

WEATHER

Mostly sunny and cold today with high temperatures in low 50s.

The Daily Tar Heel

67 years of dedicated service to a better University, a better state and a better nation by one of America's great college papers, whose motto states, "freedom of expression is the backbone of an academic community."

VOLUME LXVIII, NO. 108

Complete Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1960

Offices in Graham Memorial

MAR 2 1960

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Student Party Nominates Bill Harris, Jane Brown

By HARVE HARRIS

Bill Harris won endorsement for Student Government Treasurer and Jane Brown received nomination for Secretary in last night's Student Party Meeting.

Both candidates will run on a slate that includes presidential nominee Phil Edwards and vice-presidential nominee Bill Norton, named in last week's SP session.

The party voted to not endorse either of the announced candidates for The Daily Tar Heel Editor. Both Ed Riner and Jonathan Yardley sought the SP endorsement.

A letter from the Carolina Women's Council suggesting that coffee breaks be held to allow presidential and editorial candidates to speak to coeds was read to the body.

Other candidates would not speak under the CWC plan, but would mingle and attempt to gain support. Financing for the meeting would come from the party funds.

A motion to not follow the suggestion of the CWC was up held following a report of SP finances by treasurer Pete Thompson.

Nominated against Harris was Jimmy Smalley who last week received University Party endorsement for treasurer. Judy Albergott, nominated against Miss Brown, received UP endorsement by UP last week also.

Norman B. Smith interjected into the discussion of the candidates that the Student Party had a history of nominating the most qualified candidates despite party affiliation and that it was the party's duty to continue to do so.

Harris, a sophomore pre-med student, won the nomination by a vote of 23-7. Miss Brown won by 16-15, and Norman B. Smith called for a re-vote.

A motion to not have a re-vote was upheld and Miss Brown's one point margin carried.

The party moved to adjourn and to meet next week on both Monday and Tuesday nights. The adjournment motion came as endorsements for Student Legislature became the next order of business.

Ed Riner, Tar Heel Co-News Editor Enters Contest For Paper's Top Post

Grigg Names Campaign Leaders; Duff Views Student Government

David Grigg yesterday named Jim Crowover as the coordinator of his campaign for president of the student body.

Grigg stated that with his experience in student government and his organizing ability, Crowover will be invaluable during the coming weeks of campaigning.

Four outstanding student leaders will be working with coordinator Crowover in order to obtain more complete campus coverage. Each of these students, experienced in some phase of student government, will concentrate on one particular area.

Heading the campaigning in the women's dormitories will be Anne Terry, member of Student Legislature.

Grigg described Miss Terry as "a person with remarkable energy and an amazing capacity for doing things well. I am convinced that she will do an excellent job in handling this aspect of the campaign."

A leader in almost every phase of student activity, Sophie Martin will coordinate the presidential campaign among the sororities. Tapped by The Valkyries last year Miss Martin "is highly regarded and is a person of unquestioned ability and good judgment," according to Grigg.

Bob Thompson will be in charge of the program in the men's dormitories. Thompson is influential in both student and dormitory government and a chairman of the Campus Affairs Board.

Grigg said, "I have the utmost confidence in Bob's ability, and I feel indeed fortunate to have him working for me in this campaign."

Finally, Bill Crutchfield, a Morehead Scholar and a member of Student Legislature and Men's Honor Council, has been chosen to organize Grigg's campaign in the fraternities.

Grigg stated that he felt indeed fortunate that Crutchfield has accepted this position. "I have tremendous faith in his leadership ability," the presidential nominee said.

Grigg also announced that he would sincerely appreciate the help of anyone who is interested in working with him in this campaign which he hopes to make as far reaching as possible.

Angus Duff, candidate for president of the Student Body, issued the following statement to the Daily Tar Heel Monday. In his statement, Duff expounded his views on student government.

"My whole campaign will be centered around a very deep and extreme interest in developing campus-wide representation, with everyone being influential in the overall program which ensues from an effective student autonomy," he said.

Duff continued: "If we are democratic to any extent, the entire student body must be represented from all campus factions. We cannot have the powers of administration, legislation, and judiciary in the hands of a few."

Duff said he wished to make it explicitly clear to all that he is skeptical of campus party politics and against any sort of political machine. His ultimate goal is for the students to be subjected to the real issues so that an intelligent decision can be made and a meaningful vote cast.

"It will be almost impossible to control what my supporters do and say, but I will conduct my campaign strictly on my own convictions, motivated by a sincere desire to correct or amend obvious errors on this campus and to institute popular reforms, never mentioning my opponent's deficiencies."

"I am running on my own record and merits, rather than their demerits. Win, lose, or draw, I can have no qualms when sincerity and honesty are the foundations of my actions," he said. Speaking arrangements in the various dorms and houses will be handled by individuals living within those areas.

Each men's dorm, woman's dorm, fraternity and sorority will be visited within the next three weeks. Duff said he will gladly attend all public meetings and open forums. He can be reached at 2-1558 or 2-1780. "Any person interested in aiding in my campaign efforts will be welcome," he declared.

In summary, Duff added, "If elected Student Body President, I will be indebted to the student body at large, and not to either political party. I promise that every group which actively participates in student government will be equally represented in the total workings of our existing autonomy. Again, let me place heavy emphasis on my independent candidacy."

Sigma Chi Wins Top Honors In Field Events

Sigma Chi took top honors with 21 points in Monday's field day opening the annual "Greek Week."

A triple tie of 20 points for second place went to Delta Kappa Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta and Phi Gamma Delta.

During "Greek Week" the 600 pledges from all 24 fraternities on the campus contribute their muscles and know-how to some work project.

Today from 2-5 p.m. they are assisting the local Jaycees in cleaning up the grounds of the Chapel Hill recreation park for children.

Highlights of the week include a carnival with side shows Wednesday at the Intramural field from 4-6 p.m. and exchange dinners between the fraternities.

George Campbell of High Point, a DKE, is chairman of the week's activities. Students assisting him include Jim Galloway, David Evans, Bill Stern, Archie Patterson, Jim Copeland, Josh Sirkin, Kent Walker and Jim Inscow.

Aims For First-Rate Campus Newspaper

Ed Riner, co-news editor of The Daily Tar Heel, Monday announced his candidacy for the editorship of the newspaper.

His decision to enter the race, was prompted by the desire "to make The Daily Tar Heel a first-rate campus newspaper, instead of a second-rate commercial paper," he said.

Riner, a journalism major, pointed out that state, national and international news will not be neglected in the paper, although campus happenings will come first. The entire left-hand column of the front page will be devoted to capsule reports on important state, national and world events.

"Space limitations prevent the DTH from adequately covering the national and international scene. Therefore 'better results can be achieved by devoting part of the front page to a summary of world news, instead of running two or three long Associated Press news stories," Riner said.

"The Daily Tar Heel is not in

ED RINER

competition with the large city dailies, and consequently the excessive use of AP stories and wire newsphotos will prevent the paper from meeting its responsibility to the students," he added.

Riner explained that the editorial page will still carry editorials and columns on national and world issues, but will emphasize campus events. In addition to keeping the campus informed on current happenings, it is the paper's job to interpret the news for its readers so that the students will be aware of its implications. "This will be the function of the editorial page," he said.

A rising senior from Rocky Mount, Riner has been actively connected with The Daily Tar Heel for the past year and a half. Before assuming the position of co-news editor, he served as a reporter and assistant news editor.

In addition to his work on the DTH, Riner has worked on the Rocky Mount Evening Telegram for the past four summers. In addition to reporting duties, Riner served as the Sunday editor for four weeks. This summer he will be on the staff of The Charlotte News.

He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, professional Journalistic fraternity and is treasurer of the UNC Press Club.

The candidate is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity, on the Graham Memorial Board of Directors, co-chairman of the GMAF Publicity Committee and is a delegation chairman for the Mock Democratic National Convention. He has also served as vice president-secretary and art director of the Cardboard Club and has been an Orientation counselor for the past two years.

Riner stated that he would make further statements on specific changes and editorial policy in later issues of The Daily Tar Heel.

UP MEET SET

The University Party meets tonight, Women's Athletic Association at 9:30 to nominate for Carolina Athletic Association president, Yackety Yack editor and to endorse for The Daily Tar Heel editor.

G. M. SLATE

Activities scheduled today in Graham Memorial include the following:

Motor Vehicles Advisory Committee, 2-4 p.m.; Woodhouse; Orientation Committee, 2-5 p.m.; Roland Parker No. 3; Audit Board, 4-6 p.m.; Grail; Ways and Means Committee, 4-6 p.m.; Woodhouse; Social Chairman - Women's Dorms, 7-8 p.m.; Roland Parker No. 2; Wamman's Residence Council, 7-9 p.m.; Grail; Traffic Court, 7:30-11 p.m.; Woodhouse and Petite Musicale, 8 p.m.; Hill Hall.

Parker, Copland Direct Small Campus Meeting

By MARY STEWART BAKER

The classroom and departmental seminars of the 1960 Carolina Symposium are being directed under the co-chairmanship of David Parker, a senior English major, and James R. Copland, a sophomore working toward his B. A. degree.

The purpose of this committee is to reinforce and supplement the symposium's general theme, "The Image of Man," by means of smaller meetings on campus in the form of panel discussion, lectures in classrooms and departmental meetings. The committee is also planning meetings on campus and in the town of Chapel Hill.

David Parker of Raleigh is a Morehead Scholar now preparing for Medical School. He entered as part of the Freshman Honor Program and served with the symposium in 1958. He is a member of The Order of the Old Well and belongs to Phi Kappa Alpha, social fraternity. His main activity this past year, besides symposium work, was the Orientation program, of which he was chairman.

The other co-chairman of the 16-member committee is Jim Copland, of Burlington, where he graduated from Walter Williams High School. Copland's activities at UNC include membership in the Interfraternity Council, the Traffic and Rules Committee and Phi Kappa Alpha. He is a Morehead Scholar and belongs to Phi Eta Sigma, Freshman Honorary Society.

PARKER

COPLAND

Miss Zschau To Perform Here Tonight

Miss Marilyn Zschau of Raleigh and Chapel Hill will be featured in tonight's GM Petite Musicale at 8 in Hill Hall.

The performance was originally scheduled for February 14, but was postponed because of snow.

Miss Zschau, a mezzo-soprano, is well-known throughout the state for her performances in UNC musical productions, ranging from opera through grand opera and recitals.

She is the current recipient of the UNC Extension Division's Institute of Opera Scholarship for vocal study under Walter Golde, now residing in Chapel Hill.

Accompanied by Golde, Miss Zschau will sing operatic arias by Verdi and Saint-Saens, as well as songs from Germany, France, Russia, and the United States.

No admission will be charged for the program.

INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary Monday included

Edith Rogers, Sarah Karraker, Ina Broadwell, Sharon Sullivan, Betty Greene, John Jones, Thomas Hood, Bryan Phelps, Carrell Pretlow, Bryan Grimes, Edward Beck, Paul Pulley, Kenneth Baucom, Robert Davis and Chandler Van Orman.

Series, 'Stage, Actor, Play,' Scheduled By Freshmen Forum

"The Stage, the Actor and the Play," a series of four weekly presentations planned by the Freshmen Forum and open to the public will be initiated Thursday, with a program entitled "The What and How of the Theatre."

Consisting of an explanation and demonstration of the effects of stage lighting design, costume, and makeup, this program will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Playmakers Theater.

"The Nature of Acting" will be the topic of the second of the series to be presented March 10. Methods and types of acting will be illustrated, and readings from outstanding dramatic works will be presented by students of the Dramatic Arts Department.

Paul Green, Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright, will be the featured guest at the March 17 program, "Fixin's" a one-act play by Green will be performed for the audience, followed by comments on the presentation by the author.

The final program in the series, March 24, will deal with Tennessee Williams' play, "Summer and Smoke." Following a discussion of the play, members of the group will attend the Carolina Playmaker performance of the play.

Tickets for this production will be available for freshmen at the reduced rate of $1.

Assisting Robin Britt, publicity chairman of Freshman Forum, are Glenn Vernon, Carolina Playmakers publicity director, Jack Raper, president of the YMCA, Fred Weiss, Tom Eurlieh and Bill Sugg.

Dean's list students are James Sherman Belk, Kenneth Marvin Burke, Clinton Elliott Burnham, Charles Albert Carver III.

Geoffrey Churchill, Clyde Osborne Draughton Jr., Johnny Wayne Ellis, Robert A. Gibbons Jr., Jack Powell Gulley, Michael Orman Hill, William David Hoover.

Robert Laverne Joyner, Jan Witold Karcz, Rudolph Phillip Lamone.

Clyde Toby Left, James Carroll McColl, Sterling G. McDevitt Jr., Malcolm Hector McLean III, Jack Harrington McMillan, Clifton Darrell Mann, Joseph Milam Jr., William Cecil Perry and Ralph Alexander White Jr.

Campus Chest's New Idea In Fund Raising:

Flying Lessons To African Violet To Be Featured

by BLAKE GREEN

The Campus Chest Auction, a new idea in the annual university-wide drive to collect money for the Campus Chest fund, will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in Gerrard Hall.

Featuring such items as flying lessons, the treasured African Violet of Dean Katherine Carmichael, and dates with "campus queens," the auction will consist of articles donated by fraternities, sororities, men and women's dorms, faculty members and downtown merchants.

Ty Boyd, announcer on Radio Station WCHL, will auction the articles to students on a buy now-pay later basis.

Money bids at the auction will be collected within the next week, March 2-9, when Campus Chest solicitors start their campus-wide collection drive.

A special attraction of the night will be a Chinese auction in which is passed through the crowd while a gong is rung for several minutes. Members of the audience put dimes in the basket, and when the gong stops, whoever has his hand in the basket at that time wins an object from the stage.

The Carolina Gentlemen will entertain the audience at intermission.

Mariel O'Dell, chairman of publicity for the auction, released a partial list of items to be auctioned and remarked that "fraternity, sorority and dorm donations are still coming in with estimated total of 50 to 75 items expected."

"We hope that the sororities, fraternities and dorms will come to the auction and sit in groups as there will be several items of interest to larger groups."

Items to be auctioned and their donors include the following:

1. Three flying lessons and airplane rides around Chapel Hill and vicinity. (Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity.)
2. African Violet plant. (Miss Katherine Carmichael.)
3. Sunday all-you-can-eat-buffet for two. (Ranch House.)
4. Two large pizzas and a half gallon of cider. (Rathskeller.)
5. Gallon of ice cream and 30 minutes behind the counter making your own special sundae. (The Dairy Bar.)
6. Goal post from the Duke-Carolina game. (Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.)
7. Dates with "campus queens."
8. Twenty car washes. (Carr Dorm.)
9. Two free bids to Spring Germans. (Germans Club.)
10. Fifth of pink champagne. (Chi Omega Sorority.)
11. Cake. (Thell's Bakery.)
12. Beverage. (The Goody Shop.)
13. Eight passes to the Varsity Theatre
14. Frank Crowther auctioned by Davis Young.
15. The editorial column of the Daily Tar Heel for one day.
16. Spaghetti supper for four any Sunday night. (Dr. Boyd and wife.)
17. One pair of girls' or boys' Madras bermudas. (Town and Campus.)
18. "Surprise package." (Kappa Delta Sorority)

19. Beverage. (Tempo Room.)
20. Twenty-two passes to the Carolina Theatre.
21. White shetland blazer (girl's). (J. B. Robbins.)
22. Lubrication and oil change. (University Service Station.)
23. Autographed basketball—all members of the team. (Coach McGuire.)
24. Three membership cards and one case beverage. (Patio.)
25. Boy's sweater. (Stevens-Shepherd's.)
26. Cake. (The Porthole.)
27. Box of fudge, box of candy. (Danziger.)
28. Six hair cuts. (Tar Heel Barber Shop.)
29. One cheese cake. (The Carolina Coffee Shop.)
30. Boy's shetland sweater; one pair argyle socks. (Milton's.)
31. Two upholstered chairs. (St. Anthony's Hall.)
32. Five books. (Dr. Edge.)
33. Five car washes. (Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.)
34. A date with "Miss Venus" and a dinner for two at the Ranch House. (Sigma Chi Fraternity.)
35. One Hair styling, including shampoo and wave. (Aesthetic Beauty Salon.)
36. Favorite pipe. (Chancellor Emeritus House.)
37. Ten "bar maids" and ten "waitresses". (Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.)
39. One piano. (Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.)
40. Picture. (Chi Psi Lodge.)
41. Twenty-four hours of silence. (Susan Lewis.)
42. Four records. (Kemp's.)