C. Morrow; "Organic Chemistry"; "Radio Chemistry"; "Inorganic Chemistry"; "Instrumental Analysis"; and a second show on "Radio Chemistry," concerned with problems of radioactive fallout.

Jaycees To Pick Miss Chapel Hill For This Year

The Chapel Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce announces that four experienced judges will select the new Miss Chapel Hill for 1961 on March 17.

Mrs. Kay Kyser of Chapel Hill heads the list of judges. Miss Tonya Gamble of Durham, Top-Ten Dance Party hostess on a local television station, will also serve as judge.

The men judges for the pageant are certainly not strangers to Chapel Hill. Dr. Curtis Lashley, physician at Guilford College, graduated from the University of North Carolina Medical School. The fourth judge, Martin L. Cromartie Jr., is a graduate of U.N.C. Law School and serves as municipal judge in Tarboro.

Pageant co-chairmen John Ulmer and Bill Sparrow announce the largest number of entries in many years will compete for the Miss Chapel Hill crown. Both U.N.C. co-eds and native Chapel Hill girls will be in the pageant. The winner will represent the town of Chapel Hill in the Miss North Carolina Pageant at Greensboro this summer.

Di-Phi Debates N.C. Secession From U.S.

Should N. C. secede from the Union? Di-Phi members will reach a decision tonight at 8 in New West Hall. They must also decide whether or not to ratify the Constitution of the Provisional Government of the Confederate States of America.

The debate, in observance of the national Civil War Centennial celebration, will be held as nearly as possible in the spirit of the original state convention of May 20, 1861. Period costumes will help set the mood.

Research Work Open To Students

During the summer of 1961 the Field Crops Department of State College will sponsor an Undergraduate Research Participation program in cooperation with the National Science Foundation.

The program will run from June 12 to August 18. Participants will receive a stipend of $60 a week for the ten-week period.

To qualify a student must have a "B" average.

-Rash- (Continued from Page 1) Sevier and Harrington. The secretary must not only have experience but also organizational ability and the energy and desire to smoothly coordinate the efforts of the executive branch. Lynda's work this year in the Secretariat gives her a complete knowledge of the job plus the necessary background to organize a successful staff of assistants. She has also served as secretary of the Elections Board.

"To round out this ticket of experience, Pete Thompson has been nominated by the University Party for Treasurer. Pete has filled a University Party legislative seat in DM II for two years and has chaired the Finance Committee."

-King- (Continued from Page 1) "His editorial views as expressed in the editor's columns are his own, and are not necessarily more important, nor more valid than the views of another student.

"The right to make editorial comment stems from being in a position of information. It is not the right to dictate or stir conflicting opinion.

"It is the same right to comment that any student has. His comment, however, must be based on analysis of fact, not on personal prejudice or bias."
