

Carolina's Intramural Athletes Capture Big 4 Title

By KUSTY HAMMOND
Carolina's all-star softball team blasted Duke 20-6 to give them third place in the sport and victory in the Annual Big Four Sports Day held yesterday at UNC.

Carolina rolled to 24 points, trailed closely by State with 23. Had the Tar Heels lost the big softball game, State would have pulled to a tie. An upset victory in tennis singles by Jim Holland gave Carolina third place in that sport, enabling the softball team to bring home the big win.

In third place was Wake Forest with 21 points. Fourth was Duke with 20 in the closest Big Four race in the event's history. The victory broke a three year losing streak for Carolina.

Carolina led early and held on grimly, taking firsts in handball, table tennis and badminton. State swept horseshoes, and softball. Duke won tennis and golf; and Wake took volleyball.

Joe Perry, York Larese, Dick Cole, Doug Moe and Charlie Schraeder swept to victory for Carolina in handball. Wake was second. State third and Duke fourth.

Duke's Ronnie Law fired a 72 to lead his mates to victory in golf. Other team members were Dave Franklin, Jerry Dick and Ty Porter. Jim McColl fired a 77 for Carolina. The other teams were UNC, 3-Wake, 4-State.

Carolina won table tennis with Frank and Walt Sabiston. Mike Thompson and Finley Merry doing the honors. State was second. Duke third and Wake fourth.

State, with Bill Apple, Tom Pearson, Jim Mauney, Bill Bowers and Ed Speight, won horseshoes; with Wake second, Duke third and Carolina fourth.

Mack and Jack Rugheimer, J. D. Memory, Don Vinnik and Paul Rollins led Carolina to a first in badminton. State was second, Duke third and Wake fourth.

Wake Forest took volleyball, followed by State, Duke and Carolina in that order.

Duke won tennis with a team of Gary Lunsford, Brad Reed, Buckey Stanton, Sam LeBeuer and Allen Silber. Wake was second, Carolina an important third and State fourth.

Tracksters Face State

Carolina's varsity track team, bouncing from meet to meet like a deranged ping pong ball, takes on its fourth ACC opponent in eleven days tonight as NC State lures the Tar Heels over to Raleigh for a rare meet under the lights.

The Virginia meet did have at least two bright spots despite the loss. One was a 49' 3" heave of the shot by sophomore Kenny McComb, who could well be headed for an ACC gold medal. And the other was a whistling 3:21.5 for the mile relay team.

Jim Smith's Five Hits (Two HR's Included) Back Carl Eanes Hurling In 20-8 Duke Rout

Fortified with the knowledge that a win in the contest would clinch the Big 4 title for Carolina, an intramural All-Star softball team rallied from a one-run deficit and literally swept Duke off the field by a final margin of 20-8.

Jim Smith was the unconditional hero of the day for the softballers. Smith rapped three hits in the earlier 3-0 loss to N. C. State and blasted two homers and a double, going five-for-five in the rout of the Blue Devils. He was eight-for-eight on the day.

Carl Eanes was the pitching standout for the victorious Tar Heels. Eanes relieved Wally Graham in the third inning and controlled Duke with ease for the remainder of the route.

Ralph Holthouser tripled and scored on Harvey Salz's prodigious circuit clout to initiate proceedings for the winners. Larry Frederick doubled, Smith doubled and both came around on infield outs.

Duke rallied for six in the third to take the lead, 6-5. But Carolina tied it on singles by Fred Fearing, the first of Pete Farrior's four bingles and base-knocks by Eanes and Holthouser. Duke went ahead again, 7-6, on Art Heyman's homer in the fourth. Smith tied it again with a long four-bagger down the left-field line.

Then the dam burst in the fifth. Eanes walked, Holthouser rapped up his third hit, Frederick singled. Smith bombed his second home run. Dan Lotz walked, Fearing drew a free pass, Farrior singled, Wayne Babb and Eanes followed suit. It was 13-8.

But the locals weren't through. In the sixth, Frederick walked, Smith collected his eighth straight hit, Lotz walked, Fearing walked, Farrior singled, Tom Cordle singled, Eanes walked, Al Daniels got a base-knock, and Frederick singled again. With an insurmountable twelve-run deficit the boys from Duke threw in the towel.

The outstanding performer on an overall basis was State's strong chucker, Bob McCracken, who threw two straight shutouts to sew up the softball diadem for the Wolfpack. Dan Lotz, who had two solid raps and the ever-present Jim Smith were the only Heels who were able to solve McCracken's slants. Salz and Frederick got the other bingles.

However Carolina made some vital lineup changes for the second and got the win that decided the day.

Warren's 3-Hitter Downs Terps

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — Surging North Carolina, fresh from three victories last week, beat Maryland's baseball team 10-3 Monday as clean-up hitter John Burgwyn smashed four of the 10 Tar Heel hits.

Burgwyn, going 4 for 5 at bat, knocking in two runs and scoring twice himself, helped sophomore Nick Warren to his first victory. The bespectacled 6-foot hurler had excellent control, walking only one and striking out six while holding the Terps to three hits.

Warren didn't give up a hit until the fourth inning when Phil Rogers homered over the right-centerfield fence. The other two Terp safeties off the Tar Heel righthander were singles, one a bad-hop grounder.

North Carolina scored three runs in the third as eight men went to bat and two runs came in on Tommy Saintsing's single. Larry Craver singled two men home in the fifth.

when a pair of Maryland errors leaked in four unearned runs.

North Carolina, stepping into the thick of the Atlantic Coast Conference race, has a 5-3 record in the league and 14-6 in all games. Maryland is 4-5 in the ACC and 6-7 in all games.

State Wins Rod & Gun

State College took two of three first places here yesterday to wrap up the Fourth Annual Big Four Rod & Gun Field Meet.

The Pack rolled to wins in Archery and Target Rifle, with Jim Tate and Harry Golder winning respectively. Doug Dean of Wake Forest won the bait casting.

State had 12 points, followed by Wake with 10 and Carolina with 8. Duke did not enter.

It was State's second straight victory.

BIG FOUR CHAMP — Joe Perry won the handball singles yesterday, Carolina won the Handball crown, and the Tar Heels racked up 24 points and their seventh Big Four Sports Day championship. State was a close second with 23.

Sylvia Blasts Cullen; Heels Down Wake, 7-2

Revenge is sweet.

With over 200 tennis fans looking on, Carolina's Bruce Sylvia took his vengeance upon Wake Forest's Bill Cullen, last year's Atlantic Coast Conference singles champion, defeating him convincingly in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1.

Right from the opening serve of the first game it was evident that Sylvia was out to avenge last year's loss to Cullen. Using his booming serve and placing three shots very well, he won the first game from Cullen without the loss of a point. After dropping the second, Bruce came back to win the third, fourth and fifth games with his forcing net game. Time after time he caught the freckle-faced, red-headed Deacon off balance with his placement shots. However, in the sixth and seventh games, the Tar Heel was reluctant to use his force game. Reluctance left in the eighth which he won, and the ninth which he captured without loss of a single point for the first set. Score: 6-3.

The second set was all Sylvia. Cullen used his undercutting backhand and several drop shots to take the first game, but could not overcome the determined Carolinian in the next six. Sylvia put away a driving overhead shot to take the second game, four points to two. This was the beginning of the end for Cullen. He was able to muster only five more points the rest of the day. Sylvia awed the large gallery with his passing shots, his overhead, his backhands and his rushing net play. In the seventh and final game, Cullen won the first point on a placement shot. It was his final point of the match. Sylvia took the next two points on passing shots, and then forced Cullen into two mistakes for the set and the match.

At this point much of the crowd left, perhaps being a little unfair to the remaining matches. Right on down the line the Tar Heels chalked up victories in the singles. Ben Keys won his fourteenth straight match of the season defeating Jim Duffy, 6-2, 6-4.

In other singles matches, all of which Carolina won, Walker Lockett defeated Davis Bowen, 6-1, 6-0; Will Hansel whipped H. V. Nelson, 6-2, 6-1; Marshall Happer beat Andy Terrill, 6-3, 6-0; and Tommy Ricks walloped Jim Nelson, 6-0, 6-3.

In the doubles the Tar Heels found their fortunes a little darker. Cullen and Duffy snapped Sylvia's and Keys' undefeated conference doubles string by whipping them, 11-9, 6-4. Cullen really showed his nettle in these games as he out thought and outplayed everybody on the court. Sylvia and Keys continually had trouble with their overhead shots and Cullen and Duffy fed them lobs time after time.

The other two doubles matches were less hectic. On the number two court Wake's Davis Bowen and H. V. Nelson won a battle, 6-3, 6-2. Garland Carlton and Richard Sanders gathered Carolina's only doubles victory, downing Jim Nelson and Andy Terrill, 6-1, 6-4.
