47 paintings from the famed Edward W. Root Collection are currently on view at the Ackland Memorial Art Center,

Called 20th Century American Paintings," the exhibition contains works by 23 artists whose styles range from the realism of the 'ashean' school to the abstractions and non-objective paintings of today.

The exhibit has been lent to UNC by the Munson-Williams-Procter Institute, recipient of the Root bequest, and is being circulated nationally by the Smithsonian Institute Traveling Exhibition Service.

The art Center is open on Sundays from 2 to 5 p.m.; on Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Tuesday through Friday, 2:30 to 5 p.m., and 8 to 10 p.m. The galleries are closed on Mondays.

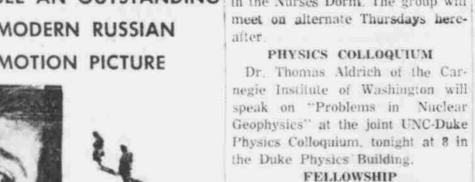

The current show may be seen students who will attend tonight's opening of the Carolina Playuntil March 15.
