

Sound & Fury Deferred Until Spring of 1961

Sound and Fury, the annual student talent show, will not be held this year. Howard Henry, Graham Memorial director, said yesterday. The musical has been deferred until the spring of 1961.

Production dates were not late enough to allow writers Bruce Mosney and Lloyd Infinger time to finish the script, he said.

Lateness of spring vacation and the Symposium conflicted with production time. The only dates Memorial Hall is not in use for a long enough period to stage the show is early in March.

The Productions Board will continue to select scripts one year in advance. This, the board believes, will allow more time to finish scripts and for practice.

The show, "Celestina" is a musical play set in an old Spanish tavern.

Epidemic Beyond Control Authorities Claim

The "Pizza-hunger" epidemic is beyond control. That's what authorities are now saying. Apparently no one is too concerned, however, for "pizza-hunger" is one of the most pleasant epidemics to hit Chapel Hill in a long time.

Temporary relief from pizza-hunger may be found by eating a Rathskeller Pizza within an hour after the initial pizza-hunger pangs begin.

A few hours after eating a pizza, pizza-hunger may return, but

Gems of Thought

Calory-conscious coeds should eat tossed salads at The Ramshad Rathskeller because it is always best to lose weight in the right places.

A gem of thought may be food for thought, but pizzas from the Pizzarama will go a long way to delight the taste buds.

Use a telephone number three times and you'll never forget it. Use 8-3141 or 2-2900 more than three times, at least.

The nation is at war, pizzas are better than ever, and the campus should exert a vastly greater pizza-hunger.

Benjamin Carroll Hodgketh, the philosopher, once philosophized: "Be sure to attend the Rathskeller of your choice—regularly." and don't forget, from the woom to the toom, folks zigzag zoom to the Rathskeller Pizzaphones: 8-3141 or 2-2900.
