

Weather

If you really want to know call Raleigh-Durham Airport. The number is 6969.

U.N.C. Library
Series
Box 870
Chapel Hill, N.C.

The Daily Tar Heel

On the inside

Panty raid false alarm, page 3; Did Ward score? "Extra Points" on page 4.

VOLUME LXIX, No. 12

Complete (UPI) Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1960

Offices in Graham Memorial

Four Pages This Issue

Nixon Caravan To Charlotte Set Monday

Launching into what it hopes will be the "most outstanding year in its history," the UNC Young Republican Club yesterday announced plans for a Nixon Caravan to Charlotte next Monday and a full scale YRC membership drive to be conducted tomorrow and Friday.

The caravan will leave Chapel Hill by bus Monday afternoon and arrive in Charlotte in time to meet the campaigning Vice-President and Mrs. Nixon and hear the Republican presidential candidate deliver a major address that night.

Caravan reservations will be available for $6 a person—which includes round trip fare to Charlotte and also a specially prepared box lunch dinner.

Concerning the membership drive, Al Butler, Young Republican membership chairman, reminded students that the YRC will be playing a major role in the election campaign of the Nixon-Lodge-Gavin ticket this fall.

Reservations for the Nixon Caravan and Young Republican memberships — $1 per year—may be obtained at special tables which will be set up tomorrow and Friday in Lenoir Hall from 8 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 5-7 p.m., and also at "Y" Court from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The first regular meeting of the UNC Young Republicans will be Tuesday, October 11, at 8 p.m. in the Law School courtroom.

World News In Brief

Nations Backing Hammarskjold Deliver Defeat To Khrushchev

NEW YORK (UPI)—President Eisenhower appeared Tuesday to have delivered a stinging diplomatic defeat to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev by lining up a majority of African nations behind U.N. Secretary Dag Hammarskjold.

The State Department announcement of African support for Hammarskjold virtually doomed Khrushchev's efforts to replace him with a three-man, Soviet-style executive committee that would give Russia further veto power over U.N. actions.

★ ★ ★

30 Die In Crash Near Moscow

MOSCOW (UPI)—Three Americans were among 30 persons killed in the fiery crash of an Austrian Airlines Viscount airliner in a forest outside Moscow, the airline announced Tuesday. There were seven survivors, two of them U.S. assistant military attaches.

All of the crash survivors were injured and one of the American attaches was reported in serious condition.

★ ★ ★

Princess Grace Works For Kennedy

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI)—Princess Grace of Monaco will campaign for Democratic presidential candidate John F. Kennedy among American servicemen in Europe, it has been announced.

The former Grace Kelly, who retains her American citizenship, will work for Kennedy's election in France and Italy.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower Holds To Conditions

NEW YORK (UPI)—A high American official said Tuesday President Eisenhower has no intention whatsoever of meeting Premier Nikita Khrushchev unless a number of conditions are fulfilled in advance.

The high official said the first of these conditions, as the President has said before, is that the Russians must release the two RB47 fliers shot down over the Barents Sea and now held for trial on spy charges.

33 Beauties Already In Contest

Homecoming Queen Deadline Extended Until This Evening

UN Seminar Slates Thanksgiving Trip

The United Nations Seminar which is sponsored by the YM-YWCA twice each year has scheduled its fall trip for the Thanksgiving week-end. This will enable students to attend without missing classes.

Leaving for New York City Wednesday, November 23rd at 1:00 P.M., the Seminar group will have Thanksgiving Day free, begin conferences Friday morning, and return to Chapel Hill Sunday, November 27th at 7:00 A.M.

Previous to departure there will be four orientation meetings to discuss the topic of the Seminar, "The United Nations and Emerging States."

The first will be held Thursday, October 28th, and will continue each succeeding Thursday until November 17th. Literature on the topic will be presented at the first meeting.

Thirty-seven people may attend the Seminar. Applications are available in the "Y" office and the deadline is October 28th.

The basic cost will be $30.00 which includes round-trip bus fare, hotel room and registration. This fee will be due at the second orientation meeting.

Yack Giving Money Away

Yack workers of the world! Attention!

Checks for the work done on the 1960 Yackety Yack are now available in the Student Activities Office, Treasurer Jimmy Smalley has announced.

The following people have until Oct. 10 to claim their checks:

Winston Bilisoly, Marvin Taylor, Beverly Desmond, Ann Davidson, Julie Latene, Jerry Tognoli, Dick Repucci, Bruce Welch, Sally Harris, Dan Robins, Nan Reed, Pepsi Phelps, Bobbie Dono, Harriet Hable, Betty Green and Jackie Mier.

2,000 Thirsty Guests Indicate CU Day Success

If 2000 cups of punch are any indication, Consolidated University Day was a success.

Ben Lenhardt, reception chairman for the Consolidated University Student Council which was sponsor for CU Day, said the reception at Graham Memorial was well recognized. Drifting in at different times after the game, more than 2000 guests ate cookies and drank punch at the student union.

Bill Shipp, overall CU Day chairman, was quite pleased with Saturday's event:

"Both the dance and the reception were well attended, we were pleased with the candidates for queen and the queen herself. The council had a successful business meeting in appointing two committees: faculty salaries study and European tour," Shipp said. Swag Grimsley, chairman of the Order of the Grail dance at Woollen Gym, could not be lo-

Living Units Urged To Plan Yard Shows

The deadline for entering the homecoming queen contest has been extended until 11 p.m. today, Homecoming Committee Chairman Mike Deutsch has announced. The original Monday night deadline was moved up because of the increased confusion of Rush Week, Deutsch said.

Each dormitory, fraternity and sorority has been invited to submit names of girls they wish to sponsor in the contest to Deutsch in care of the Graham Memorial information desk today.

More than one girl can be sponsored by any one living entry. Entry fee is $5 for the first girl and $3 for each additional entry.

Some 33 entries have already been turned in, with 26 Greek organizations and nine dormitories failing to submit entries as of Tuesday.

Last year's contest, won by Gertie Barnes, had 50 entrants.

There will be no homecoming parade; Groups have been urged to begin to make plans for yard displays to exhibit homecoming day.

Queen contestants will be judged next Wednesday and the queen and her court selected. The finalists will be announced after the Wednesday judging.

However, the girl chosen as queen will remain unannounced until the presentation of the court at halftime of the Home-Notre Dame on Saturday, Oct. 8.

Tentative plans are being made to have a post-game reception at the Monogram Club with hopes of having the football team present.

The queen and her court will also be presented at intermission at a Grail Club-sponsored dance to be held in Woollen Gym from 8-12 p.m.

Atty. Gen. Asks Dismissal Of Suit Against University

The State Attorney General's office in Raleigh has filed a motion asking for dismissal of an anti-fluoridation suit against the University. The act was presented to the Orange County Superior Court.

A question of jurisdiction is the basis for the dismissal motion.

The attorney general acting as legal counsel for the University claims the superior court does not have jurisdiction over the school because the board of trustees has not been served with copies of the lawsuit.

The suit was filed Aug. 18, against UNC by Chapel Hill Attorney Harold Edwards for Manning Simmons. The suit named President William Friday, Chancellor William Aycock and Business Manager J. A. Branch as defendants.

The attorney general claims that none of the three men is a process agent for the school, making the suit not valid.

The court is expected to hear the dismissal motion Monday. If the motion is upheld, there is the probability of another suit being filed which would name either the University's process agent or each of the trustees as defendants.

Either way the motion is decided would result in a wait for the litigation to be completed with a complementary wait on fluoridating the water supply.

The suit filed by Simmons seeks a mandatory court injunction prohibiting UNC from fluoridating the University-owned water supply. Fluoridation plans were announced in June after a survey of water users in Chapel Hill. The process was scheduled to go into effect by October.

UNC Trustee Passes In Dunn

Albert Brant Smith Jr., a member of the UNC board of trustees and a Dunn insurance man, died in Dunn last Monday of a heart attack. He was 43.

Smith was serving his second term as a member of the University's board of trustees. He was also a member of the board of directors of the UNC Educational Foundation, a group that supports the school's athletic program.

He was a former president of the Harnett County chapter of the foundation and was active in the alumni association.

Public, Politicians Opine

Nixon, Kennedy Stalemate In Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Phone calls and telegrams of congratulations acted as effective tranquilizers Tuesday to Democratic and Republican officials who had worried about voter reaction to Monday night's Kennedy-Nixon debate.

The consensus of political experts was that the much-publicized television appearance was effective—and a draw. They believe neither candidate was hurt badly, if at all.

Judging from the telegraphed reaction Tuesday, both sides believe they picked up some votes from the other party.

One Democrat commented that "if the fight had been judged on points, Nixon might have had the edge. If you listened to hollers from the crowd, we might get the edge."

Democratic National Headquarters reported that the phone had been ringing all day, and that there was a large number of telegrams.

One result of the debate, Democratic officials said, was that Kennedy was able to "project himself" well, whereas before it was Nixon whose face was more familiar to the public eye.

At the same time, Nixon's Washington headquarters said it had received about 150 telegrams by mid-afternoon, 95 per cent of them favorable.

Nixon spokesmen said they were surprised by the number of telegrams that had come from Texas. They also said that a large number had come in from rural areas, all favorable to the Republican candidate.

One professional poll indicated that 45 per cent of 300 "blue collar" workers polled in a 32-city survey after the debate said they would vote for Kennedy. Twenty-five per cent said they would vote for Nixon, and 30 per cent said they were still undecided.

The poll was taken by International Communications Inc., which describes itself as a communications consulting organization specializing in labor-management affairs; and National Certified Interviews, Inc., which specializes in economic and market data.

The researchers said 90 per cent of the debate for its one-hour duration, and viewers they questioned said they watched 80 per cent indicated they were eager for more.

★ ★ ★

The judges of Monday night's Nixon-Kennedy debate—the American voters—won't make their final decision known until Nov. 8, but today they appeared overwhelmingly in favor of staging face-to-face encounters by the two presidential candidates.

A survey by United Press International indicated a split as to whether Vice President Richard M. Nixon or Sen. John F. Kennedy came across better in their hour-long meeting.

But all of those interviewed appeared inclined to agree with Matthew M. Butschek, 34, of Dallas, Tex., who said the debates were "the best thing that has ever happened in a presidential campaign."

Thomas Hogan, 31, a Denver, Colo., insurance salesman, said "I think both candidates made good appearances, presented their ideas well. Of course, you will be swayed by your political affiliation."

Those who picked a winner often favored the opposite candidate for identical reasons.

"Nixon did very well," said John Walton Lawson, 59, of Wilmet, Ill. "He did a whole lot better than Kennedy. He was more sincere and seemed to have more confidence."

"Sen. Kennedy seemed more sure of himself," said Mrs. Margaret Riley, 52, of Pittsburgh, Pa. "They both appeared sincere and both fine men, but Mr. Kennedy seemed to have a slight edge over Nixon."

A resident New Yorker, Jason Bacon, 26, said, "I was very impressed with the way the debate was handled, but I don't think either candidate came out best."

Bynum, Hill, 4 Other Halls To Get Face-Lifting This Fall

Bynum and Hill Halls, two old and much-used buildings, will receive face-liftings shortly.

Construction has begun on the renovation of Bynum Hall, former home of the School of Journalism.

When completed, the building will house offices of the drama, history and social science departments, and of Arthur M. Tuttle, the University's long-range planner.

Bynum will continue to house the UNC News Bureau (which will be extended) and the UNC Press, located in the basement.

Architects have been seen at work for some time completing drawing for a new addition to Hill Hall, home of the Music Department.

According to J. S. Bennett, director of operations, the new addition will comprise a capital investment of approximately $485,000, with $60,000 to be reserved for supplies. This money has been set aside in the budget book.

The addition, which is still on the drawing board, will be completed sometime around this January. Construction work will begin in approximately three months.

The entire building will still be used for the Department of Music.

Approximately $45,000 has been appropriated in the 1961-63 budget for further renovation of Bynum. Also in line to receive future improvements are: Wilson Hall ($570,000 for a new wing), Phillips Hall ($260,000 for renovation and rewiring of the old part), Murphy Hall ($95,000 for renovation), and Venable Hall ($25,000 for floor repairs).

INFIRMARY

Infirmary hours have been listed as 9-11:30 a.m. and 2-5 p.m. Students in the Infirmary yesterday included: Rebecca Bullock, Carroll Jean Wiggs, Sally Ann Lee, William Hackett Blanton, Henry Burch Bassett, Allen Hayward, Robert Baker, William Butler Brown Jr., Richard Lewis, Kenneth Boyle, Michael Dore, Edmond Knott, Frank Brockford, David Jackson, James Masters, John MacQueen, Dale House, Thomas Savage, Corbett Thomas, Walter Earle, James Erawder III, Daniel Wayne Hurlee, and Keith Gordon Ham.