

UNC's 1960 Campus Chest Drive Kickoff Scheduled To Begin Next Week

President Friday's Statement

To the students and members of the faculty:

I should like to add my support to the 1960 Campus Chest Drive which begins March 2.

This is our united effort for worthy causes and I should like to urge everyone to participate in the 1960 campaign.

1960 marks World Refugee Year and our contributions will aid Korean refugee students.

Our contributions will provide also for our participation in the Foster Parent Plan.

Thirty per cent of our gifts will go to support our Goettingen exchange program.

These are worthwhile causes that merit our generous support.

William Friday,
President of the Consolidated
University of North Carolina

"Your drive. Your goal. Your responsibility."

These words will spark the 1960 Campus Chest Drive, scheduled for kickoff one week from today.

What is the Campus Chest? This week-long drive is sponsored annually by Student Government and the YM-YWCA to provide the students with an opportunity to donate funds in one united effort in the interest of charity.

Each spring the Campus Chest Board, on behalf of the student body, selects three projects to benefit from the drive.

Since 1960 marks World Refugee Year, the board, headed by Nancy Awbrey and Jim Crawford, decided to concentrate efforts on international assistance to those unable to help themselves.

The $3,000 goal will be divided with 50% going to aid Korean refugee students through the World University Service! 30% will help defray the travel expenses of the UNC student selected to study at Goettingen University in Germany for one year under the student exchange program, and the remaining 20% will provide for the adoption of four European orphans by the student body through the national Foster Parent Plan.

As a kick-off for the Drive, a campus-wide auction will be held next Tuesday in Gerrard Hall at 8 p.m. Anyone or any group wishing to donate items may contact Mariel O'Dell at 8-9194.

Gray Issues Statement

Student Body President Charlie Gray issued the following statement yesterday concerning the 1960 Campus Chest drive:

"Starting with the week of March 2-9, Student Government, in connection with the YM-YWCA, will begin its worthwhile project of the year—the Campus Chest.

"This fund-raising project affords our university community its only chance to unite and give for the betterment of our world society.

"Since this year is World Refugee Year, a large portion of the fund will be devoted to the international scene, specifically through our support of World University Service and the Goettingen Exchange Scholarship. The final portion will go toward the adoption of a family through the Foster Parent Plan.

"These three projects are as worthy as any we could choose to sponsor.

"Your drive, your goal, your responsibility"—this is the slogan of this year's campaign. Let us realize that this is our Campus Chest and it is our responsibility to see that it succeeds.

"I urge all students to give generously so as to make this year's drive the most successful one in the history of the Campus Chest."

WEATHER

Increasing cloudiness and rather cold today with rain likely by tonight.

The Daily Tar Heel

67 years of dedicated service in a better University, a better state and a better nation by one of America's great college papers whose motto states: "freedom of expression is the backbone of an academic community."

VOLUME LCVIII, NO. 103 Complete Wire Service CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1960 Offices in Graham Memorial FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Fraternities Present Plan To Re-Zone Town Property

By PETER NESS

Fraternities and townspeople locked horns at a joint meeting of the Chapel Hill Planning Board and Board of Aldermen Monday night when nine fraternities presented a plan for re-zoning property and for creating a new fraternity court.

Sentimentality, emotionalism and frank verbal exchanges marked the atmosphere as advocates for re-zoning the area presently bounded by Cameron Ave., McCauley, Pittsboro and Ransom Sts. unfolded their proposal to change from R-6 (residential) to RA-10 (residential-fraternity) zoning.

Peaceful development versus orderly and regulated development arose as the core of the discussion. A spokesman for the property owners stated that "until you make fraternities the neighbors we wish to have, regulate the problems of noise and automobiles which the proposed fraternity court would create and assure us that the area will be uniformly developed, the residents and property owners are inclined to stand against this move."

Another property owner elaborated on this statement by adding, "some people are reluctant (referring to the proposal) but the majority is not opposed to an orderly planned movement."

Fred Weaver, dean of student affairs, was present at the meeting and made the following statement to clarify the University's stand on the proposal: "The University is not pressing or advocating for property re-zoning on its own; but as a land owner, in the area under consideration, it is agreeable. The University would be glad to lend its 'good offices' to designate some people to assist in bringing property owners and prospective fraternity buyers together."

Dean Weaver added that "we (the University) did not enter the re-zoning proposal to force property owners to sell, but rather because some of the owners suggested to University officials that they would like to rezone."

In presenting the case for fraternities, finances, present inadequate structures and future expansion were listed as reasons for re-zoning the area. John Rend, incumbent president for the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, one of the nine interested in obtaining property in the proposed area, told of the present inadequacy of fraternities and the need for up-to-date houses. In regard to this particular area, Rend said his fraternity was "in favor of unit buying. We don't expect to enter one at a time. That would be a money-losing proposition."

The proposed fraternity court would feature nine houses, styled after Georgian architecture and would have a football field-sized playfield and adequate parking for 325 automobiles. Brick construction of the houses is also in the tentative plans.

The Board of Aldermen referred the proposal back to the planning board for further study. After clarification of several matters, the proposal will be voted upon by the Board at a future date.

eration, it is agreeable. The University would be glad to lend its "good offices" to designate some people to assist in bringing property owners and prospective fraternity buyers together."

Dean Weaver added that "we (the University) did not enter the re-zoning proposal to force property owners to sell, but rather because some of the owners suggested to University officials that they would like to rezone."

In presenting the case for fraternities, finances, present inadequate structures and future expansion were listed as reasons for re-zoning the area. John Rend, incumbent president for the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, one of the nine interested in obtaining property in the proposed area, told of the present inadequacy of

Leading U.S. Social Scientist, Dr. Ira Reid, To Speak Tonight

One of the country's leading social scientists, Dr. Ira Reid, will speak at 8 p.m. tonight in Hill Hall.

The title of his talk is "The World Speaks to the Universities."

Dr. Reid, sponsored by the Carolina Forum, is appearing this evening as part of the International Emphasis Week.

Born in Clifton Forge, Va., Dr. Reid received his degrees from Morehouse College, the University of Pittsburgh, and Columbia University. Since 1947 he has held the position of professor of sociology at Haverford College.

Among the many important positions held by Dr. Reid, now and in the past, are trustee-director at the United Nations, member of the Federal Advisory Commission on Employment Security, U. S. Department of Labor, and social economist on the Social Security Board, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Villev, Harvard, To Speak Here Tonight

Dr. Claude A. Villev of the Harvard University School of Medicine will deliver the fifth annual Lee B. Jenkins Memorial Lecture at the School of Medicine tonight.

The guest speaker, who is an associate professor of biological chemistry at Harvard, was associated with the UNC zoology faculty from 1942 to 1945. Dr. Villev will speak on "Metabolic Effects of Adrenal Cortical Hormones."

The Jenkins Lecture was established in honor of her late husband, a distinguished industrialist of that city.

G. M. SLATE

Activities scheduled in Graham Memorial today include: Senior class officers, 2-3 p.m., Woodhouse; Terry Sanford Supporters, 2:30-3:15 p.m., Roland Parker II and III; Publications Board, 3-5 p.m., Grail; International Student Board, 4-6 p.m., Woodhouse; Budget Committee, 4-6 p.m., Roland Parker I; House Committee, 5-6 p.m., T.V. Room; Panhellenic Council, 5-6 p.m., Grail; Carolina Woman's Council, 7-8:30 p.m., Grail; Chess Club, 7-11 p.m., Roland Parker III; Campus Committee, 9-11 p.m., Woodhouse; Malcolm Seawell Reception, 9 p.m., Main Lounge.

Your Symposium

Year Committee's Job To Orient Symposium

"Orientation to this year's Symposium is the main purpose of the Symposium 'Year' Committee,"

MARK WILSON
Committee Head

explained Mark Wilson, chairman. "We are trying to prepare the campus for the week of Symposium through such measures as discussion in dormitories, fraternities and sororities, and also by making available pertinent literature." Responsibility for the literature involves the publication and distribution of reading lists.

The committee's name "Year," is drawn from the activity of the committee which continues throughout the year.

Wilson, a senior, is an English major from Chattanooga, Tenn. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and vice president of the Westminster Fellowship, the student Presbyterian organization. He is active in YMCA work and is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity.

Working with his on Symposium's year-wide orientation program are Hugh Ragsdale, Julie Redhead, Frances Reynolds and Louise Schimmelpenny.

UP Names David Grigg For Top Post

UP GO JIM AND LEE—Lee Shaffer and Jim Hudock go after a rebound under the Maryland basket. (Photo by Charlie Blumenthal)

Bob Sevier, Smalley, Miss Albergotti Named

As expected, the University Party nominated David Grigg for Student Body President last night.

Grigg, a junior, is the current Vice President of the Student Body, and from Albemarle, N. C.

In other action, the group nominated sophomore Bob Sevier for Vice President, junior Judy Albergotti for Secretary and junior Jimmy Smalley for Treasurer of the Student Body.

Also: Tim McCoy was selected as the candidate for Head Cheerleader and Don Black was elected University Party chairman.

Grigg was nominated for President along with Angus Duff, who has been in the race for the top post since Friday as an independent candidate.

Duff read a statement to the assembled members and asked that his name be withdrawn from consideration.

He said, "Due to my explicit and sincere beliefs, which I firmly believe that each person in this room upholds within himself, and because of my extreme interest in developing the five points of my platform, I regret that I must withdraw by name from consideration."

Following this action, the UP nominated Grigg by acclamation.

In seeking the party endorsement, Grigg said, "This past year the executive branch of student government under the leadership of President Charlie Gray has had the most successful administration in recent years.

"This is not only my opinion, but it is shared by others who have had a better vantage point than I. The executive has not been afraid to start something new.

"The executive branch of student government in the hands of the University Party leadership has served the entire campus and it has served it well. Thus, the age old claim that the UP could not serve the campus as a whole is flatly refuted," Grigg added.

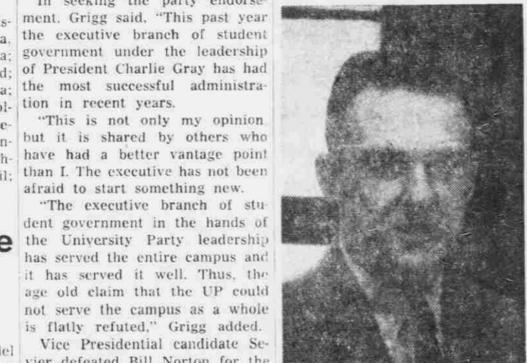

Vice Presidential candidate Sevier defeated Bill Norton for the nomination. Norton was nominated for that post by the Student Party on Monday night.

Sevier said, "Again tonight, I am seeking your assistance, and if you grant it, there is no way I would rather repay you than by campaigning with diligence, with pride in your endorsement, and for your interests."

Miss Albergotti was nominated for Secretary along with Gertie Barnes. With over 450 votes cast, the margin between the two candidates was so close that a re-

DAVID GRIGG
... for president

BOB SEVIER
... for vice president

count was ordered. The issue was in doubt until the final votes had been tabulated and again, re-tabulated. Miss Albergotti was adjudged to be the winner of the contest.

Nominated along with Smalley for Treasurer was Jay Deifell.

McCoy was selected for the Head Cheerleader post by acclamation. Black was elected party chairman in a similar manner.

Twenty-one Schools To Represent 24 Nations At UN Model Assembly

Twenty-one schools representing 24 countries will be present Thursday for the United Nations Model Assembly. Opening with a speech by Dr. Frank P. Graham, U.N. mediator, the assembly program will last through Saturday.

The Assembly will be organized into four committees. All committee and plenary sessions will be open to the public. The committee meeting places are the Political, third floor, New West; Special Political, third floor, New East; Socio-Economic, Grail Room in Graham Memorial; Ad Hoc, Roland Parker, GM.

The issues which will be discussed by these committees are, respectively, "Refugees of Eastern Europe and the Middle East," "Initial Steps to Disarmament," "Discrimination in Southwest Africa," and "Revision of the U.N. Charter."

Committee meetings will be held from 4 to 5 p.m. Thursday, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 1:30 to 6 p.m. Friday. The plenary sessions will be held in Hill Hall from 8 to 9 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

Colleges and countries represented are West Point, U.S.; Appalachian State Teachers, United Kingdom and Australia; Louisville, Sweden; Pembroke, Norway; St. Augustine's, France; High Point, China; Warren Wilson, United Arab Republic; A and T, Ghana; Duke, Russia; N. C. State, Israel; Mars Hill, Liberia; Catawba, Bulgaria; Meredith, Venezuela; Duke Women's College, Poland; William and Mary, Yugoslavia; Randolph Macon's Women's College, Cuba; UNC, Japan and Lebanon; Sacred Heart, India; Montreat, Romania; Stratford, Czechoslovakia; Sweetbriar, Brazil; Charlotte, Pakistan.

Satirical Comedy, 'Volpone,' Opens Tonight For 5 Nights

Ben Jonson's satirical comedy, "Volpone," will open tonight in the Playmakers Theatre for a five-night run. Although located in Venice during the Renaissance, the impact of its comments on greed and avarice are timely today.

Kai Jurgensen will be seen in the title role of "Volpone." He is a staff member of the Department of Dramatic Art and has directed such productions as "Blood Wedding" and "Peer Gynt." This is his first acting role in several years.

Condition Of Wreck Victims Remains Same

The condition of three UNC students injured in a Sunday afternoon auto wreck near Chapel Hill in which two persons were killed remains the same.

Still on the critical list is Mark Brooke, a freshman Zeta Psi pledge who was driving two Briarcliff College seniors to the Raleigh-Durham Airport at the time of the collision. He has not yet regained consciousness.

Listed as fair are Charles LaForte, also a Zeta pledge who was a passenger in the other car involved, and Edward Whitehurst, the driver of the car in which LaForte was riding.

Sanford Committee Meet Set

Students interested in serving with Terry Sanford's Young Voters' Program Committee at UNC have been invited to the organizational meeting in Graham Memorial's Roland Parker II and III at 2:30 p.m.

Sanford has entered the North Carolina gubernatorial race against John Larkins Jr. and Malcolm Seawell.

Committee work will mainly be to tell friends and relatives both at school and at home about Sanford; to register and vote and to encourage others to do so; to help with office work, Jim Crownover, Young Voters chairman said Tuesday.

Jim Hunt, State Assistant Manager of the Terry Sanford Young Voters' Program, will be at the meeting which will also feature Daily Tar Heel Editor Davis Young who will explain the paper's position on the gubernatorial race.

The official banner hanging and office opening of the local Program headquarters above the old Chuck Wagon Restaurant will conclude the meeting. Sanford will make his first official appearance of the campaign in Chapel Hill March 9 when he will speak at a meeting of the Young Democratic Club.