Homecoming Queen Among Them

Homecoming Finalists Chosen; Queen Will Be Picked From 7

By GLENN LITSINGER

Seven Carolina coeds were chosen finalists in the homecoming queen contest Wednesday afternoon at a tea at Chancellor William B. Aycock's home.

The girls chosen, one of whom will become the homecoming queen, are Jane Allen, junior; Jayne Brown, senior; Janice Haley, junior; Jann Gannaway, junior; Gail Karmett, junior; Jane Page, junior; and Connie Pinyoun, junior.

The name of the queen will be announced during the halftime of the UNC-Notre Dame game; at the same time the queen and her court will be announced to the public.

Last year's contest had 50 entrants and was won by Bertie Barnes.

Each of the seven beauties will have an escort with her during the half time ceremonies, to be supplied by her sponsor.

The queen and her court will take their places, along with their designated escorts, on the sidelines five minutes before half time.

After the game they will be presented at the reception in the Monogram Club, and again that evening at the Grail Dance in Woolen Gym, to be held from 8-12 p.m.

Various organizations around the campus, excepting the sororities, are preparing homecoming displays as has been done in previous years. Judging in all classes will begin at 8 a.m. Saturday, and the results will be announced during the halftime ceremonies.

This year, and in all coming years, a trophy will be presented to the best display on campus in all categories. This trophy will be presented by the Chapel Hill Athletic Club.

"We are expecting a record number of alumni in Chapel Hill this weekend, thus it is paramount that we present a record show for them," said Mike Deutsch, chairman of the homecoming committee.

Deutsch continued, "Although the Pan-Hellenic Council has vetoed sorority participation in the homecoming displays, we still are looking forward to a successful Saturday."

The Student Carolina Athletic Council is in charge of homecoming.

Claims IDC

'Too Few Student Tickets'

By WAYNE KING

Shortage of football tickets available to students and their dates brought on heated discussion at the IDC meeting Wednesday night.

Student rights are being encroached upon, it was felt by the council, in that far from enough date tickets are provided to students for any home game.

The council acted on this problem by passing a three-part resolution in an attempt to remedy the situation.

The resolution is as follows: Whereas: The Athletic Association has made reduced price date tickets available for only a token number of games, and

Whereas: The number of date tickets available even at the regular price for any game are not commensurate with the demand, and

Whereas: Enrollment in the University has increased greatly, therefore increasing the demand for tickets to the games,

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED . . . THAT THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION BE STRONGLY URGED TO: I. MAKE IT A POLICY TO HAVE REDUCED PRICE DATE TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR MORE HOME GAMES.

II. ENLARGE THE STUDENT SECTION IF NECESSARY TO ACCOMMODATE THE INCREASED NUMBER OF STUDENTS AND GUESTS, AND

III. ADVISE THE INTER-DORMITORY COUNCIL, IF THESE REQUESTS CANNOT BE MET, WHY THEY CANNOT BE MET.

The resolution was proposed by Bill Williams, Mike Childs and Bill Sayers and passed by a 33-3 vote.

Copies of the resolution will be distributed campus-wide in an attempt to make the students aware of the situation.

Childs pointed out during the course of the discussion that "the primary reason for the existence of athletic games at Carolina is their importance to the student as a part of college life."

The three dissenting votes were cast in the belief that such action by the council was an encroachment on the administrative area designated to the Carolina Athletic Council.

This argument was met by Bill Sayers who contended that it is the responsibility of the student governing bodies such as the IDC to see that students' interests are represented in campus policy decisions.

Program Open On Russo-U.S.

UNC students interested in attending a two-day program on Russo-United States relations at Randolph-Macon Woman's College are asked to notify Hank Patterson, NSA coordinator, by Oct. 12.

The discussions will be held October 17-18.

The program, held in cooperation with the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will feature addresses by Admiral Alan Goodrich Kirk, former ambassador to the USSR; Charles B. Marshall of the Washington Bureau of Foreign Policy Research; and Joseph E. Johnson, president of the Carnegie Endowment.

Students will be served a free dinner the first evening of the conference. Transportation arrangements will be made.

Better Mottos

Prize Includes $100, Gold Plaque From NSA

By WAYNE KING

UNC's student government has captured top honors in national competition for the best student government program carried on during the 1959-60 academic year.

The Richard Welling Memorial Prize of $100 and a gold plaque was awarded by the United States National Student Association to UNC's Committee on Academic Affairs.

The committee has previously taken second place in the same competition.

Second place in the recent competition went to Florida A and M, with Harvard placing third. Ohio State received honorable mention.

Criteria for the achievement competition included contribution to the intellectual and/or character development of the student, effective participation in the educational or administrative policy-making processes of the institution, development of social awareness and citizenship responsibility, and the development of intracampus relationships.

The award-winning committee, headed by Norman B. Smith, received the award by virtue of its accomplishments in:

1. Promotion of the bond issue for capital construction.
  2. Evaluation of 3,000 course hours in eight departments and schools of the university.
  3. A thorough study of admissions standards with an aim to improving them.
  4. An attempt to improve the counseling system.
  5. The placing of students on several faculty committees for the first time in an ex-officio capacity.
- Chairman of this year's committee is Jim Scott, who last year worked with Smith on the above projects which resulted in the winning of the award.

PEP RALLY TONIGHT

There will be a Pep Rally tonight at 8:30 at Emerson Field. Finalists in the homecoming queen contests will be presented at the rally. UNC cheerleaders will lead the yells and members of the University band will supply music.

World News in Brief

U.S. Believes Cuban 'Invasion' Put-Up Job By Castro Regime

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department indicated Thursday it believes the so-called "invasion" of Cuba by a 27-man force was a put-up job by the Castro regime.

State Department spokesman Francis W. Tully Jr. told reporters, his voice laden with irony, "I certainly am impressed with the ingenuity of the Cubans in arranging a delegation with an American flag waving at its head."

The Cuban government said today that the "invasion force" including three Americans, landed in Cuba Tuesday, fought a pitched battle with government troops and that the leader was killed and 24 others fled to the hills.

Lawyer In McCarthy Hearings Dies

HYANNIS, Mass. (UPI)—Joseph N. Welch, lawyer, television star and make-believe judge who rose to fame in the Army-McCarthy hearings, died Thursday.

Welch would have been 70 on Oct. 22. He was recovering from a second heart attack at Cape Cod Hospital and was due to be discharged late this month. Death came unexpectedly at 10:24 a.m. EDT.

The Iowa-born lawyer walked calmly into the spotlight as unpaid counsel for the Army in its 1954 dispute with the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), who charged the service was infiltrated with Communists.

Powers Withdraw Plea In UN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Thursday (UPI)—The world's top neutralist powers have withdrawn their call for renewed contacts between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev after the General Assembly knocked out any reference to the two leaders.

On a motion by Argentina to strike from the neutralist resolution the words "president" of the United States and "chairman of the council of ministers" of the Soviet Union, the assembly returned a 40 to 37 vote to retain them.

Castro May Be Touring Front

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro dropped out of sight Wednesday, raising speculation he is touring the central Cuba front where 15,000 troops are battling armed guerrilla forces.

Informed sources said Castro is not in Havana and has not been seen since Sunday. His unexplained absence coincided with new reports of continued hit-run skirmishes in the Sierra de Escambray of Las Villas Province.

Hopeful Macmillan Goes Home

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan returned home Thursday with the expressed view that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev "had not destroyed the United Nations."

He stressed his belief that a summit conference should be held as early as possible.

Explosion Toll Rises To 13

KINGSFORD, Tenn. (UPI)—The death toll of an explosion that leveled a dye plant at the sprawling Tennessee Eastman chemical works rose to 13 Wednesday with the discovery of two more bodies.

An estimated 115 persons were injured by the blast which occurred about 5 p.m. Tuesday just as work shifts were changing at the vast installation which spreads over 400 acres.

2 Americans Held In Russia

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The State Department said today it has information indicating that American tourists missing in Russia since August are being held for taking photographs near the Soviet border.

The two are Harvey C. Bennett, 26, of Bath, Maine, and Mark Kaminsky, 28, of Jefferson Township, Mich.

Large Republican Crowd Hears Morton Rap Sanford

Over one hundred Young Republicans overflowed into the Law School court room Wednesday night to mark what one Young Republicans Club official described as "the beginning of a fantastic Republican upsurge on the Carolina campus."

The occasion was an address by David L. Morton, Chairman of the North Carolina Federation of Young Republicans and Republican candidate for Secretary of State of North Carolina.

Tearing into the Democratic state organization, Morton accused it and its nominee for governor, Terry Sanford, of embracing the "radical socialist ideas of the Democratic Convention at Los Angeles—ideas which are alien to the basic, long-standing conservative beliefs of North Carolinians."

Morton stated that the issues in the campaign are real and vital and should be brought to the attention of the voters.

Among the most conspicuous of these issues he listed:

- (1) "A definite need for revision of the state constitution—North Carolina is the only state in the Union that has not revised its constitution in over 60 years.
- (2) "Revised civil service and election laws to do away with unfair and corrupt state employment and voting practices."
- (3) "An overhauling of the entire state educational system with specific provisions for financing."

Also at Wednesday night's meeting, Neil Matheson, president of the UNC YRC, announced plans for "Gavin Day" to honor the Republican gubernatorial candidate when he visits the Carolina campus Oct. 18.

Club officers and committee chairmen for the coming year are: Neil Matheson, president;

Al Butler, first vice-president; Buddy Broome, second vice-president; Jane Prescott, secretary-treasurer; Carolyn Teretta, assistant secretary; Earl Baker, campaign committee chairman; Warren Williams, publicity committee chairman; Frank Walker, first voters committee chairman; Warren Coolidge and Charles Jonas, executive committee members.

Pi Phi Tops Scholastically

PI PHI WINS TROPHY—Martha Hodson, president of Pi Beta Phi, receives from Majorie Crane, president of Pan-Hellenic Council, the Council's award to the sorority having the highest scholarship average for the preceding semester. Running a close second was Delta Delta Delta.
