Tar Heels Meet Wake Forest

With the ACC being a home-court league the location of this game will definitely be an asset to the Tar Heels while making the Deacons task a great deal harder.

Neither one of the two opposing coaches is saying too much about the strategy his team will employ. McGuire has said that he will open with his regular foursome of Lee Shaffer, York Larese, Harvey Salz, and Ray Stanley but that his fifth man could, "be either Doug Moe or Jim Donohue."

McKinney, on the other hand, has not said what he will do but he has stated that his team will not resort to a "slow-down" style of play as was the case in the Classic championship.

Stronger Lineup

The availability of Moe gives Carolina a stronger potential lineup than it enjoyed in the first two games between the rivals. Despite the fact that the junior has not had a standout scoring performance his presence has made the Tar Heels more dangerous to the opposition.

McGuire said that he started Moe in the Clemson game to help get him back into playing shape so he would be ready for the important contests this week. Against the Tigers, Moe scored 10 points and was the Tar Heels top rebound man with 13, two more than Shaffer collected.

"We have played exceptionally well in our last two games," McGuire stated yesterday.

COMMITTEES: AN AGONIZING REAPPRAISAL

To those of you who stay out of your student government because you believe the committee system is just an excuse for inaction, let me cite an example to prove that a committee, properly led and directed, can be a great force for good.

Last week the Student Council met at the Duluth College of Veterinary Medicine and Belles-Lettres to discuss purchasing a new dormat for the students union. It was, I assure you, a desperate problem because Sherwin K. Sigafoos, janitor of the students union, threatened flatly to quit unless a new dormat was installed immediately. "I'm sick and tired of mopping that dirty old floor," said Mr. Sigafoos, sobbing convulsively. (Mr. Sigafoos, once a jolly outgoing sort, has been crying almost steadily since the recent death of his pet wart hog who had been his constant companion for 22 years. Actually, Mr. Sigafoos is much better off without the wart hog, who tusked him viciously at least once a day, but a companionship of 22 years is, I suppose, not lightly relinquished. The college tried to give Mr. Sigafoos a new wart hog—a frisky little fellow with floppy ears and a waggly tail—but Mr. Sigafoos only turned his back and cried the harder.)

But I digress. The Student Council met, discussed the dormat for eight or ten hours, and then referred it to a committee. There were some who scoffed then and said nothing would ever be heard of the dormat again, but they reckoned without Invictus Millstone.

Invictus Millstone, chairman of the dormat committee, was a man of action—like and less and less and, naturally, a smoker of Marlboro Cigarettes. Why do I say "naturally"? Because, dear friends, active men and active women don't have time to fuss and fumble and experiment with cigarettes. They need to be sure their cigarettes will never fail them—that the flavor will always be mild and mellow—that the filter will always filter—that the pack will always be soft or flip-top. In short, they need to be sure it's Marlboro—dependable, constant, tried and true Marlboro. Smoke one. You'll see.

Well sir, Invictus Millstone chaired his dormat committee with such vigor and dispatch that, when the Student Council met only one week later, he was able to rise and deliver the following recommendations:

1. That the college build new schools of botany, hydraulic engineering, tropical medicine, Indo-Germanic languages, and millinery.
2. That the college drop football, put a roof on the stadium, and turn it into a low-cost housing project for married students.
3. That the college raise faculty salaries by $5000 per year across the board.
4. That the college secede from the United States.
5. That the question of a dormat for the students union be referred to a subcommittee.

So let us hear no more defeatist talk about the committee system. It can be made to work!

You don't need a committee to tell you how good Marlboros are. You just need yourself, a Marlboro, and a match. . . Or if you like mildness but you don't like filters, try Marlboro's sister cigarette—Philip Morris.
