On The Hill

Brrrrr! It's Cold

By Susan Lewis

Brrrrr! It's cold—and it's going to get colder. Students were shivering to and from classes in the freezing weather yesterday.

The sun came out, but still the ice in Graham Memorial's parking lot stayed, making the way slippery for pedestrians and cars.

Radiators chugged and chugged, but still some classrooms and dorm rooms were chilly.

Hot chocolate and coffee were the top orders of the day.

One student, defying the thermometer, walked into Y-Court with no coat and ordered ice cream—three cold scoops worth.

Ear muffs and wool scarves kept coed ears away from the icy blasts of wind.

Hands without gloves grew redder and redder in the cold.

The thermometer hit a low of 17 during the day, staying below the freezing mark all day.

The weatherman says this cold spell will continue for awhile.

Old Man Winter has just begun his fun.

Bank Donates $2,000 For Scholarships

The Bank of Chapel Hill has donated $2,000 to the UNC School of Medicine to be used for scholarships during the next two years.

A letter from one of the bank officers, which accompanied the $2,000 check read, "Recognizing the great need for scholarships for students desiring to study medicine, we ask that this contribution be used for scholarships."

Essay Contest Announced By Ed Morgan Of ABC

An essay contest spotlighting student hopes for America during the 1960's has been announced by the ABC Radio Network, in cooperation with its chief commentator, Edward P. Morgan.

In announcing the contest, Morgan, who spoke in Chapel Hill last weekend, remarked that "President-elect Kennedy says that the country must move ahead to a new frontier. America's youth have the greatest stake of any group in that movement. Therefore it is fitting they should be asked what they most want the U.S. to accomplish in the 1960's."

Students must submit a 600-word essay on the topic, "What Do You Most Want the United States to Do at Home and Abroad in the Sixties?"

Entries must be mailed no later than December 28 to the following address: America in the '60's Contest P. O. Box 12-E Mount Vernon 10, N. Y.

The two winners, one boy and one girl, will be flown to New York on January 18 to lunch with industrial leaders, visit the United Nations, attend a Broadway show and participate in other events.

The following day the winners will go to Washington to meet with government leaders and attend the presidential inauguration as guests of the ABC news team. They will also have invitations to the Inaugural Ball.

Essays will be judged on content (70%) and form, 30%.

DECK THE HALLS

The time has come to make out our Christmas shopping lists, for Christmas will be upon us quicker than you can say Jack Robinson. (Have you ever wondered, incidentally, about the origin of this interesting phrase "Quicker than you can say Jack Robinson"? Well sir, the original phrase was French—

"Plus vite que de dire Jacques Robespierre." Jack Robinson is, as everyone knows, an anglicization of Jacques Robespierre who was, as everyone knows, the famous figure from the French Revolution who, as everyone knows, got murdered in his bath by Danton, Murat, Caligula, and Aaron Burr. (The reason people started saying "Quicker than you can say Jacques Robespierre (or Jack Robinson as he is called in English-speaking countries)" is quite an interesting little story. It seems that Robespierre's wife, Georges Sand, got word of the plot to murder her husband in his bath. All she had to do to save his life was call his name and warn him. But, alas, quicker than she could say Jacques Robespierre, she received a telegram from her old friend Frederic Chopin who was down in Majorca setting lyrics to his immortal "Warsaw Concerto." Chopin said he needed Georges Sand's help desperately because he could not find a rhyme for "Warsaw." Naturally, Georges Sand could not refuse such an urgent request.

(Well sir, Georges Sand went traipsing off to Majorca, but before she left she told her little daughter Walter that some bad men were coming to murder daddy in his bath, and she instructed Walter to shout Robespierre's name when the bad men arrived. But Walter, alas, had been sea-bathing that morning on the Riviera, and she had come home loaded with sea shells and salt water taffy, and when the bad men came to murder Robespierre, Walter, alas, was chewing a big wad of salt water taffy and could not get her mouth open in time to shout a warning. Robespierre, alas, was murdered quicker than you could shout Jacques Robespierre (or Jack Robinson as he is called in the English-speaking countries).

(There is, I am pleased to report, one small note of cheer in this grisly tale. When Georges Sand got to Majorca where Chopin was setting lyrics to his immortal "Warsaw Concerto," she was happily able to help him find a rhyme for "Warsaw," as everyone knows who has heard those haunting lyrics: In the fair town of Warsaw, Which Napoleon's horse saw, Singing cockles and mussels, alive alive ahoy

But I digress. We were speaking of Christmas gifts. What we all strive to do at Christmas is, of course, to find unusual, offbeat, different gifts for our friends. May I suggest then a carton of Marlboro Cigarettes? What? You are astonished? You had not thought of Marlboros as unusual, offbeat, different? You had regarded them as familiar, reliable smokes whose excellence varied not one jot or tittle from year to year? True. All true. But at the same time, Marlboros are unusual, offbeat, different, because every time you try one, it's like the first time. The flavor never palls, never gets hackneyed. Each Marlboro is a fresh delight, a pristine pleasure, and if you want all your friends to clap their hands and exclaim, "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus!" you will put them at the very top of your Christmas list.

And for further Yuletide joy, give Marlboro's nonfiltered companion cigarette, mild, flavorful Philip Morris—in regular size or the sensational new king-size Commander. You'll be welcome aboard!
