton; a bill to appropriate $900 for the 1960 Carolina Symposium, introduced by Norton and Hank Patterson; and a bill to appropriate $2,312.18 to The Daily Tar Heel, introduced by Gordon Street in committee, were held in committee also.

Four other bills were passed out of committee favorably, but were not brought up for discussion last night. They were a bill to establish a commission for the codification of Student Government statutes, a commission for the codification of Student Government statutes, a resolution that a paved sidewalk be constructed between Teague dormitory and Raleigh Road, a bill concerning traffic safety in the area around Avery, Teague and Parker dormitories. All four of the bills were introduced by Bob Nobles.

Scottish Rite Offers $1,800 Fellowship

A $1800 fellowship to George Washington University, given by the North Carolina Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, is available to a man or woman graduate of a N.C. college or university.

The purpose of the fellowship is to educate students for leadership in federal, state or local government.

It will be awarded to the recipient of a B.S. or A.B. degree from an accredited N.C. school.

Candidates for the fellowship are recommended by their school, then nominated by the Scottish Rite Bodies' Educational Committee.

Interested persons should contact Ray Jeffries, assistant to the Dean of Student Affairs, 208 South Building.

Who, What, Where, When, Why, How

By ADELAIDE CROMARTIE

"I'm dreaming of a white Christmas . . ."

Dream on . . . but balmy spring-like days bring no snow (the weather man says "cloudy and warmer and showery").

White Christmas . . . or not, the Christmas Spirit has taken the campus and Chapel Hill.

The ATO's celebrated (Carl? or Lawrence? or Ludwig?) van Beethoven's birthday and the 100th anniversary of the Hanging of John Brown. Tonight they'll dance to the music of Willie Hargrove. Last night the Chi Phi's (with Willie Hargrove) and the Sigma Nu's partied with their dates.

Tuesday afternoon the Delta Sigs and KD's journeyed to Oxford to take gifts and Christmas cheer to orphans there.

Last night the Phi Gam's were hosts to the Pi Phi's at an afternoon party featuring Willie Hargrove, at a barbeque dinner and at a dance that night with music by the Blair Ellis combo.

The Zeta's entertained the Chi O's at a combo party Tuesday with the Doug Clark combo.

The Delta Delta Delta pledge weekend began with a buffet dinner and a dance at the Carolina Inn Friday with Buddy Kline and his orchestra. Saturday night the girls and their dates traveled to the Washington Duke in Durham for dinner and party with music by the Vibrators.

Merry Christmas (en espanole) for the DU's Saturday night as they donned sombreros for the Mexican Christmas custom of the pinata.

Ala-k-zam, and it was the campus magician, John Clifford, who entertained at the St. A Christmas party.

Wednesday night Theta Chi's had a Christmas, "amateur psychological analysis party" as they passed out a gift to each brother, "indicative of his character."

Tom Wingfield went as Santa Claus to the Phi Delt Christmas party Saturday night.

Sigma Chi's celebrated Christmas Sunday evening with dinner and tree and house decorating.

The sororities, AD Pi's, Alpha Gam's, Chi O's, Tri Delt's, KD's, Kappa's, and Pi Phi's partied at the annual Big and Little Sister events this week.

Tonight the DKE's, the SAE's and Lambda Chi's will usher the holidays in with parties at their houses.

The Sig Ep's entertained the Duke ADPi's at a combo party Wednesday night, and Thursday the Chi Psi's observed the old Christmas custom of egg nog.

A KA "Going Home" Christmas party tonight will feature the Nick Kearns Combo.

"Jingle Bells" via the Quarter Notes and the Delmonico's will fill the PiKa house today.

Tonight there will be an informal Christmas Dance in Alderman Dorm with music by Les Estorius. Stags are invited.

G. M. SLATE

The only activity scheduled in Graham Memorial today is the Academic Affairs Committee meeting, 2-4 p.m., Woodhouse Conference Room.

Committee Urges More Counselling

Norman B. Smith chairman, and the Committee on Academic Affairs have been studying the problem of inadequate faculty counseling especially in the General College.

The committee has submitted suggestions to Dean Cecil B. Johnson for a more complete counseling program.

Included in the proposed plan are letters sent to each student after the first round of quizzes inviting him to confer with his advisor, a meeting during Orientation Week for advisees to become acquainted with advisers and their duties, special conferences to plan next semester program before pre-registration and publicity regarding the aforementioned items.

In carrying out this program the committee and Dean Johnson plan to utilize all the college's advisers, to establish a closer relationship between faculty and students and to give all students as much counseling as possible.

"I appreciate the interest of the committee in this problem and the very constructive suggestions which have been made. These suggestions will be given careful consideration."

S.C. COED ELECTED

DURHAM, N. C.—AP—A South Carolina coed has been elected editor of the Duke Chronicle, Duke University student newspaper which resumed publication Monday following a 10-day suspension.

INFIRMARY

The following students were in the infirmary yesterday.

MISS ABBEY
... Crowned Saturday

WUNC Junior Ann Ross Abbey Named Rose Of Delta Sigs

Ann Ross Abbey, WUNC junior, was crowned Rose of the Alpha Lambda chapter of Delta Sigma Phi at the fraternity's annual pledge weekend.

The weekend had its official beginning Friday evening with the formal initiation of 20 brothers in the faculty lounge of Carroll Hall.

Later at the house, the Hot Nuts entertained from 9 to 12.

Thirteen contestants for the Delta Sig Rose Queen title gathered at the house for a tea Sat. afternoon.

Judges were Dr. Richard Levin, assistant professor of Industrial Management; Mrs. Douglas Fambrough, office director of GM; and Mrs. Tyndall Harris.

Saturday evening after a cocktail hour at the Chapel Hill Country Club, the brothers and their dates attended a banquet presided over by Ray Fennell.

The banquet program consisted of remarks by Ted Bolic, headmaster; Dr. J. C. D.

Blaine, faculty advisor, and Dr. Claude S. George, assistant dean of the Business Administration School.

The Outstanding Pledge Award was presented to Bill Crocker and Dave Webber. The co-award was the first in many years.

Following a figure formed by the pledges and their dates, the dance began at 8:45 p.m. to the music of Hal Longy's orchestra.

A highlight of the evening was Christmas carols to Kingston trio numbers by the "Five No-Goods" and singling led by Dr. Levin on bass, Dr. George at the piano and Dr. J. Boyd Flynn.

Miss Abbey, a sociology major from Charlotte, was crowned at 10:30 p.m.

The club was decorated in a Christmas motif with wreaths, greenery, Christmas tree, mistletoe and snowflakes. Ray Fennell and the pledge class were in charge of decorations.

LITTLE ANGELS—Just in time for Christmas are these 10 new members of the Air Force ROTC Angel Flight. Recently initiated into the organization by Arnold Air Society members were (L to R) Susie Bernstein, Barbara Faulkner, Nazlee French, Louise Williams; back row, Mi Walton, Sally Lee Harris, Libby Layden, Nan Johnson, Judy Albergotti and Lynn Higgins.
